THE JOURNAL

DENTON, SATURDAY MORNING, September 8, 1877.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline Co. will sit on Tuesday, 11th September.

SCRAPS.

—The county and State tax in Q. A. county for this year is $1.22¼ on the $100.

—W. W. Busteed, Esq., of the Centreville Observer, is spending a week or two at Saratoga.

—Water rails are becoming plentiful and are said to be fat. There will be fine shooting next week.

—A camp-meeting will commence at Parsonsburg, seven miles east of Salisbury, on the 30th inst.

—John W. Temple, Esq., is having a large and well proportioned porch erected in front of his residence on Main St.

—Thos. A. Smith, Esq., has made quite an improvement in the appearance of his carriage shop, at the head of Main St.

—In a nursery wherein all is life and laugh instead of crying and fretting there is sure to be found Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Price .25 per bottle.

—Dr. C. W. Chancellor will please accept our thanks for a copy of his report on the public charities, prisons, alms-houses, etc., of the State.

—Owing to the want of space this week we are compelled to leave out a number of advertisements. We will in the future make good all omissions.

—The fourth annual fair of the Agricultural Society of Dorchester county will be held at the grounds, near Cambridge, on the 17th, 18th and 19th of October next.

—It is quite probable that coal will advance considerably in price between now and the winter. A vessel load could be sold in Denton at this time without much trouble.

—Mr. W. G. Himrod, representing Tuthill & Avery, hardware dealers, Easton, Md., was in town during the first part of this week. The drills he is selling are said to be the best in use.

—We understand that our Town Commissioners intend buying shells to cover the sandy places of the road on Main Street. We do hope they will. It is a very much needed improvement.

—Jump & Co. advertise in this morning's paper an assortment of carpets bought at a large bankrupt sale in Baltimore last month, which they offer at less than manufacturers' prices. Call early if you want a choice brussels or Ingrain.

—Attention is called to the offer made by the National Silver-Plating Co., 704 Chestnut St., Phila., in our columns. Their silver-ware is beautiful and fully up to standard, and their generous offer is available to all the readers of this paper for ninety days after date. [9-8-4

NOTICE.—All persons indebted to the late firm of Lowe & Downes, or to J. Thomas Lowe are requested to come forward and settle their accounts at once, as further indulgence cannot be given. [sep8-tf.

REMOVAL.—J. H. Vangesel, Esq., who has been merchandising in this town for several years past has purchased the stock of goods owned by the late firm of Massey & Lowe, Greensboro', where he is removing the goods from his store in Denton, and contemplates continuing the business. Mr. Vangesel is a very accommodating gentleman, and an experienced merchant. We wish him much success at his new place of business.

PROF. RIVERS.—The Kent News says: "The Denton Union is informed that Prof. Rivers, of Washington College, has nothing to do with selecting the newspapers in which the college prospectus is advertised. That service is performed by the President and Secretary to the board of Visitors, and we are sure that they generally aim to select papers having the largest circulation, without regard to politics. If they erred this time we are satisfied it is not in respect of the papers in Caroline county.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—At a regular meeting of of Hillsboro' Grange No. 19, August 25th, 1877, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, in his inscrutable wisdom to remove, by death, from our midst Brother R. E. Wilson; therefore be it

Resolved, That in this dispensation of Divine Providence the family of our deceased brother loses a bountiful producer, a wise counselor, and a kind-hearted husband and father.

Resolved, That the community in which he lived loses a valued member—a man of more than ordinary zeal and perseverance.

Resolved, That the Grange loses its oldest and most earnest member.

Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning for sixty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved widow of the departed and one each to the Centreville Observer, Centreville Record and the [illegible]

Proceedings of the Convention.

The County Nominating Convention for Caroline county met in this town on Tuesday last. At about 2 o'clock the delegates from the several districts assembled at the Court-house and were called to order by J. W. Bryant, Esq., resident member and acting chairman of the County Central Committee, who stated his readiness to receive any motion looking to the temporary organization of the Convention. On motion, Capt. Wm. H. Watkins was appointed temporary chairman, and Mr. G. Hendley Beaven, secretary.

On motion, a committee consisting of one delegate from each election district was appointed to report officers for permanent organization. The committee, consisting of James N. Smith, from the first district, Wm. Pennington, from the second, Wm. J. Wilkinson, from the third, J. Robert McNash, from the fourth and Wm. T. Slaughter from the fifth, retired, and after a short conference returned, and recommended the following officers of the Convention: Geo. H. Moore, Esq., President, and Mr. G. Hendley Beaven, Secretary.

Mr. Moore, upon taking the chair, expressed his thanks for the honor, and in a short, but very earnest and telling speech reminded the Convention that upon its action depended to a great extent the success of the Democratic party this fall. Having impressed upon the minds of the delegates the great importance of acting harmoniously, he declared the Convention duly organized and ready for business.

On motion, the Secretary called the roll of delegates, and the following gentlemen responded:

FIRST DISTRICT.—James N. Smith, John Daily, W. W. Rickards, M. S. Mutchler, J. M. Davis, J. Y. Graham and Van. Heathers.

SECOND DISTRICT.—Geo. H. Moore, Wm. Pennington, Walter Massey, Wm. Massey, Wm. J. Clark, G. W. Porter and Benj. Coursey.

THIRD DISTRICT.—T. F. Johnson, E. C. Carter, E. George, W. S. Evitts, W. J. Wilkinson, G. H. Beaven and H. C. Fisher.

FOURTH DISTRICT.—M. Patton, M. P. Hutchinson, W. F. Liden, J. R. McNash, W. W. Williamson and Wm. C. Willoughby.

FIFTH DISTRICT.—H. Mowbray, E. Hignutt, W. H. Watkins, G. H. Smith, R. J. Willoughby, S. Nichols and Wm. T. Slaughter.

Mr. J. Y. Graham not being present, on motion, the delegation from the first district was allowed to cast its full vote in making the nominations.

At this stage of the proceedings bled inside the Court-room, numbering possibly, one hundred and fifty, and it became apparent that the Convention could perform its duties more satisfactorily by repairing to the Grand Jury room, heretofore used for the purpose. Accordingly a motion to that effect was made and carried, and the members of the Convention, together with representatives of the Union and the JOURNAL at once proceeded to this room, and the nominations were proceeded with.

The following gentlemen were nominated for Senator: Alex. Hardcastle, Wm. A. Ford, Daniel Fields, S. J. Jarman and R. Y. Collins. On motion M. S. Mutchler was appointed teller.

FIRST BALLOT.

Hardcastle, seven; Fields, sixteen; Ford, nine; Jarman two; Collins, one.

A motion was made and carried to the effect that after the second ballot the lowest candidate be dropped, and so continue until a choice be made. Before proceeding further, Mr. Moore asked the indulgence of the Convention to make a few remarks. Like his opening speech, his remarks at this time were brief and to the point. He warned the delegates, in the most earnest language, to select a man for this position who will satisfy and receive the hearty support of the people.

On motion the Convention proceeded to take the SECOND BALLOT.

Ford, 12; Fields, eleven; Hardcastle, eight; Jarman, three; Collins, one.

THIRD BALLOT.

Fields, thirteen; Ford, thirteen; Hardcastle, eight; Jarman, one.

FOURTH BALLOT.

Ford, sixteen; Fields, eleven; Hardcastle, eight.

FIFTH BALLOT.

Fields, nineteen; Ford, sixteen.

Mr. Fields was declared the nominee for Senator.

The Convention then nominated J. P. Manlove, E. C. Carter, R. Y. Collins and E. Saulsbury for members of the House of Delegates. Mr. Carter's name being withdrawn, the balloting was proceeded with.

FIRST BALLOT.

Manlove, thirty-one; Collins, twenty-one; Saulsbury, seventeen.

J. P. Manlove and R. Y. Collins were declared the nominees of the Convention for members of the House of Delegates.

The Chair announced that nominations for Sheriff were in order, and the names of J. B. Biship, C. W. Clark, W. T. Slaughter and J. T. Fleetwood were put before the Convention.

FIRST BALLOT.

Bishop, twenty-two; Slaughter, ten; Fleetwood, two; Clark, one.

J. B. Bishop was declared the nominee for Sheriff.

Next were nominated the County Commissioners. The names of the following gentlemen were before the Convention: John Daily, W. J. Clark, Henry Wilson, W. G. Horsey, W. P. Richardson, J. M. Whitby, J. W. Smith and W. W. Williamson. A choice was made on the

FIRST BALLOT.

Williamson, thirty-three; Wilson twenty-four; Daily, nineteen; Horsey, twelve; Whitby, four; Richardson, one; Smith, one.

The Chair then announced W. W. Williamson, Henry Wilson and John Daily duly nominated for County Commissioners. Mr. Wilson, afterwards declining to serve, W. G. Horsey was put in his place.

S. H. Melson, Eli W. Gordy and J. B. Isler were nominated for Surveyor. Mr. Melson, receiving twenty of the thirty-five votes, was declared the nominee for this position.

A message was received from the Hon. Daniel Fields to the effect that he wished to make an announcement to the Convention before its adjournment. He was announced and heartily received by the delegates, and asked their attention for a few minutes. He spoke of the honors the party had bestowed upon him in electing him to the State Senate for three consecutive terms, and now nominating him for the fourth. He referred in appropriate and appreciative language to the honor the Senate had conferred upon him in making him President of that body; and that he considered it a more honorable position than that of Governor of the State. Speaking of the nomination just made, Mr. Fields said he had not asked for it, and inasmuch as he had now held the position for twelve years, he asked the Convention to receive his resignation and let him retire to private life. He then presented to the Chairman the following written resignation, which was read:

To Geo. H Moore, Pres't, and Geo. H. Beaven, Sec'y, of the Democratic Nominating County Convention.

GENTLEMEN:—I tender you my resignation, as a candidate for the position of Senator and beg you to accept the same. I have been highly honored by the Democratic party of this county, in the past, for which, I fear, I may not be allowed the time ever to repay those debts of gratitude; and wish, in the future, to devote my humble services as a private in the ranks, to the harmony and success of our great party and its principles; to that end I shall cheerfully devote my declining years. This last mark of your confidence and respect I shall carry to my grave as a testimonial of having faithfully discharged my duties as your representative in the past, according to the best of my ability.

Your most ob't servant.

DANL FIELDS.

[illegible] the resignation should be received. By a unanimous and emphatic "No" they refused to receive it. Whereupon Mr. Fields again arose, and said, he was in earnest when he presented his resignation, but that sooner than disregard the unanimous voice of the Convention, he would yield his personal feeling and let his name remain upon the ticket.

At the conclusion of Mr. Fields's remarks, Mr. Moore, President of the Convention, rose and said, Mr. Fields, having been fairly and honorably nominated, would receive his support, and should receive the unanimous support of the Democracy of the county. He said, "the Convention has declared him their candidate and he is my candidate."

The following gentlemen were chosen as delegates to the State Convention to nominate a candidate for Comptroller: Philip W. Downes, Mr. Mutchler and H. F. Willis.

On motion, the following gentlemen were chosen members of the Democratic County Central Committee:

First District—John Daily, D. R. Heather and W. W. Rickards.

Second District—H. C. Comegys, J. F. Dawson and Walter Massey.

Third District—J. W. Holt, Enoch George and T. F. Johnson.

Fourth District—J. P. J. Hubbard, H. F. Willis and T. F. Cox.

Fifth District—W. H. Watkins, W. T. Slaughter and E. C. Gullett.

A Time-Honored Specific.—The long and successful career of Dr. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL, as contrasted with the speedy collapse of nostrums devoid of efficacy which have from time to time been puffed into a brief notoriety during the twenty-odd years that this celebrated medicine has been sold, affords a proof that the American public continues to repose its confidence in deserving articles only. The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL has long been recognized as the leading specific for Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Diptheria, and all other diseases of the breathing organs. It is moreover, a certain, speedy, and safe botanic remedy for Dyspepsia, Liver Disorders, Scrofulous Affections, Urinary Troubles, Gravel, Dropsy, Debility, Constipation, and Female Complaints. Constantly accumulating evidence of an unimpeachable character establishes the fact that it is not only entirely eradicates the diseases to which it is adapted, but also that its action is remarkably prompt and thorough.—The crucible test of experience has demonstrated its reliability in every particular. Sold by all druggists. Principal Depot, No. 916 Filbert Street, Philadelphia.
