TOWN & COUNTY Personalographs

Mrs. Van Gesel is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. A. E. Miller was on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Clark spent Thursday in Baltimore.

Magistrate Rickards spent Wednesday in Baltimore.

Mr. G. W. King has purchased a new Chevrolet sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Kauffman motored to Lancaster today.

Mrs. J. L. Everngam returned from Baltimore Monday night.

Miss Mary Pippin returned home on Wednesday from Ridgely.

The Rev. C. N. Jones left yesterday for conference in Wilmington.

Miss Lucy Garey is at home recuperating from her recent illness.

Mr. Zeb Steele is able to be out again after a long siege of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Fleetwood and family spent Sunday in Centreville.

Mrs. I. S. Hollingsworth spent the latter part of last week in Baltimore.

Messrs. W. B. Parker and Samuel Nowell were Dover visitors Saturday.

Mrs. I. A. McGrew left Sunday to visit her mother in New York state.

Mrs. Fletcher and Mrs. Tripp, of Easton were Denton visitors last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Lednum spent this week with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Funk.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sparklin have as their guest, Mr. McShane of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Meredith have been visiting their daughter in Philadelphia.

Mrs. G. C. Skirvin, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has been the guest of friends in town.

Hon. and Mrs. T. A. Goldsborough and family were Rehoboth visitors on Sunday.

The Rev. S. Ira Arnold will deliver the Lenten address at Christ church tonight.

Have you seen the display of fine dress goods at Long & Short's at Federalsburg? ad

Mr. Clarence R. Pentz, of Juniata College, is spending his vacation with his parents.

Miss Dorothy Wright, of Preston, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Deen.

Miss Elsie Mitchell and Miss Margaret Neal are spending Thursday and Friday in Baltimore.

Mr. Warren Swain, of Harrington, Del., spent the week end in Denton with his friends.

Mrs. A. A. Meredith, of Easton, is visiting at the home of Mr. J. B. Colgain this week.

Mrs. W. J. Rickards returned Monday night from Baltimore, where she spent the week end.

Some real bargains in fine dress goods are being offered by Long & Short at Federalsburg. ad

Mrs. Alex McWilliams and Mrs. Anstee were luncheon guests on Wednesday of Mrs. Scotton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dukes Downes and son, of Baltimore, spent Wednesday in Denton with friends.

Robert and Carval Fleetwood entertained Erdmon and Harold Jones at dinner Tuesday evening.

Misses Hilda Covey and Lelia Mudd spent Tuesday in Wilmington and Wednesday in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roe returned from Baltimore Friday where they had been visiting friends for a few days.

Miss Laura Melvin has recovered from her recent illness and is able to resume her duties at school.

Mrs. R. C. Wilson and Mrs. Bishop of Centreville, were guests last Friday of Mrs. I. R. Fleetwood.

Miss Pearl Mitchell, of Port Deposit, is spending the spring vacation with Miss Elsie Mitchell.

Miss Dorothy Saylor, domestic science instructor at Juniata College, is the guest of Mrs. C. A. Pentz.

Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor and family, of Wilmington spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clark.

Mrs. T. Fred Johnson, Misses Frances and Emily, and Miss Katherine Stewart spent Wednesday in Wilmington.

Mrs. Elmer Anthony and son, of Centreville, spent a few days this week with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Haymaker.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Evans, and daughter, Elizabeth and Misses Florence Morgan and Louise Norris spent Sunday in Hurlock.

Mr. L. R. Beauchamp and daughter Charlotte, and Miss Kemp of Harrington, visited Mr. and Mrs. Boone Beauchamp on Sunday.

Dr. D. O. George and little son Orem visited Mrs. George in Easton hospital on Tuesday. Mrs. George is improving nicely, at last report.

Miss Julia Keets, who has been making her home with her aunt, of Salisbury, is now spending some time with her uncle, Mr. Ralph Thawley.

Mrs. C. S. York is spending several days in Wilmington, visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Mode and attending the M. E. conference now in session.

Two of Denton's business houses, the Quality meat market and Mr. Geo. H. Koenig's bakery, are improving their places by having new awnings put up.

Many beautiful and timely pictures are shown in the Photogravure Section of THE BALTIMORE SUNDAY SUN every Sunday. No other Maryland paper carries Photogravure. Have the local newsdealer reserve a copy for YOU regularly. ad

Mr. and Mrs. Cloves Baker of Springfield Mass., who have been visiting her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bundy, of near Harmony, have bought a home in Grasonville, and will reside there in the future.

Master Paul Thawley was removed to his home Sunday from the Easton hospital, where he was taken to have a grain of corn removed from his throat, and later contracted pneumonia He is much improved at this time.

Mrs. Lulu V. G. Westerfield, of Port Deposit, is visiting Mrs. F. R. Owens and Mrs. H. L. Cooper this week. Over the end her daughters, the Misses Gladys and Jeanette visited with their mother.

Last Friday Mr. George Butler was agreeably surprised by a number of friends who gathered at his home to remind him of his 26th birthday. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and at a late hour refreshments were served.

Mr. S. F. Cole has built a large lumber shed on the back of his lot which will be used to store his lumber and building supplies. Mr. Cole will now be ready to meet any demand in the building material line that may be wanted.

Mrs. Samuel Lewis entertained last Friday the Mission Class of Christ church, which is conducted by Miss Jenkins of Easton. Tea and waters were served following the business session. This week Mrs. J. Roland Chaffinch will be hostess of the class.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Loomis and children of Myre, Mich., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Woodhall. They made the trip by auto, coming on Saturday evening, March 21st. On their way East they passed through the section visited by the tornado just the day before it swept that section.

The Complete Home Entertainer—that's what readers call the New, 16-page, Handy-Size Magazine Section of the THE BALTIMORE SUNDAY SUN, with its six pages (including four of BLACK MAGIC) for boys and girls. Arrange with the local newsdealer NOW for a copy for YOUR family every Sunday. ad

CONCORD

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Lord were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Griffin.

Mr. Alex Lord is sick with the mumps.

The Concord Epworth League was entertained at the home of Mrs. Atkins, last Friday evening.

Mrs. J. B. Welck and daughter, Clementine, are visiting in Baltimore this week.

Mrs. Bertha Culver, the wife of Mr. Charles Culver, died at her home Monday morning at 6 o'clock. The funeral will be held at Concord M. E. church at 2 o'clock, Wednesday, interment at Federalsburg.

CHOPTANK

The Mite Society of the M. E. church will hold a box social in the club room Friday evening April 3d. Ice cream, cake, pie and candy will be on sale.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Andrews have returned home after spending the winter traveling.

The Christian Endeavor will meet at the M. P. church Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. The topic will be Friendliness as Expressed Through Evangelistic Missions. The leader will be Miss Eva Goswellyn.

Miss Mrytle Whiteley spent Wednesday evening with Miss Marie Sanders.

Miss Marie Sanders spent Thursday evening with Miss Myrtle Whiteley.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williamson visited relatives Sunday.

HOBBS

Mrs. Lee Butler went to Chester on Saturday last, having been called to the bedside of her father, Mr. Frank Murphy, who was paralyzed on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trice, of Federalsburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. James Willoughby on Sunday.

Mrs. David Cartwright, of Bowers Beach, and Mr. Barton Cartwright, of Wilmington, visited Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Sutherl, last Sunday.

Mrs. A. W. Betts and son, Martin, of Felton, and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Betts, of Wilmington, visited friends here on Tuesday.

Mrs. Robert Neighbors is the appointed leader of the C. E. Service next Sunday evening.

AMERICAN CORNER

Mrs. Fred Beauchamp, Mrs. Oscar Nichols and Mrs. Bennett were the guests of Mrs. Crales Culver, Wednesday, March 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lord and sons, Billy and Francis, of Concord, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Howard and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Olas Smith and son, Edward, visited friends in Burrsville, Sunday.

Miss Hazel Buker visited relatives in Denton, Sunday.

Mrs. Lydia Hunt visited Mrs. O. H. Howard, Thurday.

We were all very sorry to learn of Mrs. Charles Culver's death Monday morning.

Mr. Lee Culver visited his parents over the week end and was detained on account of his mother's death.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Towers were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Culver on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Howard and sons and small daughter were the guests, Sunday evening, of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cox, of Laurel Grove.

UNION GROVE

Rev. F. J. Phillips and wife and Mrs. Carrie Jester were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Collins, of American Corners, last Sunday.

The fourth quarterly conference of Grove charge was recently held in the Grove church. Dr. G. I. Humphries, president of Maryland conference was with us and presided at this meeting. Mr. Frank Collins was declared delegate elect to the annual conference which meets in Hampden M. P. church in Baltimore on the first day of April.

Rev. F. J. Phillips, wife and nephew were the guests of Mr. J. C. Colbourn last Sunday evening.

Mr. Francis Kelley, of Harmony, and Miss Jennie Marshall, of Choptank, were married on Thursday evening, March 19th, at the M. P. parsonage. Rev. F. J. Phillips, the pastor, officiated.

The condition of Mrs. George A. Baer continues to be very serious. Mrs. Baer has the sympathy of all in the community, and is frequently visited by her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Collins were the guests for supper at the M. P. parsonage on Monday evening.

HURLOCK

Messrs. Russell and Carlton Jones, of Stockton, were the guests of their uncles, Messrs. W. S. B. and James H. Cottman, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Cottman and son, William, and Olive ane visited Mr. Cottman's sister, Mrs. Jones, of Stockton, Sunday.

Miss Mary M. Kelley spent the week end with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Kelley, at Bozman, Md.

Master Edgar Marine was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Louisa Travers, at Fairlee, Kent county, Sunday.

Mr, and Mrs. Charles R. Wheatley and Mr. and Mrs. Olney P. Ross were the guests of Mrs. Joseph Usilton and Miss Louisa Travers, at Fairlee, Sunday.

HARMONY

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Willis of Hobbs spent Sunday with Mrs. Bell Dean.

Howard Willis, of Hobbs, spent Sunday with Floyd Kelley.

Mr. Frances Kelley of this place, and Mrs. Jennie Marshall of Choptank were united in marriage at Grove parsonage on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock by the Rev. Phillips. They will reside on the Andrew Towers farm near here.

Miss Mildred Collins spent the week end in Wilmington and Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Thomas, of Denton, were the guests of Mr. Thomas' parents on Sunday.

Mrs. Elsie Fishel and children, of Concord, spen Friday evening with Mrs. Carrie Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Thorp and children, of Barkley, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tate on Sunday.

Mrs. Mollie Stoery is visiting her daughter in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Carrie Collins and Mr. E. Stoery visited their brother, Jame Stoery, in Talbot county, Sunday.

Mrs. James Cox, of Laurel Grove, spent Saturday evening with Mrs. McConnell.

Do it now—Advertise

Nevada's Ancient City 10,000 Years Old

Prof. M. R. Herrington (arrow) of New York, at scene of unearthed city that he discovered in sandhills of southern Nevada, which is believed to be 10,000 years old and the habitation the oldest civilization in the U. S.

TIMELY TALKS

XIII

Lovely fabrics for spring and summer dresses are here in a charming riot of color! You need to see them to appreciate their charm and adaptability.

There are PRINTED CREPES (so popular this season) in a wide variety of choice; FLAT CREPES, SATIN CREPES, CREPES DE CHINE, Charming SILK STRIPED CREPES, LINENS, in many lovely shades, some sheer summer materials in dainty colorings and a new assortment of beautiful GINGHAMS and TISSUES

This doesn't cover, by any means, all the new materials we have, but it gives some idea of them, With such a wide range of choice in fabric and a variety of trimmings, buttons, etc., the clever woman can easily achieve a pleasing costume with small outlay.

We invite you to view these materials in our dress goods department where some unusual new summer sweaters may also be seen.

LONG & SHORT

FEDERALSBURG

HER EASTER GIFT— A BOX OF CANDY OR A POTTED FLOWER

DON'T FORGET THE KIDDIES EITHER

We have a large selection of Easter Eggs that will delight any youngster and prices that will suit every one.

WE WILL PUT ANY NAME ON EGGS—FREE

WATCH OUR WINDOW DISPLAYS

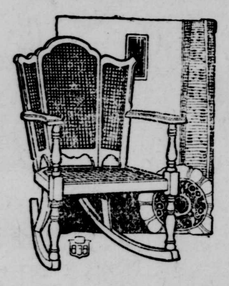
EASTER BASKETS IN ALL STYLES

Either Plain or Filled, priced from 5c to $5

ORDERS TAKEN FOR ALL CUT FLOWERS

DENTON CANDY KITCHEN

214 Market St. DENTON, Md.



WHY NOT ANOTHER

ROCKER

in your Living Room?

One of this type is very popular—some have Cane Seat and Back, others have upholstered Seat, but all are comfortable and attractive.

NATHAN'S FURNITURE STORE

Cambridge Salisbury Seaford

PRESENTED THIS WEEK

Many Newer Coats- Dresses Ensembles and Millinery

Our presentation last week of new wearing apparel brought a lavish response from discriminating women for many miles.

They came, they saw, they bought.

New models have just been received that give an added interest to this incomparable collection.

Priced with moderation too that will surprise you.

STORE NOW OPEN EVENINGS

POOLE BROS.

"Women's Shop"

Federalsburg, Md.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2929_scm3548-0106.jpg