THE JOURNAL.

DENTON, SATURDAY MORNING, Feb. 6, 1875.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline Co. will sit on Tuesday, 9th of Feb.

SCRAPS.

—A protracted meeting of interest is is now in progress at Marydel.

—At Crisfield 3,000 gallons of oysters are packed and shipped daily in this dull season.

—After several days of mild weather it is again very cold, Thursday night was a "stinger."

—Scarlet fever prevails at Felton, in consequence of which the Seminary at that place has been closed.

—The February term of the Circuit Court for Talbot county will commence on Tuesday next, the 9th inst.

—William Shepherd, of Cambridge, died suddenly on Saturday morning last, in the 51st year of his age.

—A thirteen-year old colored boy in Queen Anne's county playfully shot and killed his little brother, a few days ago

—The basket factory, started at Milford about the 15th ult., employs forty hands, which turn out about eight thousand baskets per day.

—Our subscribers who have changed their post office will please inform us.—Postmasters will inform us of any papers at their office not taken out.

—A Dramatic entertainment is to be given at the Hillsborough Academy on Monday and Tuesday nights next. The proceeds are to be applied to the purchasing of street lamps.

—St. Valentine's day fall on Sunday this year. Young men, if you intend to send love missives to your "sweethearts," take time by the forelock and send them on Saturday.

—The Civil Rights bill has ere this doubtless passed the House of Representatives, regardless of the expressed wish of the country to the contrary in the November elections.

—The Easton dramatic association will give another entertainment on Monday the 8th inst. This will be a choice entertainment. W. E. Shannahan Esq., will accept our thanks for a complimentary ticket.

—It may not be known that one of our best and most worthy citizens, Samuel Emerson, has bought property and now resides at Ingleside, Queen Anne's county, Md. We feel sure that he will soon have there as he had here many true and warm friends.

REV. WM. H. CHAPLAIN, Pastor of M. E. Church, Georgetown, D. C., writes: "Having had an opportunity to to test the excellent qualities of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, I hesitate not to say, it is the best remedy I have ever used in my family."

THE Newtown Record & Gazette in its last issue thus Merrill-y notices the JOURNAL.

"The Denton Journal is one of the neatest and best of our Eastern Shore exchanges. It is an e-Legg-ant local paper."

WE are in receipt of The World Almanac for 1875. Besides the astronomical calculations, it contains a record of the events of the past year, election returns of all the States, names of Senators and Representatives in Congress, capitals of States, and much other valuable information very convenient for reference. Price 25 cents. Address "The World," New York.

ANOTHER GRANGE.—A Grange of Patrons of Husbandry was organized January 27th, by Deputy John W. Knotts, at Stevensville, Kent Island, Queen Anne's county, Md., the name to be Kent Island Grange. Officers elected, Master, Ed. C. Legg; Overseer, S. Ringgold; Lecturer, Dr. J. H. W. G. Weeden; Stewart, J. R. Cook; Ass't Stewart, J. R. Downes; Chaplain, W. K. White; Treasurer, Y. T. White; Secretary, J. C. Tolson; Gate Keeper, Ed. Ringgold; Ceres, Mrs. J. H. Price; Pomona, Mrs. Dr. Denny; Flora; Miss Mollie White; Lady Ass't Stewart, Mrs. Y. T. White.

THE extracts below we copy from a letter in Tuesdays Wilmington Gazette. It only shows how strangers here are received and their opinion of our society. The letter is dated Denton February 1st 1875.

"This quiet place, nestled on the Choptank, is, as it were, remote from other towns; but within itself there is none other where more genuine hospitality and sociability prevail. Having had the pleasure of taking my first trip to the above named place, I am more than delighted with my first acquaintance and will afford myself the earliest opportunity of repeating my visit.

I so often have heard of the dances of Caroline, and I fully realized them during my brief sojourn there. One in particular my limited time will only allow me to mention, given at Mr. Edward Carter's a few miles from town.

Not long after darkness prevailed over the land, sounds of vehicles were heard, and for two hours carriage after carriage brought the invited guests to the place of entertainment. Denton and Greensboro' were well represented and sent forth on that occasion some of the prettiest ladies that "My Maryland" can produce."

Miss Ross, of Cambridge, Miss Hughlett, of Talbot, and Miss Carter, of Delaware, are mentioned in a very complimentary manner, as are also many of our agreeable and accomplished ladies. Several gentlemen present received a very flattering notice. The sumptuous and elegant supper provided by the hospitable host and hostess, Capt. Edward Carter and his lady, also came in for a favorable notice. We learn that entertainments at Capt. Carter's are always a success, and but few invited guests fail to be present, regardless of wind or weather. We exceedingly regret that we could not be present at their last grand entertainment.

MARYLAD HOMESTEAD AND SETTLERS AGENCY.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that Wm. S. Ridgely, Esq., of this town, has entered into the Real Estate business in connection with his law practice. It affords us great pleasure to say in this connection that Mr. R. possesses as a man and business agent every quality that renders certain manly, upright and fair-dealing to all interested.

The Union of Thursday says:

We have in this county many and desirable farms and homes. In many instances owners have more land than is needed, and are desirous of selling at fair rates, their surplus estates, believing truly that farms of moderate size can be more advantageously and profitably cultivated than larger estates, the very size of which renders thorough farming impracticable.

Mr. Ridgeley has opened an extensive correspondence with many prominent parties at the North and West and has ascertained that while we are in the market with valuable lands for sale, there are numbers, very large numbers, of Northern and Western men who are desirous of supplying themselves with comfortable homes in milder latitudes and at the same time not be distant from the sea coast and convenient to the great markets of the east. Now, let us ask, why cannot the interests of all parties be subserved? and the mutual prosperity be the means of the common good. Sections where population is too sparse will be filled up. Land, of fine natural quality, yet by means of their extent and vast acreage, either uncultivated or badly farmed, will be covered with prosperous and industrious citizens. And the fresh northern muscle and the surplus northern capital will make blooming gardens of what might, in many instances be termed the prairie fields of our peninsula. This transition is rapidly taking place, and we welcome the new agency, which our readers will find reported in the advertising columns of the present issue under the title of Maryland Homestead and Setlers Agency, as a promising and responsible medium for effecting that exchange of land for capital already tributary to a large extent to the rapid development of the county. Mr. Ridgeley represents in this matter facilities and resourses which we believe will prove of value to our county.

Charles P. Stevens's Furniture Manufactory.

The New York Daily Graphic, of the 27th ult., contains an illustration of one of the five buildings of Chas. P. Stevens, Baltimore, used for the manufacture of furniture. An interesting and well merited notice of the very extensive business and enterprise of this distinguished Baltimore merchant is also given, from which we copy a few extracts:

"The expansion of this concern from a very modest beginning, in the year 1844, to its present magnitude affords a marked instance of the success which almost invariably attends persistent and intelligent effort.

At the period above named Mr. S. S. Stevens, father of the present proprietor, originally commenced operations by purchasing a portion of the present site of the structure. Buildings were constructed theron, and within a short space of time the business went into successful operation. In 1856 the entire works were destroyed by fire. In 1869 the son, Charles P. Stevens, purchased his father's interest, and since then has been sole proprietor of this very extensive and lucrative business. He is in the prime of life, with all the energy and "push" that it is possible for a business man to possess, and should he continue as he has begun his establishment will undoubtedly become the largest of its kind in the world.

"Mr. Stevens sustains an enviable reputation for the quality of the work which is sent out from his establishment. Only the best of thoroughly seasoned stock is used; the most expert workmen procurable are employed, and his manufacturing facilities are of the finest description. In point of beauty of design, elegance of finish, and moderation in price his goods are not surpassed by those of any establishment here or elsewhere. Starting about thirty years ago with a light capital, the business has expanded with great rapidity. His present stock is very large in all classes of furniture, and new and attaactive designs are constantly being brought out to which the attention of dealers would be advantageously directed. The trade of this house is very large in Baltimore and throughout the South, particularly on the seaboard, and everywhere his goods are held in the highest estimation."

It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that we are advertising for this house. Salesroom No. 3 South Calvert Street, Baltimore.

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, fallen hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning grey or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.
