trust,) by other trustees to be appointed by this Court, and that your orators may have such other and further relief in the premises as their case may require.

May it please your Honor to grant unto your orators the writ of subpoena, to be directed to the said Nicholas Popplein, Nicholas Huppman and Margaret, his wife, and George Schull, all of the city of Baltimore, commanding them to be and appear in this Court to answer the premises, and abide by such decree as may be passed therein, &c.

Th. S. Alexander,
For Comps.

Complainants' Exhibit A.
(Filed 13th August, 1862.)

Andrew Popplein's Last Will and Testament.

Be it known, that I, Andrew Popplein, now in the city of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland, one of the United States of America, merchant, being in health, and of sound, disposing mind, memory and understanding, considering the certainty of death, and of the uncertainty of the time thereof, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:

I order and direct all my just debts, if any, and funeral expenses, to be fully satisfied and paid out of my estate.

In case my brother, Nicholas Popplein, should survive me, (but not otherwise) then I give, devise and bequeath all my estate of every kind and description, unto my said brother, Nicholas Popplein, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns. But if my said brother Nicholas shall depart this live before my decease, then I give, devise and bequeath all my estate to my nephew, George Popplein, his heirs, executors and administrators, in trust and confidence nevertheless, and to, for, and upon the uses, and to the ends, intents and purposes, and under and subject to the powers and limitations following, and none other, that is to say, in trust that he or they shall and will as soon as practicable, after my decease, convert the same into ready money, and invest the amount in stocks, or place the same out at interest, upon good security, as may be deemed by him or them most advisable and beneficial, and so on from time to time, as occasion may require, to change the investment, or sell the stocks, or any part thereof, and the proceeds thereof receive and reinvest as aforesaid. And as to four-tenths of the dividends, income and interest resulting from the stocks or funds in which my estate m y be invested, in trust to pay over the same, when and as received, to the following persons, and in the following proportions, namely; To Nicholas Huppman, George Huppman and Valentine Huppman, the sons of my sister, Elizabeth Huppman, each one-fourth part thereof, during their lives respectively; one-eighth part thereof to my niece Margaretta Schull (formerly Huppman,) and daughter of my said sister Elizabeth, during the term of the natural life of said Margaretta, for her sole and separate
