And now here come into the Court of Appeals here, as well the said Robert S. Dean by V. Brent Esquire his attorney, as the said George Thomas by G. Brent, & R. J. Merrick Esquires his attorneys, and thereupon, on motion of the said George Thomas by his attorneys aforesaid, it is ruled by the Court here, that the said Robert S. Dean assign the errors in the record of proceedings aforesaid, in the giving the decree aforesaid, so as aforesaid brought before the Court of Appeals here, for correcting the errors supposed to be therein, or decree by the Court of Appeals here, will be entered against him in default thereof, and the said Robert S. Dean by his attorney aforesaid, says, that in the record of proceedings aforesaid, and also in the giving of decree aforesaid, there is manifest error in this, to wit, that, by the record aforesaid, it appears that the decree aforesaid in the plea aforesaid given, was given for the said George Thomas against the said Robert S. Dean whereby the law of the land that decree ought to have been given for the said Robert S. Dean against the said George Thomas therefore in that there is manifest error, and he prays that the decree aforesaid for that error, and others being in the record of proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed, annulled, and held entirely for void, and that he the said Robert S. Dean may be restored to all things which he hath lost by occasion of the said decree and that the said George Thomas may rejoin to the errors aforesaid, and so forth. And thereupon, it is ruled by the Court of Appeals here, that the said George Thomas join in the errors by the said Robert S. Dean above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid, or decree by the Court of Appeals here, will be rendered against him in default thereof; and the said George Thomas by his attorney aforesaid, prays that a day may be given to him to join in the errors by the said Robert S. Dean above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid, until the first Monday in December next, and to him it is granted; the same day is also given to the said Robert S. Dean then &c.

At which said first Monday in December being the first day of the said Month, in the year of our Lord one thousand Eight hundred and fifty six which said day was given to the said George Thomas to join in the errors by the said Robert S. Dean above assigned, come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid by their attorneys aforesaid; and the said George Thomas by his attorney aforesaid, says, there is no error in the record of proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the decree aforesaid, and he prays that the Court of Appeals here will proceed to the examination as well of the record of proceedings aforesaid, as of the matters aforesaid, by the said Robert S. Dean above for error assigned, and that the said decree may be in all things affirmed, and so forth. But because the Court of Appeals here are not advised what decree to give of, and upon the premises, day therefore is given to the parties aforesaid before the Court of Appeals here, until the first Monday in June next, to hear the decree of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the premises, for that the court now here, thereof are not advised, and so forth. At which said first Monday in June being the first day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand Eight hundred and fifty seven, come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid by their attorneys aforesaid, thereupon further process of and upon the premises, between the parties aforesaid, is, by virtue of an act of Assembly in such case made and provided, further continued before the Court of Appeals here, until the first Monday in December next; the same day is given to the said parties there, then to hear the decree of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the said premises, and so forth.

And now at this day, to wit, the said first Monday in December being the seventh day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand, Eight hundred and fifty seven come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid. Whereupon as well the record and proceedings aforesaid, and the decree given in form aforesaid, as the matters aforesaid, by the said Robert S. Dean above for error assigned being seen, and by the Court of Appeals here fully understood, and mature deliberation thereupon had: for that it appears to the Court of Appeals here, that there is no ~~record~~ error in the record of proceedings aforesaid; nor in the giving of the decree aforesaid: Thereupon the Court of Appeals
