And now come into the Court of Appeals here, as well the said Alexander C Bullitt by John Glenn and John V. L. McMahon his attorneys, as the said William W Handy by John S Tyson and Levin Gale his attorneys, and thereupon, on motion of the said William W Handy by his attorneys aforesaid, it is ruled by the Court here, that the said Alexander C Bullitt assign the errors in the record of proceedings aforesaid, or in the giving the Decree aforesaid, so as aforesaid brought before the Court of Appeals here, for correcting the errors supposed to be therein, or judgment by the Court of Appeals here will be entered against him in default thereof. And the said Alexander C Bullitt by his attorneys aforesaid, says, that in the record of proceeding aforesaid and also in the giving of Decree aforesaid, there is manifest error in this, to wit, that by the record aforesaid, it appears that the Decree aforesaid, in the cause aforesaid given, was given for the said William W Handy against the said Alexander C Bullitt when by the law of the land that decree ought to have been given for the said Alexander C Bullitt against the said William W Handy therefore in that there is manifest error, and he prays that the Decree aforesaid for that error, and others being in the record of proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed, annulled and held entirely as void, and that he the said Alexander C Bullitt may be restored to all things which he hath lost by occasion of the said Decree and that the said William W Handy, may rejoin to the errors aforesaid, and so forth. And thereupon it is ruled by the Court of Appeals here that the said William W Handy join in the errors by the said Alexander C Bullitt above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid or judgment by the Court of Appeals here, will be rendered against him in default thereof. And the said William W Handy by his attorneys aforesaid, prays that a day may be given to him to join in the errors by the said Alexander C Bullitt above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid until the second monday in June next, and to him it is granted, the same day is also given to the said Alexander C Bullitt. At which said second monday in June being the fourteenth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty seven which said day was given to the said William W Handy to join in the errors by the said Alexander C Bullitt above assigned, come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid by their attorneys aforesaid, and the said William W Handy by his attorneys aforesaid, says, there is no error in the record of proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the Decree aforesaid, and he prays that the Court of Appeals here will proceed to the examination as well of the record of proceedings aforesaid, as of the matters aforesaid by the said Alexander C Bullitt above for error assigned, and that the said judgment may be in all things affirmed, and so forth. Thereupon further process of and upon the premises, between the parties aforesaid, is by virtue of an act of Assembly in such case made and provided, further continued before the Court of Appeals here, until the first monday in December next, the same day is given to the said parties then, then to hear the judgment of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the said premises, and so forth. And now at this day, to wit, the said first Monday in December being the sixth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty seven come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid by their attorneys aforesaid, whereupon as well the record and proceedings aforesaid, and the Decree given in form aforesaid, as the matters aforesaid, by the said Alexander C Bullitt above for error assigned, being seen, and by the Court of Appeals here fully understood, and mature deliberation thereupon had; and the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid file in Court here an agreement and their consent to the following Decree, and which are in the words and of the tenor following, to wit.
