MELVIN BROS.

Saturday Morning, June 21, 1884.

THE Democracy's choice for President is settling down between Cleveland and Bayard. The party is happy because no mistake can be made if either should be chosen to lead.

ALL OF OUR readers, Republican as well as Democrats, will be interested and edified by a perusal of Mr. Tilden's letter, published in full on the first page to-day. Such sentiments as are therein expressed can only emanate from a patriot's heart, and have none but a good effect upon the politics of the day.

BISHOP SIMPSON, senior bospop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died on Thursday morning at his home in Philadelphia. He had seen Methodism when to preach its doctrines meant privation and penury, when the circuit rider traveled through the wilderness, preaching in log cabins, living on the humblest fare and and winning converts by simple exhortations and earnest appeals. He left it when it had its colleges and universities, when its name was not a reproach, when it had become strong and powerful.

MR. BAYARD'S friends have just brought to light a speech in which the Senator, speaking of one of Senator Boutwell's innuendos, exclaimed: "I will simply say that every drop of blood in my body comes from men and from women who since this government was established never harbored a thought or did an act unfaithful or unpatriotic. No man can assert the contrary. The Senator dare not do so. He knows as well as I that the man who says I ever did an act or utter a word unfaithful to the integrity of my country's government has lied in his throat."

THE political contest for 1884 has opened, and from now until November every election in the different States that will be held previous to that time will attract attention. On August 4, Alabama will elect State officers and three days later, Agust 7, Tennessee will follow. September 1, Arkansas will vote and Vermont will do likewise the following day. The election in Maine, the home of James G. Blaine, will be held September 8, and the result there will be looked upon as significant. A governor will be elected in Georgia on October 1, and on the 14th of the same month Ohio and West Virginia will hold State elections. In Ohio the fight will be exceedingly interesting, for besides several minor State officers to be voted for, twenty-one Congressmen will be chosen, and the result then will doubtless foreshadow how that State is likely to vote in November.

PEACHES AND THE ORIOLE.—The Baltimore Sun of Monday seems inclined to doubt the statement made last week by the Transcript that the Baltimore packing houses were closed by last year's Oriole, and that there was an immense loss occasioned thereby to Peninsular peach growers. Our stasement, however, was within bounds. The Peninsular peach growers should this year make a vigorous move against the holding of the Oriole before October. In every county of this Peninsula there should be an organized protest. If the peach growers will act unitedly they can make Baltimore understand that if she must have her show she must at least have some regard for an important industry of an important part of the State. The trade of this Peninsula is worth enough to Baltimore to warrant being encouraged, and it is little enough to ask that the holding of the Oriole be postponed till a date between fifteen or twenty days later than it has heretofore been held.—Chestertown Transcript.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—The first Presbyterian minister who preached in America was the Rev. Francis Makemie. He crossed the Atlantic in 1684, and in the following year organized a church and had a meeting-house built in Snow Hill, Md. He was a licentiate of the Presbytery of Laggan, Ireland, but his first important work was accomplished between the Chesapeake and the ocean, where he founded several churches. The two hundredth anniversary of the organization of the first Presbyterian church in America saems to require recognition from this powerful religious body. The people of Snow Hill are anxious to erect a Makemie memorial church, but being restricted in means are forced to appeal to the Presbyterians of the country for financial aid. The original meeting-house was rebuilt in 1745 and replaced with a brick structure in 1795; but the latter, after standing eighty-eight years, is now dilapidated and beyond the possibility of repairs. Contributions can be sent to United States Senator-elect Wilson, at Snow Hill.

Col. Oswald Tilghman Married.

EASTON, Md., June 17.—The wedding of Col. Oswald Tilghman, a prominent young member of the Talbot county bar, and Miss Patty Belle Harrison, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Dr. Samuel A. Harrison, also of this county, was one of the most brilliant affairs of the kind that has ever taken place in Talbot. The ceremonies were performed in accordance with the English style at Christ Church at noon to-day, by Rt. Rev. H. C. Lay, bishop of the diocese of Easton, assisted ed by Rev. Dr. Stearns. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers. The large auditorium was crowded with the best society of the county long before the hour set for the ceremonies. The bride entered on her father's arm. She wore an elegant toilette of white silk with diamonds. The bridesmaids, also in white silk, were: Miss Hattie Ashton, of Philadelphia; Miss Sarah Tilghman, of Baltimore; Miss Bonnie Chew, of New York; Miss Mamie Earle, of Easton; Miss Lottie Doane, of Baltimore; Miss Mary Hill Goldsborough, of Easton, and little Misses Katie Belle Noble, of Baltimore, and Claudia Lea, of Wilmington. The two latter were accompanied by Masters Oswald T. and Arthur L. Shreve, nephews of Colonel Tilghman. Each bridesmaid carried a basket of pink and white rosebuds. The following gentlemen acted as ushers: Colonel F. Carroll Goldsborough, Easton; Carter Goldsborough, Esq., Baltimore; Hon. Chas. H. Gibson, Easton; C. Howard Lloyd, of Wye; William Goldsborough, Jr., of Myrtle Grove; John A. Goldsborough, of Washington, D. C., and Oswald T. Hemsley, of Queen Anne.

Teachers' Association.

To the Editor of The Journal.

Would you allow me to speak to teachers in all schools on the necessity of concentrating themselves into a body? As things now are the only association there is is in their immediate neighborhood. What is wanted is an organization that would secure their rights and work for the public as also for the teachers' mutual welfare.

That the teaching and training of the young is as much an indispensable necessity as are Preaching, Law and Medicine, nobody will dare to deny. Now, as in these and other professions and vocations we have institutions, organizations and co-operations, why, I ask, should the scholastic profession be left as sheep having no temporal shepherd?

Your rights: You, the public, want teachers; you must have them—you have a high, holy important work for them—a work that is before the clergy (not superior to it). Now just ask yourselves, you wealthy taxpayers, how you treat these nation-saving people in your counties, in your cities, everywhere. You require them to be well educated and models, yes, almost saints. Very well, then, how about pay? And whilst they are spending themselves and being spent for the benefit of your children and society generally what margin do you leave for them at the end of the mutilated year's work they have done for you? Come, a little more, and when they have grown old, weak and poor in their thrice noble work, what provision do you make for them? I can tell you exactly: it is the poorhouse.

Why not have an organization in each and every State and officers appointed who could attend to the interests of all parties, just as we have in our counties—commissioners and county clerks. So let the scholastic profession have its recording offices, with one head institution wherever it would be deemed advisable by this much needed and long contemplated organization. Come to the front, teachers, of all grades, in all colleges, and let it be felt that the laborer is worthy of his hire and that honor must be given to whom it is due.

With an association of this sort, teacher, you need not fear for the future; only do your duty as a faithful soldier of the cross.

Do you want a position in accordance with your qualifications and credentials? then would you have just as good attention and emolument as your fellow citizens in other and less important associations.

Do you want—you a teacher—employment to maintain yourself and your little family? You are safe; make it known to your secretary who will care for you just as well as any other secretary would.

Let us have our own agency and organization, then we will find our own society agent can notify us of vacant positions at a far less cost than by the mode now in vogue.

In England for years past the want of this organization has often been deplored, but never could be remedied, for neither the teachers nor employers would combine, hence anarchy—teachers left a prey to sycophant agents, jealous of each other in regard to their cruel booty, the the hard-earned salary of the proverbially badly-paid and badly-treated teachers in that couhtry. I am not exagerating—I have learned this by dearly-bought experience. I have been through the mill.

It may be said I should not select a county paper for this communication. I beg to differ. I like county papers. I have always written in local papers wherever I have been, for, from them great results often follow, though we may not readily discern this.

Whilst I approve of the ideas of your correspondent "Toga," on "Teachers' Insignia," I feel that he has only touched on a very small part of such an important subject as the teachers' association. Believe me to be yours sincerely,

ORDER PUBLICATION.

William R. Howard and William S. Ridgely, adm'rs C. T. A. of Rev. G. W. Ridgely, dec'd, vs.
Emeline H. Dungan and Charles B. Dungan.

THE object of this bill is to procure a decree for the sale of an undivided one-half of certain blocks, parts of blocks and lots of land situate and being in Caroline county, whereon the town of Ridgely is laid out, for the payment of upaid purchase money.

The bill states that on the 3d day of February, 1870, Emeline H. Dungan, wife of Charles B. Dungan, executed to the Rev. Greenbury W. Ridgely her obligation for the balance of the purchase money of an undivided moiety of a tract or parcel of land conveyed to her by him, called "Fairn Ridge," "Roe Farm" or by whatever name or names the same may be called, to wit, the sum of three thousand dollars, with interest from July 1st, 1869; that afterwards, on 3d day of February, 1870, the said Emeline H. Dungan and Charles B. Dungan, her husband, conveyed the said undivided moiety to Y. H. Gillingham, of the State of New Jersey, excepting and reserving the following lots, blocks and parts of blocks in the town of Ridgely, namely: Lots Nos. 5 and 6 of block No. 6; lot No. 9 of block No. 56; lots Nos. 1 and 7 of block No. 8; lots 9, 10 and 12 of block No. 17; lots No. 3, 4, 5 and 6 of block No. 54, and block No. 21, 22, 26 and 27 of the plot of the town of Ridgely; that the said Reverend Greenbury W. Ridgely departed this life in August, 1883, and that letters testamentary with the will annexed have been duly granted to the complainants; that no part of said balance of purchase money or interest thereon has been paid but that the whole is due and owing by the said Emeline H. Dungan; that the complainants have a vendor's lien for said purchase money, and a decree is prayed for the sale of the said lots, blocks and parts of blocks of land for payment of said unpaid purchase money and interest and for such other and further relief as the case requires. It is thereupon ordered this fourth day of June, 1884, that the plaintiff cause a copy of this order, setting forth the object and substance of the bill, to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Caroline county, State of Maryland, once a week for four successive weeks before the 8th day of July next, giving notice to the said Emeline H. Dungan and Charles B. Dungan, non-residents of the State of Maryland, warning them to be and appear in the court in person or by solicitor on or before the 8th day of October next, to show cause, if any they or either of them have, why a decree shall not pass as prayed.

PUBLIC SALE
—OF A—
SMALL FARM
AND VALUABLE
GRIST AND SAW MILL
PROPERTY.

The undersigned, as agents and attorneys for the owner, Walter E. Witherbee, will offer at public sale, in front of the Court House door, in the town of Centreville, on Tuesday, the 1st of July, 1884, at 3'oclock, P. M., the following real estate to wit:

PART NO. 1.

all that valuable Grist Mill, Mill Seat and Messuage, with all the Ways, Water, Water Courses, Rights, Privileges and Easements belonging or appurtenant thereto, generally known as

and formerly known as Barcus' and Turner's Mill, situate in the Sixth Election District of Queen Anne county, at the head waters of Tuckahoe Creek, on the public road from Ruthsburg to Ridgely, and also from Ruthsburg to Hillsborough, about three miles from either place.

The Grist Mill Building and Machinery are all new and the mill is well fitted up for grinding wheat, corn, &c. The SAM MILL is also in thorough running order and located on the same race. It is an excellent stand for business and is on one of the best streams on the Peninsula. The dam is very substantial, and the tumbling dam one of the best in the country. The whole property is in the most thorough condition. It contains mostly covered by water, including a

181 ACRES, 1 ROOD AND 31 PERCHES OF LAND,

Small Dwelling

House and Lot, separated from the farm by the public road.

This property offers a rare opportunity for one who wishes to engage in the business of milling, and also for a party seeking profitable investments.

There is a house on the farm used as a miller's house which will be sold with the mill.

PART NO. 2.

All that farm or tract of land called situate nearly opposite the Mill, and separated from the same by the public road, adjoining the lands of John Mullikin's heirs and Wm. Barcus, and containing and 2 Roods of Land, more or less.

SUFFOLK,

67 ACRES,

The improvements are a good Two-Story with Kitchen, in excellent repair; Barn, Stable, Carriage House and Machine House, all in excellent order.

FRAME DWELLING

The land is all arable, high and in good state of cultivation, convenient to churches, schools, &c.

The above property may be offered in two separate parcels and then as a whole.

TERMS OF SALE.

Two thousand dollars to be paid in cash on day of sale, the balance in three equal instalments of one, two and three years from day of sale, the deferred payments to bear interest from day of sale and to be secured by the bond of the purchaser or purchasers with surety or sureties to be abproved by approved by the undersigned. If the property is sold in porcels the cash payment will be apportioned. Possession will be given on the 1st of January, 1885, with the privilege of seeding wheat on the farm this fall.

COME ON.
WE ARE READY FOR YOU.
OUR MAIN WEAKNESS IS HOSPITALITY

We cannot bear to have any strangers leave the city until we have had an opportunity to show them some civility. Our stores are as well worth seeing as any place in Baltimore, and our goods are better worth examination than those of any other house in the city.

We welcome one and all, rich and poor, residents and strangers, and make it a point to show the same careful attention to mere sightseers that is accorded to the most profitable customer.

EXCELSIOR CLOTHING CO.

Mens & Youths' Clothing

We have opened the season with vim and vigor. We have spared no time, trouble or pains to prepare for your purchase the most perfect assortment of CLOTHING ever displayed in Baltimore; we have a stock of nearly $200,000 in Men's and Youths' clothing alone. Every Style, Fabric and Quality can be had at our stores. It is really wonderful—yes, astonishing—what values we are offering in Men's Suits. Our regular patrons need no urging to visit us; we want those who have not bought of us to come and see the big stacks of clothing we have and learn the low prices we charge.

EXCELSIOR CLOTHING CO.

Our Boys and Childrens' Department.

Is full of Nevelties. No Old Goods. Everything New and Stylish. Not only in Baltimore, but in Rochester, Buffalo, Albany. Cleveland, Denver and East Saginaw, where we have retail stores, our SHOES.

Whew! How we have made the Shoe Trade howl since we opened our Shoe Department. Our customers are more than pleased with the attention they receive and the perfect fits they receive. Our Fitters do not let you take the first pair of shoes you try on, even if you do say, "I guess they will do;" we want your trade permanently, and we are bound to have it, if giving you satisfaction will secure it. Never mind what the prices will be, we warrant you they will be low enough to please you and distress the little shops around town.

EXCELSIOR CLOTHING CO.

Furnishing Goods Department.

In this department, as in all others, we can show more Goods, more styles, and a greater variety than any three exclusive furnishing houses in the city, and our prices are fully 25 per cent. lower. In Underwear we can show you all the different styles and material that are made. Our stock of Neckwear is simply too immense to describe. Hosiery we make a special feature of, and can show you 100 different styles, in prices from the lowest up. All the new and desirable shapes in Linen Collars, Cuffs, Handkerchiefs, Jewelry, white and Colored Shirts in endless variety, with Gloves of all styles and prices.

THE TIME HAS COME.

And Tilden has declined at last, but I have concluded to brighten matters up a little by offering some Special Inducements in the way of Merchandise.

You have already heard, from the press as well as the people, that I have decorated my shelves with the finest stock of General Merchandise ever seen in this old stand. My dry goods department is complete. Silk finished malanges for 25c.; Almada cloth at the same; all wool nun's veiling at 36c.; 25c. lace bunting at 20c.; 12c. bunting at 8c.; 20c. cashmere at 12c., and many other dress goods at correspondingly low prices; dress plaids for 8c.; prints from 4c. to 8c.; shirting from 5c. to 12c.

My all wool cassimere for gentlemen's suits, the best I have ever seen, at $1. I have beautifnl carpets for both steps and floor and Park's make of brooms to beautify them more. My cassimere ready-made suits are beautiful. I have purchased a job lot of them and can sell at wholesale prices. My dusters, gossamers and overalls are extremely low. Splendid lap dusters for 50c., and a whip for a dollar.

My Job Table sits in the middle of the floor and the like of its bargains you never saw before, or ever will, perhaps. Notions innumerable; neckwear for ladies and also for gents; white lawns for a quarter and as low as ten cents.

I have summer corsets, Duplex, Automatic, Tampico, Heathcomfort, Knockall and Misses' Crown, all the way from one dollar and a quarter down. Globe shirts, gossamer vests and a specialty in ladies' dress buttons, gents' and boys' fine gaiters, ladies' and men's French and American hand made shoes a specialty. Fedora hats grand, Turbans low and straw hats the cheapest, wherever you go. Pine apple hams are found to be the best, while the broiling meat I keep is as fine as the rest. My syrup is prime, my molasses sweet—my variety of oils can never be beat. My stock of canned goods embraces nearly all. I make a specialty of Gambrill's flour. I carry the finest assortment of French confectionery and fancy cakes and nuts in town and I will by the quantity or pound. My large assortment Kirk's toilet soaps and perfumery will surprise you.

Friends of all sections, give me a call, and I'll soon convince I'm beating them all.

WHERE TO BUY
DRY GOODS.
SPRING OF 1884.

Hamilton Easter & Sons, OF BALTIMORE.

Are large IMPORTERS, JOBBERS and RETAILERS OF DRY GOODS. Their business, established in 1830, has been done on strictly honorable principles, thereby increasing their trade to its present dimensions.

They have but One Price and that price marked in Plain Figures on every article They keep no goods but such as they believe will prove of full value for the price paid by the purchaser. Their various departments include low priced to the finest DRESS GOODS, BLACK SILKS, COLORED SILKS, SATINS AND VELVETS, MOURNING GOODS, DOMESTIC COTTONS, LINEN GOODS, FLANNELS, BLANKETS, QUILTS, Goods for Men s and Boy s Wear, Gloves, Hosiery, Underwear, Handkerchiefs, Laces, Embroideries, Cloaks and Fashionable Wraps, White Muslin Goods, Notions, Ginghams, Calicoes, Percales, Satins, &c.

As LARGE IMPORTERS, they have the advantage of a buyer visiting Europe twice a year to select all new fabrics direct from the manufacturers, and their long experience and the amount of their sales enable them to purchase American Manufactured Goods in large quantities and consequently to great advantage.

Samples will be sent to parties who give instructions in regard to about the price of goods wanted colors prefered, &c To fill orders satisfactorily definite, plain instructions must be given to us.
