their case may require.

May it please your Honor to grant the writ of subpoena of the State of Maryland to the said James Wilson Patterson and Margaret S. Patterson, his wife, William Patterson and Emma M. Patterson, his wife, Alice T. Harris and W. Hall Harris, her husband, and Mary T. Harris, J. Morrison Harris, Jr., and W. Hall Harris, Jr., infant children of the said Alice T. Harris and W. Hall Harris, and Henry Patterson and Alice Patterson, infant children of the said William Patterson and Emma M., his wife, and Anna St. Clair Patterson, infant child of the said deceased son, Arthur Melville Patterson, and the said James Wilson Patterson, William Patterson and W. Hall Harris, executors as aforesaid, and the said William Patterson, trustee for Anna St. Clair Patterson, as aforesaid, all of the City of Baltimore, commanding them to appear in this Court at some certain day to be therein named, to answer the premises, and abide by and perform such decrees or orders as may be passed therein.

And as in duty bound, &c.

Wm. H. Brune, Jr.,
Solr. for Complainants.

Complainants' Exhibit A.
(Filed 31st January, 1885.)

James Wilson's Last Will and Testament.

I, James Wilson, of the City and County of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following, hereby revoking all wills which I may heretofore at any time have made:

(1.) First. I bequeath the sum of three hundred and sixty thousand dollars as follows: To each of my children, namely, David S. Wilson, Jane S. Brown, Eliza Mck. Wilson, William C. Wilson, Mary Louisa Patterson, Ann Rebecca Harrison,

Thomas J. Wilson, Henry R. Wilson and Melville Wilson. I give and bequeath the sum of forty thousand dollars. Whatever sums may be charged to my children in my private ledger as advanced to them, are to be deducted from the amount of their respective legacies; and the payment of said legacies, or any part of them, may be made in whole or in part by a transfer of stocks or other securities in my possession at the time of my decease, at their market price or value at the time when such transfer shall be made. The said legacies are to be paid at the end of twelve months from my decease, unless my executors shall consider it to be for the advantage of my estate to postpone the payment thereof, in which case interest on said legacies, or on such parts thereof as may not then be paid, shall be paid semi-annually to said legatees, computing the interest from the end of said twelve months; but the whole of said legacies shall be paid as soon after the expiration of said twelve months as may be practicable, consistently with the interest of my estate. (James Wilson.)

(2.) Second. It is my will and desire that each of my said children - including my daughters, whether single or married - shall have power by last will and testament, or instrument of writing in the nature of a last will and testament, whether the same shall be made in my lifetime, or after my decease, and although such child may die before me, to dispose of absolutely, or in any manner he or she may think proper, all the property, real, personal or mixed, bequeathed or devised immediately, or by way of remainder, to or in trust for him or her by this my will, or which may come or pass to him or her under or by virtue of any of the clauses or provisions of this my will, and such property shall pass and be distributed in all res-