—The Newtown Advertiser and Gazette, of Saturday, says: Who wouldn't be a voter now, so that he might clasp the honest hand of the candidate for office, and, likned arm in arm, retire to the quiet solitude of the nearest alley and view the starry vault of heaven through the bottom of a half-pint bottle.

—Taylor Robinson who stole the horse and buggy from Denton some time since and was caught and lodged in the Cambridge jail, made his escape on Friday of last week, but was captured in this county on Saturday near Fowling Creek, by Mr. J. The firm is one of the best established in the city, stock large and complete, they are prompt and honorable in all of their dealings. Our readers many of them know them and continue year after year to deal with them. Do not forget the number 132 Light street wharf.

FALL GOODS.—Thompson & Kersey are receiving fall styles of Calicoes, Cassimers, &c., and will open the Fall trade with a magnificent line of the above goods in a short time, The remnant of their summer stock they are selling off at very low figures, and if you will call at their establishment this week you will secure the greatest bargains that have been offered in this market for a long time.—Ledger.

REV. CHARLES COOK, D. D., died at his residence in Philadelphia on Tuesday of last week in the 76th year of his age- The deceased entered the ministry of the M. E. Church in 1820. He was extensively known and highly respected for his learning and piety. In many sections of this peninsula he was well known, much beloved, and very popular.

CANNING.—Many women and children find remunerative employment at White & Dunning's canning house near Denton Bridge. We hear they have nearly a hundred employed and are canning largely. This is an enterprising and reliable firm, and do well whatever they undertake to do. They canned last season successfully. This season they have a new factory, and every facility desireable to a successful working of their business. This is the spirit that makes business lively, and gives employment to the laboring class. Success to them we say.

Crabbing Expedition.

On Wednesday, the 25th of August, a company of a dozen had made preparations to go on a crabbing expedition. The whole day was to be devoted to the delightful exercise, but, through inconvenience or other causes, only three of them went in the morning, the others, arriving in the afternoon. The three that went in the morning feasted on water melons previous to starting, also took one fine fellow with them for future satisfaction. Neglectful and depending upon others, they forgot to secure a crab-net until they found themselves in the beloved town of Preston. After some bold attempts to obtain one here, without success we wheeled our way toward Medford's Wharf, the great fruit depot. Bent on getting a net, we stopped at Mr. ——, who willingly lent a good one, also presented us with some delicious pears, promising to have more ready on the return of the net. As we were going away, he recalled us to see a rattlesnake, which began to rattle as soon as the lid of the cage was removed. He said that he caught him in Florida and that he had tasted no food for six months. To show the venom of the snake, a rat had been put within the cage, and as soon as it jumped upon the side, the snake sprang to it and with one crush of his horrid fangs extinguished its life in about four seconds. We reached the wharf where the steamer Highland Light was being loaded with fruit. We amused ourselves by alternately catching crabs and assisting the men about their fruit. The Highland Light left at 12 M. The remainder of our company arrived at 2 P. M., and then began a season of hilarity, until weary with crabbing, it was proposed to have a boat ride. Observing some boats on the shore, two of the company were hurriedly dispatched to entreat the proprietor in his kindness to lend us one, or hire us one. All requests were unavailable. He seemed indifferent to our most earnest entreaties. They were fine boats too. Without the least difficulty (except going after it) we obtained one from Mr. Carroll and had our boat ride at all hazzards, Mr. Carroll must be a very obliging man.

It was nearly dark when we set out from the wharf for home. Stopping to return the crab-net, we procured the aforesaid pears, which were more delicious than the former. We all were home at 10 o'clock safe and sound. Let us have more crabbing expeditions.

ONE OF THE COMPANY.

OUR primaries are called for the 9th of Oct. We think likely that this county will be the last in the State to nominate its county Ticket. This will make no difference provided the ticket is a a good one composed of honest high toned men and capable to perform the respective duties for which they are named, men who will never forget to well and truly represent the people in their different spheres, or positions, recognizing the fact that they are the peoples representative and not of any clique or faction. Give us a ticket of this character honestly and no pretence about it, and it can be elected at any time after it is made. We said previous to the primaries that were recently held for the purpose of securing delegates to represent us in the State nomination convention:

"Everything will go right and be right if true and unselfish men are delegated to represent the counties in the State convention, whose actions and movements will be all controlled by the honor and interest of our good old State, but if selfish politicans are allowed to control everything, but little regard will be paid to the wants or wishes of the people."

This sugestion is as applicable now to the county convention to be held as it was then to the State convention that was soon to meet. The people must take the matter of primaries and nominating conventions into their own hands and you must delegate such men to represent you as will honestly and faithfully do it, and who will not be the slaves or instruments of any faction.—Two years ago we had in this county a strong and acceptable ticket. We hope the convention will be equally discreet and prudent in their nominations now.

THE young man who by mistake swallowed a whole box of Dr. Bull's Vegetable Pills is out again. He says he feels rather "pale" but otherwise is all right. He will, however, follow the directions next time.

MARRIED.

LEWIS—SORDEN.—On Wednesday last, at Sheppard's M. E. Church, by Edward Davis, assisted by Rev. Mr. Holmes, Dr. Beniah L. Lewis and Miss Georgie Sorden, both of this county.

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. The hair is thickened, fallen hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied or decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning grey or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.
