

of them married, and some have left the Service and settled down into sober steady going business men, and heads of families. Apropos of getting married, I picked up a paper the other day, and noticed the marriages of one of our number who were at your house that winter. I'll wager you could not tell who it was, so I will save you the trouble of guessing, and tell you at once who it was: little "Colonel" Miles!! he married a very estimable young lady in Illinois I believe.
The Miss Surin, I do not know of more news now to entertain you with, I think
