

Sir Baltimore August the 30th 1810
I shall beg leave to Address you these few lines
In addition to the many others which I wrote But Concluding that my last letter has Miscarried has induced ^{me} to send this I sent you A letter to Mr Maynard immediately on Receiving his which was on the twenty Sixth of last Months it was Dated the twelfth offering me his work which I sent him word I would undertake in three weeks owing to my having A parcel of stuff dressed I have been waiting for an answer but never Received any as I likewise wrote for you to be so good as to take A House for me I conjectured you delayed writing till you obtained one Then I heard you had A Cooper Samuel Stevenson told A person about two weeks Ago that he was just going to Annapolis, but Mr Hart informs me you have no Cooper as yet and still wants one he is informed, has induced me to send this which I would be far from troubling you with did I suppose the other got safe to hand I now again offer myself if wanted I will come immediately and work A couple of weeks before I bring my family I have A strong inclination
