

Anne-Arundel County Court,
April Term, 1817.

On application to Anne Arundel County Court by petition in writing of John Deale, of Anne Arundel county, praying for the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, and the several supplements thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the said John Deale having satisfied the said court that he has resided in the State of Maryland two years immediately preceding the time of his application, and that he is in actual confinement for debt only; It is therefore ordered and adjudged by the said court, that the said John Deale be discharged from his confinement, and that he, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the public newspapers in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months, before the third Monday of September next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the county court of Anne Arundel county, on the third Monday next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said John Deale then and there taking the oath by the said acts prescribed, for delivering up his property, and to shew cause if any they have, why the said John Deale should not have the benefit of the said act and supplements thereto as prayed.

To Travellers

Persons travelling to and from Baltimore will find it much the most direct and best road by way of the "Middle Ferry," formerly Holland's ferry, which is now kept in good order, and constant attendance, by Henry Johnson and Wm. Arnold; where liquors and horse feed can be had. The road between the ferry and Baltimore has lately been straightened and improved, and is only three miles from the ferry to Mrs. Carroll's Bridge, where it intersects the Washington turnpike road.

That most Valuable and Highly improved FARM, known by the name of the Petition of Joseph Sands, Sarah Sands, Ann Sands, Joseph Sands jr. and John Sands.

To the honourable Judges of the Circuit Court of the District of Columbia for the county of Washington. The petition states, that a certain John Davidson, deceased, by his last will and testament bequeathed all his real estate to his wife, Ann Maria Davidson, and directed and empowered her to sell the same, and apply the proceeds thereof to the payment of the debts of the said John Davidson; that the said Ann Maria died without having performed the trust reposed in her by the said will; that the petitioners, are large creditors of the said John; that he left a large real estate in the District of Columbia, liable to the trust aforesaid, but which cannot be sold by reason of the death of the said Ann Maria; the petitioners therefore pray a trustee may be appointed by the court to perform the trust created by the said John in his will: And it appearing that the heirs of the said John Davidson do not reside within the District of Columbia, it is ordered by the court, that notice be published in the Maryland Gazette, published at Annapolis, to the heirs of the said John Davidson, to appear and answer to the said petition by the first Monday of November next, or the matters therein stated will be taken "pro confesso," and such decree made in the case, upon proof of the publication of this order, as the court shall deem just and equitable.

FOR SALE.

The subscriber will sell,

Thomas's Point,

And the lands adjoining, lying on the Chesapeake Bay, South River, Oyster and Fishing Creeks. These lands abound with ship timber, and wood of almost every description. There is a large quantity of firm marsh belonging to it, and some low ground, which may be converted into meadow at a small expense. There are several small buildings on it. The whole contains between three and four hundred acres. This place is remarkable for fish, oysters and wild fowl.

In addition to the above lands, the subscriber will also sell the lands adjoining. The whole will contain between six and seven hundred acres; a fence of four or five hundred yards in length, running from the Head of Oyster creek to Smith's Creek, will enclose the whole land. This half of the land contains a considerable quantity of fish belonging to
