AT HIS POST AGAIN.—The Reg. of Wills informs us that he has the pleasure of announcing the attendance of Judge Jarrell at the session of the Orphan's Court held on Tuesday last. Family afflictions and his own bad health have kept the Judge out of his seat for several weeks, the public will be glad to know that he has again been permitted to occupy his place, so ably filled, as one of the Judges of the Orphan's Court.

GOT OUT OF HER WAY.—While taking a stroll the other day we met a colored man driving a cow; she had on a halter with which the man had undertaken to drive her to a neighbor's but she had got away from him and as we met him, hard at work trying to catch her he called to us for assistance. We cheerfully walked out into the centre of the road and holloaed "ho!" but instead of holding the infuriated animal shook her head and snorted once or twice and dashed right after us; without bothering with our umbrella, or even taking time to look back, we went for the fence with every wonderful pedestrian swiftness. The poor old man, disappointed at not catching his cow, said in an undertone as he pased us, "Dat's a purty way fur to hd cows."

Obituary.

On the 10th inst, at his late residence in this county, Mr. Thos A. Sorden. He was born Sept. 2nd, 1847: thus passing from the duties, responsibilities and privileges of this life in early manhood. Not, however, without due regard to the great work of life—a preparation for eternity. While yet in his boyhood, only about fourteen years of age, he consecrated himself to God, and realized in his personal experience the forgiving mercy and renewing power of Divine grace. And thus fully one half of his brief life was devoted to the service of the Redeemer. Answering the noblest and truest aim of human existence the end could not but be hopeful and triumphant. Calmly, patiently, joyously he entered the "valley and shadow of death fearing no evil," sustained and comforted by the "rod and staff" of the good Shepherd, assuring his weeping loved ones —"my work is done"—"I have no fear"—"I can trust in Jesus." What a precious legacy is the memory of such a life and death, to bereaved loved ones! more precious than thousands of treasure. He "rests from his labor and his works do follow him."

"There we shall meet, parent and child, and dearer
That earthly love which makes half heaven of home
There shall we find our treasures all awaiting,
Where change and death and parting never come."

Nov. 13th' 1876. A.

A Time-Honored Specific.—The long and successful career of Dr. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL, as contrasted with the speedy collapse of nostrums devoid of efficacy which have from time to time been puffed into a brief notoriety during the twenty odd years that this celebrated medicine has been sold, affords a proof that the American public continues to repose its confidence in deserving articles only. The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL has long been recognized as the leading specific for Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Asthma Diptheria, and all other diseases of the breathing organs. It is, moreover, a certain, speedy, and safe botanic remedy for Dyspepsia, Liver Disorders, Scrofulous Affection, Urinary Troubles, Gravel, Dropsy, Debility, Constipation, and Female Complaints. Constantly accumulating evidence of an unimpeachable character establishes the fact that it is not only entirely eradicates the diseases to which it is adapted, but also that its action is remarkably prompt and thorough. The crucial test of experience has demonstrated its reliability in every particular. Sold by all druggists. Principal Depot No. 916 Filbert St. Philadelphia.

Ayer's
Cherry Pectoral

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.
The reputation it has attained, in consequence of the marvellous cures it has produced during the last half century, is a sufficient assurance to the public that it will continue to realize the happiest results that can be desired. In almost every section of country there are persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs, by its use. All who have tried it, acknowledge its superiority; and where its virtues are known, no one hesitates as to what medicine to employ to relieve the distress and suffering peculiar to pulmonary affections. CHERRY PECTORAL always affords instant relief, and performs rapid cures of the milder varieties of bronchial disorder, as well as the more formidable diseases of the lungs.
As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of Childhood, it is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued and restored to health.
This medicine gains friends at every trial, as the cures it is constantly producing are too remarkable to be forgotten. No family should be without it, and those who have once used it never will.
Eminent Physicians throughout the country prescribe it, and Clergymen often recommend it from their knowledge of its effects.
