

been sold to make a division, which would left you all entirely destitute of a Home or place even to layd on bodys down to rest, but I am in hopes by this plan you will endeavour to assist each other, and keep together as loving Brethers and sisters, so that, if any of you should at any time be unfortunate that they may be assisted by the others, and have a place to lay his head in time of need - these with many other reason induces me to leave all that little property, I possess in the hands of Joseph hoping when I am gone that he will act to you all as a father, and pay that attention to you all as a loving Brether, as he has always done during my life,

And as I am now no more, I am in hopes you will all conduct yourselves through life, in such a manner that you may be a credit to yourselves, and in the end be received into eternal happiness hereafter
