the said Decree may be in all things affirmed, and so-forth; thereupon further process of and upon the premises, between the parties aforesaid is, by virtue of an Act of Assembly in such cases made and provided, continued before the Court of Appeals here, until the first Monday in April next; the same day is given to the said parties there, then to hear the Decree of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the said premises, and so forth.

At which said First Monday in April being the third day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty two come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid. But because the Court of Appeals here are not yet advised what Decree to give of and upon the premises, a day therefore is further given to the parties aforesaid, with the consent of the said parties by their attorneys aforesaid, to come before the Court of Appeals here, on the first Monday in October next, to hear the Decree of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the premises, for that the Court now here, as yet, are not &c.

And now at this day, to wit, the said first Monday in October, being the second day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty two, come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid by their attorney aforesaid. And afterwards to wit on the 25 day of January 1883 the following agreement and supplemental record were filed to wit:
