

is at home at present and well and the boy also. If I had some money to spare, I should come and see you on my return, for I should like to spend a week with you, and children I should like to see Jack, I suppose he can swim by this time. Ask Cousin Pim if he has got his bath house finish yet, I had one good spell of sea sickness and I do not think I will have any more, I will now close.

yours truly

Stuart Holland