aforesaid, and the order given in form aforesaid, as the matters aforesaid, by the said Edward J. Roberts above for error assigned, being seen, and by the Court of Appeals here fully understood, and mature deliberation thereupon had, for that it appears to the Court of Appeals here, that there is no error in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the order aforesaid: Therefore it is considered by the Court of Appeals here, that the order aforesaid, given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and stand in full force and effect, the said causes for error above assigned, and alleged in any wise, notwithstanding. Afterwards to wit, on the twenty-fourth day of March 1891, the Court of Appeals filed the following order.

Edward J. Roberts vs. The Loyola Perpetual Building Association of Baltimore City.	Court of Appeals of Maryland. January Term, 1891.

The Appeal in this case standing ready for hearing, was argued by Counsel for the respective parties, and the proceedings have since been considered by the Court.

It is thereupon, this twenty-fourth day of March, 1891, by the Court of Appeals of Maryland, and by authority thereof, adjudged and ordered that the Order of the Circuit Court of Baltimore City, dated the second day of October, 1890, from which this appeal was taken, be and the same is hereby affirmed, with costs.
