

A photograph of a piece of aged, yellowish-brown paper. On the paper, the numbers '1' and '2' are handwritten in a dark brown ink. The numbers are arranged in two parallel, slightly curved diagonal lines that run from the upper left towards the lower right. The first line consists of the sequence 1, 2, 2, 1, 2, 1, 1, 2. The second line, positioned to the right of the first, consists of the sequence 1, 1, 1, 1, 2, 1, 2, 2, 2, 2, 2. The handwriting is somewhat irregular and cursive, typical of a personal sketch or a child's drawing.
