that the Decree aforesaid, for that error and others, being in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed, annulled, and held entirely as void, and that he the said John Van Bibber may be restored to all things which he hath lost by occasion of the said Decree, and that the said Margaret A. Reese may rejoin to the errors aforesaid, and so forth; and thereupon it is ruled by the Court of Appeals here, that the said Margaret A. Reese join in the errors by the said John Van Bibber above assigned in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, or Decree by the Court of Appeals here will be rendered against her in default thereof; and the said Margaret A. Reese by her Attorneys aforesaid, says there is no error in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the Decree aforesaid, and she prays that the Court of Appeals here will proceed to the examination as well of the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, as of the matters aforesaid, by the said John Van Bibber above for error assigned, and that the said Decree may be in all things affirmed, and so forth; thereupon further process of and upon the premises, between the parties aforesaid is, by virtue of an Act of Assembly in such cases made and provided, continued before the Court of Appeals here, until the first Monday in October next; the same day is given to the said parties there, then to hear the Decree of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the said premises, and so forth.

And now at this day, to wit, the said first Monday in October, being the seventh day of the said month, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid by their attorneys aforesaid.

Whereupon, as well the Record and Proceedings aforesaid, and the Decree given in form aforesaid, as the matters aforesaid, by the said John Van Bibber above for error assigned, being seen, and by the Court of Appeals here, fully understood, and mature deliberation thereupon had, for that it appears to the Court of Appeals here, that there is no error in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the Decree aforesaid, given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and stand in full force and effect, the said causes for error above assigned and alleged in any wise, notwithstanding. And on the 18th day of December, 1889, the Court of Appeals of Maryland filed the following Decree to wit:

John Van Bibber.	Court of Appeals of Maryland
vs.
Margaret A. Reese.	October Term, 1889.

The Appeal in this case standing ready for hearing, was argued by Counsel for the respective parties, and the proceedings have since been considered by the Court.

It is thereupon, this eighteenth day of December, 1889, by the Court of Appeals of Maryland, and by the au-
