said will to convey the chapel, chapel lot and appurtenances mentioned in said clause to said corporation, to be held by it under the provisions of the articles of association creating said corporation.

It is my intention to make a conveyance of said property to said corporation in my lifetime, and this direction is to be carried out by my trustees only in case I should die before fulfilling said intention.

This memorandum or writing, which is executed at the same time as my said will, is to be taken and held as a part thereof.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty-second day of January, eighteen hundred and forty-eight.

James Wilson, (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by James Wilson, the above named testator, as and for an addition to his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

J. H. McCulloh,
J. Thomas Smith.

Baltimore County, Ss:

On the 20th day of February, 1851, came Cecelius C. Jamison, James H. McCulloh and John Thomas Smith, the three subscribing witnesses to the aforegoing last will and testament of James Wilson, late of said county, deceased, and Cecelius C. Jamison and John Thomas Smith, made oath on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God, and James H. McCulloh solemnly declared and affirmed, that they did see the testator sign and seal this will; that they heard him publish, pronounce and declare the same to be his last will and testament; that at the time of his so doing he was, to the best of their apprehensions, of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, and that they subscribed their names as witnesses to this will, in his presence, at his request, and in the presence of each other.

Sworn and affirmed to in open Court.

Test:- D. M. Perine,
Register of Wills for Baltimore county.

Whereas, I, James Wilson, of the City of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland, have made and duly executed my last will and testament in writing, bearing date the twenty-second day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, which said last will and testament I do hereby ratify and confirm, except so far as the same is hereinafter altered, and being desirous to alter some parts thereof, and make some additions thereto, do therefore hereby make this my codicil, which I will and direct shall be taken as a part of said will and testament, in manner and form following, that is to say,

Whereas, by the eleventh clause of my said will, all the residue of my real and leasehold estate standing in my own name, and all the residue of my personal estate, are left to trustees by my said will appointed, for the purposes therein stated, and the income arising therefrom is thereby directed to be paid over to my wife during her life; I now direct that out of such portion of said residues as under my said will my said trustees are authorized to invest in personal property, a sum not exceeding in value two-tenths of the whole amount of the residues above mentioned, shall be taken by my said trustees, and that one of said tenths, or so much thereof as my son, Thomas S. Wilson, shall desire, shall be loaned to my said son Thomas S., if he shall desire it, and that the other of said tenths, or so much thereof as my son, Henry R. Wilson, shall desire, shall be loaned to my said son, Henry R. if he shall desire it; said loans to be made to aid my sons respectively, in carrying
