THE JOURNAL.

DENTON, SATURDAY MORNING, March 20, 1875.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline Co. will sit on Tuesday, 23rd of March.

SCRAPS.

—Read our new advertisements.

—The sun crosses the line to-day.

—The days and nights are of equal length.

—Small pox is slightly on the increase in the city of Wilmington, Del.

—A Fresh Lot of Landreth's Garden Seed, just received and for sale by H. Blackiston & Son.

—An effort is being made to raise funds sufficient to build a new M. E. Church at Preston, in this county.

—The Star says large numbers of persons from the West and North are daily arriving in Easton, looking for lands.

—The first shad of the season made its appearance in our market on Tuesday last and sold for fifty cents.

—The best way that a farmer can invest his money at compound interest is to spend it in manuring, enriching and draining his lands.

—B. F. Field & Co., authorize us to say that they are selling the celebrated Maryland boots marked $6.00 at $4.75, and warrant them for 12 months.

—J. J. Turner & Co's advertisement of their superior Phosphates are in this issue. What Mr. Turner says about his Phosphates may be relied upon as being strictly true.

—Farmers intending to buy manure for their corn crop would do well to give Poudrette a trial. It is a cheap manure and certainly acts finely. See advertisement in to-day's issue.

—Capt. Valliant, of the Fishery Force, has received orders not to allow the Talbot oystermen to work in the waters of Miles River that lie within the bounds of Queen Anne's—the law being construed to forbid it.

—On Wednesday night a horse and carriage was stolen from the sheds of the National Hotel in Middleton. The horse belonged to Mr. Clothier, of Bohemia Mills, Md, and the carriage was owned by Mr. G. R. Stiles, of the same place.

J. W. KNOTTS, Deputy Maryland State Grange organized a Grange at Queenstown, Queen Anne's county, on Saturday 13th inst. Officers: Master, Chas J. B. Mitchell; Overseer, William Carmichael; Lecturer, John R. H. Embert; Stewart, J. L. Goldsborough, Ass't Stewart, Louis Herganrather; Treasurer, Wm. J. Price; Chaplain, William W. Nelson; Secretary, Wm. V. Bryan; Gate Keeper, Samuel C. Coursey; Ceres Mrs. Etta T. Nelson; Flora, Miss Annie E. Price; Pomona, Mrs. A. M. Sherwood; Lady Ass't Stewart, Miss Allie Bryan.

PERSONAL.—Rev. Mr. Browne, pastor of the M. E. Church of this town, left on Monday last for Conference. Mr. Browne has been with us for three years, and during that time has endeared himself to the people, both in and out of the church, by his efficient christians labors and genial social qualities, and his departure is regretted by a large circle of warm personal friends and also by the general community.—Eastern Shoreman.

BOLD ROBBERY.—On Friday night last the meat house of Mr. Kraft, on Kent Island, was robbed of one hogshead and two barrels of meat, and a quantity of lard. About 9 o'clock on the night named two strangers called at the house for the avowed purpose of purchasing bacon, but were informed by Mrs. Kraft that she had none to sell but the weather being so unpleasant they were invited in, and entertained for an hour or more, and it is supposed that they had confederates who robbed the meat house whilst the attention of the family was engaged. No clue has been obtained to the robbers.

THE St. Michales (Md) Comet writing about the oyster trade of the Chesapeake, says: While work is plentiful, oysters are not and prices are low, the principal demand being for oysters for steaming purposes. Inferior oyster are sold at low prices for the steaming trade. On the Choptank, the scrapers are busy as they would have been the whole winter but for the ice blockade, while the tongmen are doing nothing.

Some of the Miles River oystermen with whom we have conversed sperk rather gloomily of the Spring prospects, under the new oyster law. The season terminates the first of May cutting off the two months that have heretofore been the most profitable. This will be felt as a peculiar hardship this Spring, as there was nothing at all done the winter.

THE LITTLE ORPHANS DREAM.—We have received from Messers. George Stinson & Co., Art Publishers, of Portland Maine, a copy of a fine work of art in the shape of a large steel engraving, (size 23 by 30 inches). The engraving is by Mr. A. H. Ritchie, well known as the best engraver on steel in America, and is after one of Mr. B. F. Reinhart's famous paintings. The engravings is new—just finished, and now for the first time, before the public

ARRESTED FOR EMBEZZELMENT.—Jas. T. Raughley, formely a citizen of this county, but more recently a citizen of philadelphia, was arrested on Monday evening last by an officer of the law from that city upon a requisition of Gov. Hartranft of Pennsylvania upon Gov. Groome of Maryland, charged with obtaining money fraudently from parties in Philadelphia. There is other charges against him, we learn, but these were not charged in his arrest. The officer with the prisoner in charge left this place for Philadelphia on Tuesday morning.—Union.

[COMMUNICATED.]

MR. EDITOR:

For months I have been thinking of penning you a few thoughts on the "poultry interest." I can't tell why there should be such a lack of interest shown by the habitants of this Peninsula on the subject of poultry raising. Why should we be asleep to such a pleasing and profitable subject as raising the improved breeds of fowls, when I may say the whole county is astir and fabulous prices are yet being paid for well marked specimens of the various varieties. New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Rhode Island, yes, all of the Northern, Eastern and Western States have well organized State and County poultry organizations and the greatest interest is evinced by the people and strong competition everywhere to be seen. Even "Our Maryland" has a fine organized State poultry association which holds its annual fairs in the city of Baltimore, where some of the finest bred fowls in this country are to be seen, yet I suppose nineteen-twentieths of the people on this shore never so much as heard of it or every saw a poultry fair in their lives, or could tell you the difference between a Black Spanish Buff Cochin, Light Brahma, or any other breed of fowls. Have we none amongst us who are natural fanciers that only need the stimulus of an organized society to put them to work to equal the success of those older in the fancy. Mr. Editor, the Eastern Shore needs a poultry association. Caroline county needs a poultry association to act as auxiliaries to the State society, and Denton is just the place for these organizations to "head" at. Where is Gadd and Garey, two gentlemen I believe to be natural fanciers—men who love fine fowls for the beauty of them, let us hear from them and others on this subject. Again, Mr. Editor, of all the papers on this shore not one has a poultry department. All of the most prominent of the journals in the States mentioned above have poultry departments edited by practical and scientific poultry breeders or fanciers, and I am very sure any paper in my knowledge would be vastly improved by such an addition to its reading matter. It is worthy of much more room than it ever gets. The corners devoted to jokes would generally be an improvement if devoted to the poultry interest. Wake up my friends and let us hear from you.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."

Sold by all Druggists, and Dealers in Medicines.
Price One Dollar.

Buckingham's Dye.

FOR THE WHISKERS.

As our Renewer in many cases requires too long a time, and too much care, to restore gray or faded Whiskers, we have prepared this dye, in one preparation; which will quickly and effectually accomplish this result. It is easily applied, and produces a color which will neither rub nor wash off. Sold by all Druggists. Price Fifty Cents.
