TOWN & COUNTY Personalographs

Mr. Andrew Covey visited in Preston last week.

Mrs. Fred Nuttle spent Wednesday in Baltimore.

Miss Katherine Taylor is visiting in Baltimore.

Mrs. Lemuel Clough is spending the week in Church Hill.

Miss Anne Anthony was a Baltimore visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Temple spent Sunday at Templeville.

Mrs. T. P. Fisher has returned after a trip to Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Owen Knotts were Rehoboth visitors Sunday.

Mr. Howard Sullivan spent yesterday in Baltimore on business.

Miss Esther Dunham spent the week end in Baltimore and Washington.

Rev. Mr. S. Ira Arnold is attending a convention on the western shore.

Mr. A. E. Miller is able to be out again after an attack of erysipelas.

Mrs. John T. Carter and Miss Ella are visiting in Baltimore this week.

Mrs. Dwight Biscoe spent the week end in Baltimore with her husband.

Mrs. Otis Smith and children of Eastville, Va., are visiting her mother.

Mr. Benjamin F. Johnson of Dover spent several days in town this week.

Mrs. Josephine Thawley of Centreville visited Denton friends Sunday.

Friends of Miss Miriam Todd gave her a shower Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beck are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Mr. Rufus Cannon of Baltimore was the week end guest of Mrs. Martha Cannon.

Miss Pauline Wiley, of Smyrna, Del., spent the week end at her home near town.

Mrs. Stanley Deakyne and children are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George A. Deakyne.

Mrs. Roland Seeders is the guest of her father, Mr. Atwood Todd, for a month.

Mrs. Lina Harrington has been nursing Mrs. Harvey Collison of Burrsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Walston and their daughter Blanche were Hurlock visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rutter of Washington were week end guests of their parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parker and sons and Mrs. M. M. Cochran spent Sunday at Elkton.

Mrs. Linnie C. Percy will open a boarding house in the Dukes Downes property on May 1.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Straughn were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fleming of Hillsboro on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Fleetwood had as their guest for dinner on Sunday Mrs. Roy C. Smith.

Mrs. R. C. Wilson of Centreville spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. I. R. Fleetwood.

Dr. and Mrs. B. Sargent Wells and son returned to their home in Baltimore on Thursday last.

Mrs. Ed Brown and Miss Grace Adams of Hickman were guests of Denton friends on Tuesday.

Mrs. Roy C. Smith of Morgantown, W. Va., was the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Smith.

Mrs. Blackiston and daughter and Miss Bowman are visiting Mrs. T. R. Green and Miss Sue Smith.

Miss Margaret Jane Knotts spent the week end as the guest of her aunt Mrs. James Wise, of Dover.

Mr. C. P. Dunning has been on the sick list this week and has been unable to go on his mail route.

Mr. Harvey Thawley spent the week end with Rev. and Mrs. Helsby, formerly of Denton, at Milton, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Virgil Moore, Mrs. Ed Nichols and Miss Mattie Moore motored to Seaford yesterday.

Mrs. Harriet Anderson left Monday for her home in Church Hill after spending several weeks in Denton.

Misses Louise and Mildred Nuttle and Virginia and Caroline Davis were Baltimore visitors one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hardcastle of Baltimore were guests last week of Mrs. John Wilson and Mrs. Alda P. Whitby.

Kennard Longfellow entertained the members of Miss Mattie Moore's class at his home in Tuckahoe Neck on Monday evening.

Mrs. Mattie Dulin, who has been spending some time here while recuperating from an operation, left for her home in Marcus Hook today.

Dr. and Mrs. Dukes Smith, and Mrs. Phillips of Cambridge were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Smith. Dr. Smith remained for a week's visit.

Rev. T. C. Smoot has as his guests his brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Brown ,who have sold their Florida home and will spend the summer here.

Mr. Will Bullock, Mrs. Earl White and the Misses Rebecca Cohee and Marie Eaton drove to Philadelphia on Tuesday and returned with two new cars.

Mr. and Mrs. John Statum had for their week end guests Mr. and Mrs. John R. Legates, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Legates and son, all of Wilmington, Del.

Members of the Sunbeam class, taught by Miss Pauline Roe, and Mr. Fisher's class of boys gave a farewell party to Miss Francis Wilson in the Sunday School classroom on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Wilson are moving today to Salisbury. The house they are vacating will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hughes, while Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby Nowell will take the house on Riverton avenue which the Hughes are leaving.

Last Sunday evening a large audience enjoyed the trip to India through the mirroscope at the Church of the Brethren. Four short talks were given on the different phases of mission work there, and each was made real by the views and explanations by Mrs. Arnold. We hope to see more views from India and other lands at a later date.

On Lexington Ground as 150 Years Ago

With Gen. Pershing and Vice-President Dawes looking on, modern Massachusetts minute-men re-enacted the battle of Lexington and Concord in the 150th anniversary of the historic battle. Above is a view of the Concord bridge today, showing the modern minute-men opening fire on the British as the Colonials did April 18, 1875.

BURRSVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ivins were given a welcome into our community last Friday evening by the Calithumpian band, after considerable noise they were invited into the house, where they were treated to candy, fruits and cigars.

Mr. Charles T. Harvey, who spent the winter and early spring in Pennsylvania and New York, has returned home.

Mr. Harry Raughley, of Harrington, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Annie Raughley.

Mrs. Annie Raughley spent the early part of last week in Greensboro as the guest of her son, Mr. P. S. Raughley, and family.

Mr. Allan T. Garrett, of Easton, spent Sunday here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Garrett.

Mrs. Mary Jane Curry, of Greensboro, is spending this week with relatives here.

Miss Ernestine Carroll, of Denton, was the guest of Miss Dorothy Collison over the week end.

Miss Mollie Cahall and Mr. Tom Cahall and son, Lester, spent Sunday with relatives in Wyoming.

Miss Rachel Price, of Wilmington, returned home Sunday from a visit with her parents and was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Price, and Mr. and Mrs. Powell Hopkins and two daughters, Laura Bell and Lelia Emma.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fountain entertained, on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harrington and eight children, of Long Woods, Talbot county.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Pierson and son visited Easton relatives, on Sunday.

QUEEN ANNE

Miss Hilda Swann spent the week end in Baltimore.

The Hillsboro grammar school boys and girls won a dodge ball game from Queen Anne, Monday afternoon. The game was played in Queen Anne.

William Stevens and friend have returned from a trip which included different towns and cities in New Jersey, and also spent some time in New York city. Mr. Stevens drove his new Nash.

Dr. and Mrs. Chairs, who have been spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. John Chairs, returned to their home last week.

Mrs. Rood and Mrs. Cora Briscoe left Monday to attend the annual missionary meeting of the Baltimore conference. The meeting is being held in Staunton, Va.

The state road men are at work on the road between Queen Anne and the Damson school house. The right of way has been fully secured and it is expected that the contractor will push on to an early finish. The work on the shell road between Hillsboro and Denton is in progress and at this time the cement is being poured.

May 10th will be observed as Mother's Day by St. Paul's church. At 10:30 and appropriate sermon, and at 7:30 a program by the schoir and the Wesley Bible class.

The first quarterly conference for this year will be held on May 16th, and on Sunday morning, the 17th, Dr. Wells will preach.

Mr. Howard Andrews is out again, after several days of illness. It is said that Mr. Andrews has sold out his part of the business to Mr. Bishop.

Mrs. Jump, of Salisbury, and Miss Elizabeth have been spending a few days with Mrs. Lightner.

Miss Virginia Eutsler, of Winchester, Va., has been the guest of Mrs. and Mrs. Howard Flowers.

PRESTON

At the morning service of the M. E. Church the congregation was favored with a duet by Mrs. Clara Payne and Mrs. Max Chambers. The choir gave a selection at both the morning and evening services.

The first quarterly conference met at the M. E. Church last Friday.

Professor W. H. Ballard of the State University of Maryland, gave an illustrated lecture on landscape gardening last Thursday evening in the high school auditorium. The Community Club was there in good attendance. Prof. Ballard, with Miss Spafford, the County Home Demonstrator, inspected the shrubbery around the high school building which was recently placed there by the Parent and Teacher Association, the Woman's Club and the Senior class. They were very much pleased and Prof. Ballard complimented the arrangement of the plants.

The preliminary declamation contest will be held in the high school auditorium on Thursday evening of this week. Those competing for first place are: Mary Fluharty, Ruth Lednum, Dorothy Wright and Robert Dulin. The winner will go to Denton to compete with the other representatives of the high schools in the county on Tuesday, May 5th.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Collins spent several days in Baltimore last week. They were called to the city by the illness of Mr. Collins' sister, Mrs. L. H. Corbett, who was operated upon last Friday at the Mercy hospital. Mrs. Corbett formerly lived in Preston.

Little Norwood Fluharty was taken to the Church Home and Infirmary in Baltimore last Saturday where he was operated upon for absessed ears. His father, Mr. George N. Fluharty, and grandmother, Mrs. Annie C. Fluharty accompanied him.

Mr. Andrew Covey of Denton visited relatives in town last week.

Mr. S. L. Hastings from Salisbury was a visitor in town Sunday.

Mr. C. Fulton Noble made a business trip to Baltimore last week.

Mr. Ronald Turner has accepted a position in the office of A. W. Sisk & Son.

Miss Ethel Taylor from Easton was the guest of Mrs. J. Lee Covey last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Sisk attended the funeral of ex-Senator John Walter Smith last Wednesday at Snow Hill.

The Preston Community Club will meet at the home of Mrs. A. Fletcher Sisk on Friday evening of this week. One of the interesting features on the program is to be a debate between some of the ladies of the club.

The Women's Club was entertained by Mrs. Harry Hollis last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Preston Osteen and family returned to their home in Baltimore last week after spending a week with Mrs. Osteen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Sisk.

Mrs. Mary Willey and brother, Mr. Ed Bramble of East New Market and Mr. and Mrs. Griffen Merrick and fam ily of near Trappe visited Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Willey on Sunday.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Charles Turner, who has been on the sick list for several weeks, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wright motored to Baltimore last week.

Little Miss Patty Payne gave a birthday party to a group of her friends last Saturday afternoon. The guests present were: Eleanor Trice, Henrietta Blades, Alva Lee Hollis, Martha Henry, Leone Harris, Florence Hubbard, Anne Lednum, Mary Jane Webb, Dorothy Lee Patchett, Virginia Lee Fletcher, Nell Fooks, Josephine Gallagher, Mary Dowding, Roger Payne, James Patchett, Earl Nelson, Jr., Winfield Trice, James Gallagher, Arthur Willey, Jr., Billy Cuming, Billy Dowding.

Secured Road Contract

Kauffman Construction Company was awarded the contract for building a stretch of 2.23 miles of concrete road between Queen Anne and Cordova at the price of $56,144.50.

TUCKAHOE NECK

Mr. and Mrs. Anstee entertained the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. McGrew and Mr. and Mrs. Alex McWilliams Thursday of last week.

Mason Clopper and Stephen Redden were the guests of William Clark on Sunday afternoon.

Children's day services will be held at Thawley's in the evening of June 7th.

Rev. and Mrs. Marshall visited Mr. Wallace Clark and family on Sunday.

Audrey Samis is in Baltimore for treatment for her eyes.

Mrs. Thomas Clopper spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Wallace Clark.

Prof. Ballard of College Park gave a talk and showed slides of well arranged flowers, shrubbery, trees, etc. last Thursday at Thawley's hall. The school children as well as older ones enjoyed it.

HARMONY

Our school teachers, Miss Alma Dean and Miss Mildred Collison, spent the week end in Easton, the guest of Miss Dean's cousins, Misses Hilda and Dorothy Wright.

The Rev. James Duhadaway and wife, of Bridgeville, were the guests of his brother and wife, Dr. and Mrs. Duhadaway, on Sunday.

Mr. Roland Todd's two little sons have both been very sick with pneumonia, but are reported better at this writing.

Mr. Paul Kelley, of Wilmington, visited his aunt, Mrs. Nora Kelley, on Sunday.

Mr. James Lord, of Franklyn, Va., is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. R. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Smoot and daughter, Gertrude, of Bridgeville, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Duhadaway, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Thomas, of Denton, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Thomas, Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson and little daughter, Mary, of Wilmington, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mollie Stoery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Todd spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Lenigneit, of Federalsburg.

Mr. Pliney Todd has purchased a new Essex coach.

Mrs. Bell Dean spent Tuesday with her granddaughter, Mrs. George Baer, who is very ill at her home, near Grove.

Remember girls, a honey bee doesn't waste much time on an artificial flower.

SMITHVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Alford and two daughters; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Alford, of Smithville and Miss Effie Alford, of Chester, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Alford, of Federalsburg, Sunday.

Mrs. Emmet Williamson has been on the sick list the past week, but is very much improved at this writing.

Mr. Preston Stout, of New Jersey, and Miss Lydia Lord, of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Lord were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lord, Sunday.

Mr. Will Davis visited I. O. O. F. lodge friends of Denton, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Liden visited their parents in Federalsburg, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Liden were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Collins, Sunday.

He knew that she would thank him not
He cared not for her scorn;
He offered her his street car seat
To keep her off his corn.

Do it now! ADVERTISE

TIMELY TALKS

MEN'S CLOTHING SALE

GREAT VALUES IN SUITS

With 300 sample suits covering a wide range of material, style and color, we can offer the MOST REMARKABLE values in MEN'S SUITS EVER!

This sale which starts Saturday, May 2, enables men to buy suits of $27.00 value for $14.95, all sizes, and this lot includes many ALL WOOL SERGES and CASHMERES! Also we are offering the well-known JOHN KELLY and GRIFFON BRANDS, $30.00 to $40.00 values for $24.95.

This is a Sale worth every man's attention—a Big Line worth coming miles to see.

See these SPLENDID SUITS at a STRIKING SAVING at

LONG & SHORT

FEDERALSBURG

DO YOU RUN AN AUTO?

IF you do, be absolutely certain that you are not suffering from any impairment of vision. Thousands of accidents have resulted from defective eyesight.

The slightest defect in vision may cause serious trouble if not prevented by properly fitted glasses. Come in today and make sure.

DR. C. A. WHISLER

DENTON, MARYLAND

A SPECIAL 10 DAY SALE OF

COATS,

DRESSES AND HATS

- - AT - -

Poole Bros. Women's Shop

Will Start Saturday May 2d

ALL $29.50 to $37.50 COATS, Now $24.75

ALL $24.75 to $27.50 COATS, Now 17.95

ALL $17.75 to $21.75 COATS, Now 14.75

ALL COATS up to $15.00 VALUES, Now 8.75

100 DRESSES worth up to $16.50, now 7.95

Women's conservative dresses, Navy, Black, Brown and Cocoa, sizes 36 to 52, splendid styles $9.85

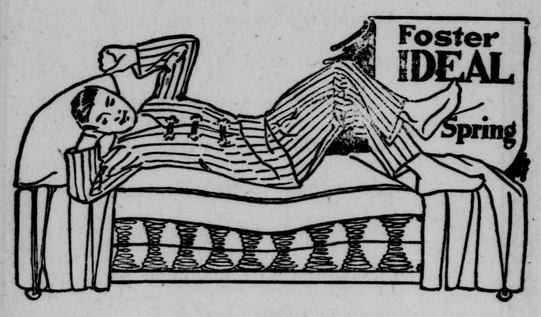
Over 500 Coats and Dresses in this Sale, all from our regular stock and not made for special sales. Every one a value that no other merchant will try to equal.

HATS, GLOVES and SCARFS ALSO REDUCED

POOLE BROS.

"Women's Shop"

FEDERALSBURG MARYLAND



One-third of your life is spent in Bed. Why not spend it comfortably?

It is the important third because without sleep during these hours we cannot do our best during our waking hours.

NATHAN'S FURNITURE STORE

Cambridge Salisbury Seaford

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2929_scm3548-0147.jpg