share of my real and leasehold estate, or the money or other property in lieu thereof, which may be chosen or received by virtue of the provisions contained in said twelfth clause, for the issue, devisees or legatees of such deceased son, shall be retained and held by my said trustees as a security for whatever may be due by such son on account of said loan to him, and may be sold by my said trustees for the purpose of paying said loan.

In case any of my executors in my said will named and appointed, shall at the period of my death be absent from the United States, and shall not return thereto within thirty days from my decease, I hereby appoint my son Henry R. Wilson, executor in the place of the one who shall be so absent, and shall not return within said time.

~~In case any of my executors in my said will named~~

In testimony whereof, I have hereto set my hand and affixed my seal this ninth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

James Wilson, (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by James Wilson, the above-named testator, as and for a codicil to his last will and testament, in the presence of us; who, at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto. Two erasures having first been made on this page, one in the tenth, and the other in the fifteenth line thereof.

J. H. McCulloh,
J. Thos. Smith.

Baltimore County, Ss:

On the 20th day of February, 1851, came Cecilius C. Jamison, James H. McCulloh and John Thomas Smith, the three sub-

-scribing witnesses to the aforegoing codicil to the last will and testament of James Wilson, late of said county, deceased, and Cecilius C. Jamison and John Thomas Smith made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, and James H. McCulloh solemnly declared and affirmed, that they did see the testator sign and seal this codicil; that they heard him publish, pronounce and declare the same to be a codicil to his last will and testament; that at the time of his so doing, he was, to the best of their apprehensions, of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding; and that they subscribed their names as witnesses to this codicil in his presence at his request, and in the presence of each other.
