68 ENTERED CONTEST

By C. EDWARD SPARROW
Sports Editor The Sun

The design sent in by Miss Edith Ogilby Cooke, of Chambersburg, Pa., in the Ban B. Johnson pennant contest was adjudged the best of more than threescore submitted by women baseball fans of the Blue Ridge and Eastern Shore leagues.

Second place also was won by a resident of the Blue Ridge League when the judges voted in favor of the design submitted by Mrs. H. O. Cost, of Hagerstown, Md., and the third prize was awarded to a representative of the Eastern Shore League, Mrs. A. S. Mercier, of Madison, Dorchester county.

Johnson Conceived Idea

Ban B. Johnson, president of the American League, who conceived the idea of having women submit designs for his 1924 "Five Star" championship series pennant, yesterday mailed his personal checks to the winners. They are: First, $150; second, $50, and third, $25.

Sixty-eight women entered the competition and many handsome designs were submitted. The judges spent four hours on the night of November 24 looking over the drawings before they could come to a conclusion. They made their selections through the process of elimination. A brief recess was taken, after which the officials placed those remaining upon one table and discussed the relative merits of the designs.

Only Three Remained

One by one those remaining were declared out of the contest by unanimous consent. Finally three remained and opinion was not divided as they were adjudged first, second and third.

The judges believe that the design submitted by Miss Cooke will meet with the approval of the fans of both the Blue Ridge and Eastern Shore leagues. They point out that the design, which appears elsewhere on this page, can be standardized by the mere transposition of several words.

Parksley, Va., beat Martinsburg, W. Va., in the series last September. Miss Cooke has placed "Va" in the center of the baseball, with the other states represented in the two leagues surrounding the winner.

Miss Cooke placed the name of the victorious organization Eastern Shore over the word Champions. All that is necessary in the future, the judges point out( is to interchange the name of the winning state and league and of course, to change the year.

Specifications call for a blue pennant body, white numerals and lettering, except for the words "Eastern Shore," which will be of red; white baseball, blue lettering, except for the name of the state in the center circle, which will be of red, to correspond with the winning league. In the tapered end of the pennant will be five little white dots.

Will Be Made of Silk

The winning design will be sent to a manufacturer of pennants immediately and President Johnson has ordered it to be made of silk. Some time during the 1925 race the donor will be expected to visit Parksley to present his emblem to the citizens of that town, which is the smallest in organized ball. Martinsburg won the first Johnson flag and Dover the second.

Mrs. Cost's design was well executed and highly commendable. She outlined the states represented by the leagues and placed a large "5" in approximate center. The various cities were marked with dots, while the winner was given a star. The word "Champions" was placed similar to the winning pennant, with 1924 above and two crossed bats and baseballs below.

The design submitted by Mrs. Mercier also was unique. Her idea was a large star at the base of the pennant, with a baseball in the center, on which was the year and in each point of the star the abbreviated lettering of each state. The word "Champions" in white was on blue background.

Competition was almost equally divided between the baseball leagues. The Blue Ridge furnished 36 competitors and the Eastern Shore 32 for an aggregate of 68.

Honorable mention in this section follows:

Miss Ruth Davis, Cambridge
Miss Alice B. Langrall, Cambridge
Mrs. Robert H. Matthews, Cambridge
Mrs. Benjamin McAllister, Cambridge
Miss Agnes Phelps, East New Market
Mrs. R. L. Henry, Cambridge

Mrs. Ella F. Boyer, Dover, Del.

SIDELIGHTS ON BALTIMORE

"The Early Eighties; Sidelights on the Baltimore Forty Years Ago" is the title of a book that has just been published by the Mercantile Trust and Deposit Company of Baltimore. The book, which is in commemoration of the company's Fortieth anniversary, contains a number of references to men, women and events in Baltimore four decades ago, and is illustrated with pictures of buildings and other places of interest as they appeared in the early 1880's.

ELECTRICITY AND LABOR

Electric Service is thoroughly democratic.
It serves employer and employee alike and gives them both comfort and satisfaction.
It brings to the cottage many of the luxuries of the mansion—the same, bright, cheerful light, the same summer and winter comfort, the same labor-saving assistance.
LIGHT was at one time the indulgence of the rich. Today electric light is cheaper than tallow candles—everybody can enjoy it.

REGAIN YOUR HEALTH

WOMAN

Your system often revolts against the burdens Nature imposes upon you. The trials and duties of the exacting age rapidly undermine your constitution and weaken your body, leaving you frequently "out-of-sorts."

You accept it as your right and because old practices offer little relief that you care to try.

You can be strong, healthy and happy. Your system which is affected by disturbed nerve function can be restored to normal, and then Nature will do its part in building up your system—all through simple

CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTMENTS

Chiropractic corrects the cause of your peculiar ills by adjusting the subluxation (displacement) of the vertebrae and releasing the interference from your nerves. Acute and Chronic cases are all handled in Nature's own way; operation, drugs, and all instruments are avoided.

Investigate. Give Chiropractic a trial and convince yourself of its merits. An analysis will be gladly given. There is nothing embarrassing in the method.

MAN

Are you slowing down? Can't keep up the pace? Don't sit and wonder why. The surprise is that you have kept it up without serious effects. The rush of business and work, the 24-hour-day worries, fall heavily on a man's depleted system.

Have your nerve force restored to vigor and your whole system revived—recharged with a new store of energy—so that the old time endurance, the old time capacity to accomplish, the old time health will return.

Chiropractic Is What You Need for through it the nerves are restored to their normal carrying capacity, and the life force will be permitted to build you up and make you 100% efficient.

Scores of leaders in the world's activities are endorsing Chiropractic as the efficient, drugless, commonsense way to health. Give Chiropractic a trial; adjustments will convince you of its merits.
