Reverence is one of the signs of strength.

Hard work also has a silver lining.

Some men write to live, and others live in spite of what they write.

Sometimes distance lends enchantment, but not when you are out of gas.

Why do they call it "idle curiosity" when we can plainly see that it works all the time?

If you simply must worry, always do your worrying in advance because otherwise you are sure to miss a lot of good chances.

If only the man who rises to the occasion would learn when to sit down.

The emptier the head, the less it takes to fill it.

One does not need to know so many things to get along, but what he does know should be true.

Why does a man stop and listen when the fire bell rings and pay not attention when the church bell rings?

I do not care how much a man says so long as he says it in few words.

If America loses her Sabbath she loses herself.

A Christian is one who makes it easier for others to believe in God.

A cold church like cold butter never spreads well. Let us warm up the churches.

You need to be saved. You cannot save yourself. Jesus has already provided for your salvation.

Select a church and support it by your attendance.

Eastern Shore Happenings

Bridgeville, Del., June 21—Mr. and Mrs. John Leninger, who have been principal and vice principal of the Bridgeville public school for the past five years, have resigned and returned to their home in Chambersburg, Pa. Their successors have not been elected.

Delmar, Del., June 19—When Benjamin Baker, residing with his father, who came here a few weeks ago from Virginia, was backing an auto truck from his garage he did not see his father, who was standing in the rear of the car, and struck him. A member of the family called to him of the danger, but the noise of the machine was so great Baker did not hear in time to avoid striking the aged man a second time.

Mr. Baker died from his injuries a few hours later.

As the result of trying to bribe officer N. W. Gearhart, of the Automobile Commissioner's office, Linwood Mathews, a 27-year-old negro, of Greensboro, is in Centreville jail. He was fined $50 by Justice Robert Coursey and went to jail in default.

Matthews, it is alleged, passed the oral examination before the Automobile officers in Centreville, Thursday, but failed on the demonstration when he passed several cars on the left. He is said to have told Officer Gearhart that he lived a considerable distance from Centreville and that it was very inconvenient for him to take another examination. He then offered $2 in exchange for an operator's license, whereupon Gearhart ordered his arrest.

Chestertown, Md., June 19—The offer for sale this week of a number of the finest farms in Kent and Queen Anne's counties, only to have them withdrawn for the want of a sufficient bid, has furnished a striking illustration of the difficulties surrounding the farming occupation today, and is a striking commentary upon the depreciation of land values as compared with the inflated war prices.

Two of these farms, in the vicinity of Locust Grove, regarded for years as among the finest land in that section, were withdrawn from sale on a total bid of $26,500.

Harrington, Del., June 15—At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce tentative plans were discussed for the holding of a Fourth of July celebration. Every fraternal organization in town will be requested to decorate a float for the parade. Prizes will be offered for the best decorated float, best decorated automobile, and the best decorated bicycle. The parade will start promptly at 9:30 o'clock, ending at the high school grounds by 10:30. Harrington Sussex County Leaguers will entertain Milford in the morning. Promptly at 1 o'clock horse racing will be held at the Kent and Sussex Fair Grounds.

Forst fires that raged for three days in woods and fields near Royal Oak, Talbot county, resulted in damage estimated at almost $5,000, F. W. Marckworth, assistant State Forester, said yesterday.

The fires started Sunday, spreading over property owned by 6 persons of Royal Oak, he said, and burning a total of 161 acres. Sixty-five acres in the burned area was forested with mature timber, 71 acres in immature timber and 25 acres were grass fields.

F. W. Besley, State Forester, reported the entry of what is perhaps the largest apple tree in Maryland in the state wide tree contest being conducted by the Maryland Forestry Association. The tree is owned by W. D. Macy, of Glenwood, Howard county.

Measurements of the tree are as follows: Circumference of trunk a foot from the ground, 11 feet; 4½ feet from the ground, 10 feet 9½ inches; height, 57 feet 2 inches; spread of branches, 59 feet. The tree was entered by C. P. Campbell, of Woodbine.

Dover, Del., June 22—Delaware is not in danger of an army worm invasion, State Entomologist Dickey declared today, in commenting upon reports from the area about Smyrna and Blackbird, Del., and Massey, Md., that the extremely destructive pest was ravaging the fields in that locality.

He pointed out first that the army worm is accustomed to sweep clean the fields it attacks, but the worm reported from Blackbird is causing no such damage. Further, he said, the tent caterpillar, which greatly resembles the army worm, is now on the move from the fruit trees to the ground and the farmers concerned probably have mistaken this for the more destructive army worm.

The Federal Government, Mr. Dickey said, is vigilant in seeking out the army worm and it is not likely that its inspectors should have overlooked it, especially as the first reports of the army worm were received about ten days ago.

Centreville, Md., June 22—Samuel George Walls, 87, the First district's "grand old man" and one of Queen Anne's county's best known citizens, died Thursday night from general debility. He had been a resident of the Sudlersville neighborhood all his life and was one of the pioneers of the original temperance movement in Queen Anne's.

Mr. Walls was born near Sudlersville, a son of the late Samuel Walls. His father died when he was 17, and for 2 years thereafter young Walls remained with his mother and worked on the farm. In 1884 he purchased the farm near Dixon's Tavern, where he had spent so many years as a boy, and later he accumulated other property in the First district.

In 1862 he married Miss Temperance A. Loller, who preceded him in death recently. Six sons and one daughter survive.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the home, Dr. J. A. Leach, of Union Church, Wilmington, officiating, assisted by the Rev. R. H. Hodgson, of Sudlersville M. E. church. Interment was in Sudlersville cemetery. The pallbearers were 5 sons of his sons, and Robert Clendening.

Plans are rapidly being formulated under the direction of State Highway Commissioner John N. Mackell for a rousing celebration over the new highway between Millington and Sudlersville, the completion of which will signalize the opening of a new main arterial boulevard, shifting traffic through Queen Anne's county between the North and South.

Contractors now expect construction work to be completed between July 5 and 10, and this will make it possible to open the new highway the latter part of July. Commissioner Mackall has announced that the completion of such an important project should be observed by ceremonies similar to those that attended the opening of the Severn River bridge, last year, when the Queen Anne's county float won first place in the parade.

* * *

All motorists driving from a byroad onto a state highway from now on will be required to stop to see that the way is clear along the main road before they cross or turn into a main artery of travel in Delaware.

Warnings requiring motorists to stop have been placed throughout the state by the state highway police and hundreds of persons have been warned to stop before turning into a main road from a cross road.

Beginning with last Saturday the police were instructed to arrest those who failed to observe the regulations. In the future arrests will be made by the police where motorists violate this rule, which is to guard against possible accidents at intersections.

The warning signs were posted 3 weeks ago and the police believe now that sufficient time has been given all users of the roads to become acquainted with this new safeguard.

A fine of $25 and costs goes with each violation of the new traffic rule the state highway police department announces.

Chestertown, Md., June 23—The Easton Title and Mortgage Guaranty Corporation, with directors in each of the nine counties on the Western Shore, has been organized with the following officers and directors: President, William T. Williams; vice president, William Reddie, Easton; second vice president, A. Fletcher Sisk, Preston; secretary and treasurer, Dr. Thomas Claggett, Easton.

These, with the following, comprise the board of directors: Madison B. Bordlet, Centreville; William P. Ward, Salisbury; D. Frank Fooks, Snow Hill; Frank Dashielis, Princess Anne; Albert B. Mackey, Elkton; Thomas D. Bowers, Chestertown. The company is capitalized at $100,000.

Salisbury, Md., June 23—After he jumped from the parapet of the Main street bridge over the Wicomico river last night, Wilmer Hastings, 19 years old, an apprentice mechanic, was rescued by Capt. Roy Horseman and Leonard Lloyd. They were attracted to the scene by the shouts of a number of women crossing the bridge who saw Hastings struggling in the water.

Horseman and Lloyd dived into the water and carried Hastings' unconscious body to the bank. Dr. Dalton B. Potter and Dr. J. McFadden Dick resuscitated him.

Earlier in the evening, it was said, Hastings told his friends that the girl he loved had spurned him and that he intended to "end it all."

Passersby said the youth climbed to the parapet of the bridge and leaped into the water. His discarded coat and shoes were found at one end of the bridge.

Chestertown, Md., June 23—Mrs. Harold M. Baker, an authority on turkeys, and one of the most successful breeders in this county, suffered a severe loss last week when roving dogs raided her fine flock of young birds and killed 35 of the best. Mrs. Baker had given special attention to the flock, because she had orders from various sections of the county for a large number of young turkeys for breeding. A law passed some years ago requires that the County Commissioners reimburse the owners of stock destroyed by dogs, but in this case it is believd the allowance will not exceed $1 each, and will not cover the extent of the damage.

Owners of livestock and poultry throughout the county are clamoring for a law that will permit legal action to be taken against the owners of dogs allowed to roam at large.

Her Birthday

She is no fatter — but just as fair—at forty, is Miss Liberty who celebrates that birthday down on Bedloe's island in N. Y. harbor this week. She was placed there in 1885, ready to help the nation observe Independence Day, and it was a gala event. Her birthday gift this year was a bath, head to toe, the first in several years.

Health and Home

THE WOMAN WHO WORKS

In this new order of things, with women, both married and single, broadening their business activities, a very serious problem arises. It is the problem of what, when, and where to eat.

Breakfast is always a hurry-up meal for the men but much more so for the woman who goes to business. Luncheons, of course, are taken in the lunchrooms and restaurants in the business districts and are no problem. But how about dinners? Shall they, too, be restaurant meals or can they be so planned that business women may enjoy the home cooking of which they are so fond? Take away the element of haste and anxiety and in its place put carefully thought-out menus, well planned and easily prepared, and home dinners will again regain their high favor with the working housewife.

One of the big worries is frequently with the milk. Did it come? Is it fresh? Is it frozen? Has the milkman been paid? Are the bottles washed and set out? However, there is no cause for worry about milk. Why not keep a dozen cans of evaporated milk in your pantry? There are large cans, equal to a quart of milk and smaller cans that will meet the lesser needs.

For evaporated milk is just pure, fresh milk with more than half the water missing. This water can be replaced in a jiffy, if you so desire or you can use it as cream if rich and creamy foods are desired.

Here are a few recipes that may be used by "The Woman Who Works" for forming her plans for self help and good home cooking.

Scalloped Ham and Potatoes.

1 pound smoked ham	1½ cups water
6 medium potatoes	1 green pepper (may be omitted)
1½ cups evaporated milk diluted with	Flour

Cover the bottom of an oiled baking dish with sliced, raw potatoes. Sprinkle with flour and pieces of ham ½ inch square. Repeat until dish is full. Fill dish ¾ full of diluted milk. Bake until potatoes are tender.

Eggs en Casserole.

6 hard-boiled eggs	¾ cup evaporated milk
3 tomatoes	¾ cup water
2 tbsp. butter	½ cup grated cheese
3 tbsp. flour	Buttered crumbs
2 tsp. salt

Cut hard-boiled eggs in half and arrange around the edge of a greased casserole. Slice tomatoes in center of dish. Make a white sauce of the milk, water, fat and flour. Add cheese and stir over a low fire until cheese is well mixed and smooth. Pour over tomatoes and eggs. Cover with crumbs and bake twenty minutes in a moderate oven.

In the Blue Ridge mountains of Virginia,
Stood a cow on the railroad track;
She was a good old cow with eyes so fine,
But you can't expect a cow to read a railroad sign.
So she stood on the middle of the track,
And along came a train and hit her square on the back,
You'll find her horns in the Blue Ridge mountains of Virginia,
And her tail on her lonesome spine.
S-P-I-N-E spells backbone.

Year Round Comfort!

No feature in your new home will contribute more to year-around comfort than the heating, plumbing and sanitary installations when backed by our guarantee. It is not too much to say that the factors of heating, plumbing and sanitation largely control the success of home-building.

Therefore, with such facts known to you, we feel certain this firm will be called upon to submit bids — which when judged fairly—price, quality and service being equal—will add your name to our list of satisfied customers. A complete line of newest improved and sanitary fixtures to choose from and at lowest possible prices.
