to complete any purchase of real or leasehold property which they may deem it expedient to make.

(18.) Eighteenth. I appoint the same persons, to wit, David S. Wilson, Robert S. Brown and Thomas S. Wilson, the executors of this my will, with full power, for the purpose of settling my estate, to sell and dispose of all the leasehold and personal estate which I may leave, as well (James Wilson) that directed to be held in trust as the rest, without the authority of or application to the Orphans' Court for Baltimore county or any other tribunal.

(19.) Nineteenth. Whenever any of my executors or trustees shall die, or if any should refuse to act or should resign, then I appoint my son Henry A. Wilson, (if he should then be living,) in the place of the one first dying, resigning or refusing to act, in the same manner and with the same powers, and in all respects as if he had been named one of the original trustees or executors.

(20.) Twentieth. It is the meaning of the fourteenth clause of my will and I so provide, that in case my wife shall die before me, instead of the residue of my property, real, leasehold and personal, being divided among my children who may be living at the death of my wife, and the issue then living of any deceased child, (as is provided by the twelfth and thirteenth clauses of my will,) the same shall pass to and be divided among my children who may be living at the time of my death, and the issue then living of any deceased child, such issue to take a child's share.

(21.) Twenty-first. Before the execution of this will, the following corrections and alterations have been made therein: In the third clause the words "infant" and "or hereafter" are interlined; in the tenth clause the words, "horses and all my", are written over an erasure, and the words, "my country seat or in my residence in town," are interlined at the end of the clause; in the twelfth clause the words, "then living," are twice interlined, and the words, "or by or for the adult issue of a deceased child," are also interlined; in the thirteenth clause the word "dollars," is interlined, and the words "all my," are written over an erasure, and in the seventeenth clause the words, "and convey," are interlined.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal on this (James Wilson) twenty-second day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and have also subscribed my name at the foot of each of the foregoing pages of this my will.

James Wilson, (Seal.)

Signed, Sealed, published and declared by James W. Wilson, the above named testator, as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

C. C. Jamison,
J. H. McCullohs,
J. Thomas Smith.

Memorandum:— Whereas, after the foregoing will was prepared, but before it was executed, a corporation has been established under and by virtue of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at December Session, 1846, chapter 323, by the name of the Trustees of Huntingdon Chapel, the articles whereof have been duly recorded among the records of Baltimore county, and it has therefore become unnecessary to make application to the Legislature of Maryland for an Act of Incorporation, which is contemplated in the 5th clause of my said will. Now I hereby revoke the direction given in said clause, that an application shall be made for an Act of Incorporation, and direct the trustees appointed in my
