And now come into the Court of Appeals here, as well the said William Morriss by Robert J Brent and Henry May his attorneys, as the said Etheldra Harris by Thomas S Alexander her attorney; and thereupon on motion of the said Etheldra Harris by her attorney aforesaid it is ruled by the Court here, that the said William Morriss assign the errors in the record of proceedings aforesaid, or in the giving the judgment aforesaid, so as aforesaid brought before the Court of Appeals here for Correcting the errors supposed to be therein, or judgment by the Court of Appeals here, will be entered against him in default thereof: and the said William Morriss by his attorneys aforesaid, says, that in the record of proceedings aforesaid, and also in the giving of Decree aforesaid there is manifest error in this, that by the record aforesaid, it appears that the Decree aforesaid, in the Cause aforesaid given, was given for the said Etheldra Harris against the said William Morris when by the law of the land that Decree ought to have been given for the said William

Morris against the said Etheldra Harris therefore in that there is manifest error, and he prays that the Decree aforesaid for that error and others being in the record of proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed, annulled, and held entirely as void, and that he the said William Morris may be restored to all things which he hath lost by occasion of the said Decree and that the said Etheldra Harris may rejoin to the errors aforesaid, and so forth.

And thereupon, it is ruled by the Court of Appeals here, that the said Etheldra Harris join in the errors by the said William Morriss above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid, or judgment by the Court of Appeals here will be rendered against her in default thereof: And the said Etheldra Harris by her attorney aforesaid prays that a day may be given to her to join in the errors by the said William Morriss above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid until the First Monday in December next; and to her it is granted; the same day is also given to the said William Morriss.

At which said First Monday in December being the Fourth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty eight which said day was given to the said Etheldra Harris to join in the errors by the said William Morris above assigned, Come again into the Court of Appeals here the parties aforesaid by their attorneys aforesaid; and the said Etheldra Harris by her attorney aforesaid, says, there is no error in the record of proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the Decree aforesaid, and she prays that the Court of Appeals here will proceed to the examination as well of the record of proceedings aforesaid as of the matters aforesaid, by the said William Morriss above for error assigned, and that the said Decree may be in all things affirmed and so forth.

Thereupon further process of and upon the premises, between the parties aforesaid, is by virtue of an act of Assembly in such case made and provided, further Continued before the Court of Appeals here, until the second Monday in June next; the same day is given to the said parties there then to hear the judgment of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the premises and so forth.

At which second Monday in June being the Eleventh day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty nine come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid: But because the Court of Appeals here are not yet advised what judgment to give of and upon the premises, a day therefore is further given to the parties aforesaid, with the Consent of the said parties by their attorneys aforesaid to come before the Court of Appeals here, on the First Monday in December next, to hear the judgment of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the premises, for that the Court now here, as yet are not &c.

And now at this day, towit, the said First Monday in December being the Third day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty nine come again into the Court of Appeals here the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid. Thereupon as well the record and proceedings aforesaid, and the Decree given in form aforesaid, as the matters aforesaid, by the
