OF TENNESSEE.

2. EDWIN H. WEBSTER, Harford.

AMERICAN POLICY.

"PLACE NONE BUT AMERICANS ON GUARD."

"Against the insiduous wiles of Foreign influence, I conjure you to believe me, Fellow-citizens, the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake; since history and experience prove, that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of Republican Government.— WASHINGTON'S FAREWELL ADDRESS.

"My opinion with respect to immigration is that except of useful mechanics and some particular descriptions of men and professions, there is no need of encouragement."—WASHINGTON.

"It does not accord with the policy of this government to bestow offices, civil or military, upon foreigners, to the exclusion our of own citizens."—WASHINGTON.

"The foundation of my preference is that MR. FILLMORE has administered the Executive Government with signal success and ability. He has been tried and found true, faithful, honest and conscientious."—HENRY CLAY.

"I hope we may find some means in future of shielding ourselves from Foreign Influence—political, commercial or in whatever form it may be attempted. I can scarcely withhold myself from joining in the wish with Silas Deane, that there were an ocean of fire between this and the old world."—JEFFERSON.

"Foreign influence to America, is like the Grecian Horse to Troy; it conceals an enemy in its heart. We cannot be too careful to exclude its entrance."—MADISON.

"Lord preserve our country from all foreign influence."—THE LAST PRAYER OF GEN. JACKSON.

"If there be those, North or South, who desire an administration for the North as against the South, or for the South as against the North, they are not the men who should gaire their suffrages to me. For my own part, I know only my country, my whole country, and nothing but my country"—MILLARD FILLMORE'S ADDRESS ON HIS LANDING AT NEW YORK.

APPOINTMENT.—We learn Mr. Spencer of Somerset county has received the appointment of Teacher in the Easton Academy.

By reason of a press of advertisements a number of editorials we had prepared, are consequently crowded out, and will be delayed till next issue.

THE AMERICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE. On the 2d inst., at a meeting of the above Committee Col. Richard Thomas was unanimously elected President.

MAGAZINES.—Godey's Lady's Book and Peterson's Magazine for October, are already on our table. They are replete with beautiful engravings, and rich, spicy and entertaining in their general reading matter.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We wish it understood that we will publish no communication unless accompanied by a responsible name Anonymous communications we cannot, in justice to ourself, insert.

BALTIMORE CITY COUNCIL.—The action of the Locofoco absentees from this Council, should merit the censure and condemnation of all upright and honorable men.—It should as it doubtless will, strike the democratic party a severe blow, and teach them that they cannot thus prevent the legal proceedings of the council with impunity.

"DIAMOND STATE."—This hitherto neutral sheet comes to us with the flag of Fillmore and Donelson floating at its head.—The editor says he cannot remain neutral in so important a crisis as this, and that all men who desire peace and tranquility and the success and perpetuity of this Union, should rally around the standard of Fillmore and Donelson. So we say.

DR. KANE.—We have received from Childs & Peterson, Publishers, 124 Arch st., Philadelphia, the Prospectus or specimen pages of Dr. Kane's forthcoming work.—The work will be comprised in two octavo volumes, of 500 pages each, containing 22 fine steel plates, and about 300 supurb wood engravings, also 4 maps, showing the important discoveries, &c. To the above is appended the report of the Hon. J. R. Tyson, M. C., on Dr. Kane's search after Sir. John Franklin. The whole work is a most excellent thing. The interest its prospectus presents at first view, should commend it to the attention and perusal of all who feel interested or curious to follow Dr. Kane in all his meanderings and wanderings in search of Sir John Franklin — The first edition will be published on the first of October. Send on your orders.

MISSOURI ELECTION.—Newland, the American candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Missouri, is elected over Jackson, the Anti-Benton Democratic candidate. This will demolish the scheme which the Anti Bentonites had concocted, to elect Gov. Polk to the national Senate, and allow Jackson to become Governor.

MAINE ELECTION.—This State has gone for the Republicans, they having elected the Hon. Hannibol Hamlin, the Democratic black republican candidate by a majority of 25,000. Vermont, Maine and Wisconsin have thus been lost to the democracy, showing conclusively the desperate weakness of their cause and numbers.

CALIFORNIA.—Ex-Governor Foote, formerly Democratic Governor and United States Senator from Mississippi, and the Hon. Bailie Peyton, late of Lousiana, have taken the stump in California for Fillmore and Donelson. The ability and superior fluency of speech of these distinguished accessions will do great service for Mr. Fillmore in the Golden State, and we shall have a tremendous majority there for the Union candidates, Fillmore and Donelson.

NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER.—We observe this reliable and high toned paper has decided to remain neutral for the present, in this Presidential canvass. The Intelligencer cannot support the Cincinnati platform. There is too much Fillibusterism and squatter sovereignty about it. It has battled nearly forty years against the democratic party, and cannot now think as the democracy had hoped, of countenancing it. We hope as the Whig Convention will soon decide for Fillmore and Donelson, to see it enlisted warmly in their favor.

BLACK REPUBLICANS—Pole Demolished.—On Tuesday last a number of negroes from Baltimore went on a pic-nic excursion on the Philadelphia road, near Herring Run. After the pic-nic was over they proceeded on their way back to Baltimore.—They were in wagons, and finding two Irishmen at work on the road immediately jumped upon them and commenced battle. They flogged them, shouted for Fremont, and demolished or cut down a Democratic pole near by. They were all subsequently arrested and lodged in jail.

THE friends of the Republican candidates in Baltimore have had a meeting and decided upon having an electoral ticket for this State. In this event we regard Mr. Fillmore's majority increased to about six thousand. Though a certain democratic elector declared the other day that Mr. Fremont would get fifty votes in this town.—Where he gets his authority for the assertion we cannot say—but we do say, we should deplore it, and that if there is no foundation for the assertion it certainly will recoil to the prejudice of the cause the elector advocates. We have heard of a number of democrats who say they had rather vote for Fremont than Mr. Fillmore, and doubtless were Mr. Buchanan withdrawn they would go heartily for Fremont. This is a specimen of Southern Democracy and constitutional loyalty.

TRAPPE, Sept. 6, 1856.

Pursuant to notice, the friends of Fillmore and Donelson met at the School Room at 3½ o'clock P. M., for the purpose of organizing a club. Charles H. Bowdle, Esq., was called to the Chair and C. R. Mullikin appointed Secretary.

On motion Messrs. G. W. Wright, Thos. J. Chaplain, Richard J. Lane, Edward J. Stevens, and Chas. W. Haddaway were appointed a committee to report permanent officers for the Club. The Committee retired and reported as follows:

John Baggs, President, C. R. Mullikin, Vice President; Josiah Higgins, Secretary.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That every voter present feels it a duty which he owes to his country to use every honorable means to secure the election of Fillmore and Donelson.

The Club then adjourned to meet on Saturday 13th inst. at 3 o'clock P. M. and regularly thereafter once in two weeks.

CHAS. H. BOWDLE, Pres't.
C. R. MULLIKIN. Sec'y.

MR. BUCHANAN HELD UP TO THE NORTH AS AN ABOLITIONIST.—The Providence Post is the great, if not the only democratic paper of Rhode Island, and like all the other journals of that party in the free States, it insists that Mr. Buchanan is an anti-slavery man. The following from a late number of that paper proves this clearly:—

"Mr. Buchanan never uttered a sentence in defence of slavery, or whispered a word in favor of its existence, or cast a vote which any honest man could construe into a wish to support the institution."

What is this but an effort to impose Mr. Buchanan upon the anti-slavery voters of the North as a free-soiler; and what is it but an ignoble shrinking from the task of pleading for the rights of the South?" But we dare say the Post is right in what it says, after all. We never heard of Mr. Buchanan's doing anything to commend him to the support of the slaveholding interest; and it was for this very reason that he was nominated over the heads of men who had done something for the South. The ultraists of the South have always been given to the practice of strengthening abolitionism, by showing ingratitude to their warmest friends at the North, and this accounts for their going against the noble, patriotic, and self-sacrificing Millard Fillmore. From all such friends as these ultraists, the South should pray for a speedy deliverance.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 9.

Frost in New York State.—There was a severe frost this morning in this vicinity.—On the 1st and 2d there was also frost near Attica. Extensive damage has been done to the crops in the valley of the Tonawanda. In some localities it is feared they have been entirely destroyed.

IMPORTANT POLITICAL DISCLOSURE.

COL. FREMONT OFFERED THE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION BY THE DEMOCRACY.

One of the most curious developments which has occurred at the commencement of a political campaign already crowded with startling eccentricities, is the statement recently made public by the Hon. Geo. C. Bates of California, and the truth of which is endorsed by the New York Times. It appears from this narrative that, late in September, 1855, the leading men of the Democratic party, North and South, had fixed their attention upon Fremont as their candidate for the Presidency, and overtures were made to him with a view to his assent to the nomination, by no less a person than Governor Floyd, of Virginia, but the negotiations were finally broken off, by reason of a difference of opinion upon the Missouri Compromise.

Those, however, who will read carefully the whole story, as appended to these introductory comments, will find that this apparently heroic rejection of a tempting proposal, was not quite of so magnanimous a character as it appears at the first glance. In their eagerness to serve Col. Fremont, his friends have unintentionally let us into the secret of his political continence. He was in treaty, at the time, with the party by whom he was subsequently nominated, and adroitly made use of the mission of Governor Floyd to bring that party to terms, for we learn that immediately on the withdrawal of the Virginia commission, a telegraphic despatch was sent to Mr. Banks and Senator Wilson, who at once hastened to New York, where they were closeted with the redoubtable Colonel, and did not leave him until the scheme of his nomination, by the Republicans, was perfected. All the preliminaries being satisfactorily arranged, the pathfinder unpacked his trunks—for it will be observed that, growing weary of delays, and, perhaps, hopeless of bringing the negotiation to a successful conclusion, he was in the act of starting off to revisit his auriferous domain of Mariposa—and quietly settled himself in New York, waiting, like the respectable gentleman delineated by Dickens—for "something to turn up." It was a bold game to play, but he managed his cards so cleverly that the knaves seemed to fall into his hands as if by instinct, and he could soon count trick for trick with the party whose nomination he had declined.

To a man of even ordinary sagacity it needed no exercise of profound thought to understand how slender the possibility of Mr. Fremont's nomination would have been had he suffered his name to go before the Cincinnati Convention as the competitor of Pierce, Douglas, and Buchanan, and with the weight of the Government on his side against him. As the Republican nominee, he had a clear field, and at least an equal chance of reaching the Presidency; while the mere fact of his name being brought before the Cincinnati Convention would have effectually precluded him from becoming the candidate of any other party. It is, therefore, clear that Col. Fremont not only sacrificed nothing by discountenancing the Democratic proposition, but that it put it was of advantage to him in a different way, as the sequel proves that he forthwith made use of this very opposition as a lever by which to bring the Republicans to terms.—The following are the disclosures to which we have referred:

Hon. Geo. C Bates, formerly Attorney-General of Michigan, but lately of San Francisco, made the following highly important statement in a public speech at Calamazoo, on Wednesday last. We invite for it the attention of all honest Democrats. We quote from the Detroit Tribune:

When he (Mr. Bates) was expected to sail for California, in August, 1855, he was persuaded by Mr. Palmer, of the firm of Palmer, Cook & Co. bankers, of San Francisco, to remain until October, when he and Col. Fremont would accompany him thither. Mr. Bates postponed his departure as desired. But when the time for departure arrived, Col. Fremont, although his trunks were packed, did not go, but ordered his baggages to the Metropolitan Hotel instead. This was in consequence of the following facts:

"Gov. Floyd, of Virginia, had just arrived in New York city for the special purpose of having an interview with Col. Fremont, and the result of that interview was an offer made to Col. Fremont by Floyd, in behalf of the Democratic party, he having advised with its leading men North and South, of the nomination for the Presidency. He said that party wanted a new man—a man of integrity and who had won distinction outside of politics. Col. Fremont, after listening patiently, and knowing the platform he was expected to stand upon, replied: that while deeply sensible of the high distinction of the proposition made him, and flattered by the promises it extended, yet with his opinion of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise it would be impossible for him to entertain the proposition. He considered that repeal an infamous breach of plighted faith and should never desist denouncing the act and its authors. Col Fremont planted himself impregnably on this position.

"Mr. Palmer, being cognizant of these facts, communicated them forthwith to Hon. N. P. Banks, and Hon. Henry Wilson of Massachusetts, and they came and saw Col. Fremont, and to state in brief the result of that interview, he consented to lead the hosts of freedom in this campaign if the people should call him to that position. All this happened in September, 1855, if we correctly recall Mr. Bates' statament. He gives times, names and places, and vouches for the entire accuracy of the above statement; and although it did not come to him with the injunction of secresy, he stated he would not have revealed it had the facts not already been partly disclosed in last Saturday's New York Herald. Any statement made by Mr. B. commands implicit reliance in this community, where he has been known for years, and is universally respected."

STEAMBOAT SUNK ON THE HUDSON.—New York, Sept. 1.—The steamer Knickerbocker, for Albany, ran against a spar, near Peekskill, this morning, and sunk in a few minutes. The passengers were all saved by a sloop. The vessel was valued at about $60,000.

There were twenty-two horses and a large number of sheep and other valuable freight lost by the sinking of the Knickerbocker. It is thought the boat can be raised.

CAPE ISLAND, N. J., Sept. 6.

Destruction of the Mt. Vernon Hotel—Five Persons Burned to Death—Only one Survivor of the Family of Philip Cain.—The mammoth Mount Vernon Hotel at this place, took fire last night at a quarter to 11 o'clock, and was entirely consumed. The other hotels escaped uninjured.

The origin of the fire is unknown. Mr. Cain, the lessee of the house, was residing in the building, and had retired previous to the alarm of fire. His son, Philip Cain, Jr., escaped from the building by leaping from the second story window, but got badly hurt.

With the exception of the son, the whole of Mr. Cain's family perished in the flames. The following is a list of them lost:—Philip Cain, Sr., the lessee, Andrew Cain, Martha Cain, Sarah Cain and Mrs. Albertson.

The charred remains of Mr. Cain, were found this morning.

BOSTON, Sept. 7.

Almost Another Dreadful Railroad Accident.—The passenger train on the Eastern Railroad, came near being wrecked on Friday evening, in consequence of the draw on the bridge at Charles River being left open without the usual light being displayed. The engineer fortunately saw the danger, but not until the train was within a few feet of the frightful chasm! A moment more, and the whole train would undoubtedly have been a mass of wreck and ruin.

PROVIDENCE, Sept. 9

Rhode Island Politics.—The Fillmore State Convention met at Newport to-day, and nominated an Electoral ticket.

A PATRIOTIC LADY.—The subjoined is an extract of a letter, written last week by a lady of Dauphin county, Pa., to a male relative in this city:

"Or does your pulse beat such quick time to the music of the Union, that your blood is in a fever heat, and you can only live in the exciting atmosphere of political strife.—Oh that we women had a voice in our country's weal, and could apply the united forces of our combined effort to the healing of the nation. How soon would the empty claims of Buchanan and Fremont vanish before the overwhelming might we would throw around Fillmore, and how quickly this distracted fever would subside into a quiet and dignity worthy of our great nation and noble chief."

CAN A JUROR BE ARRESTED?—In the Supreme Court, New York, last week, Justice Davis presiding, a decision was given as to the right to arrest a juror. A juror in the panel of the Supreme Circuit Court, it appears, was arrested by the Sheriff in a civil case. He was then taken on habeas corpus before Judge Davis, who decided that a juror cannot be arrested on a civil process during the existence of the panel on which he is serving.

SNOW IN GOLDSBORO', N. C.—On Sunday evening, about four o'clock in the afternoon when the Wilmington and Weldon cars passed through Goldsboro' the snow was falling quite as thickly and prettily as never fell in those parts during winter.—Our friends in Goldsboro' must have seen taken slightly by surprise, as the almanac gave them no manner of notice of the phenomena.

It is stated that the Colonization Society is to send out a large emigration company to Liberia in November.

To Nervous Sufferers.

A RETIRED CLERGYMAN, restored to health in a few days, after many years of great nervous suffering, is anxious to make known the means of cure.—Will send (free) the prescription used. Direct the Rev. JOHN M. DAGNALL, No. 59 Fulton street, Brooklyn, N. Y. [sep14-3m

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Possessed of these remedies every man is his own family physician. If his wife and children are troubled with eruptions, sores, tumors, white swellings, sore throat, asthma or any affection of the skin, glands or muscles, a persevering use of the Ointment is all that is necessary to produce a radical cure. If on the other hand, the internal organs are assailed by disease—whether it be located in the liver, the stomach or the intestines, he can eradicate it by administering the pills to the sufferer, under the guidance of the clear directions which accompany every box.

CARLYLE.—Friend Ayer:—In this age of quacks, charlatans and mere windy, gaseous pretenders to heal, who blow at every corner, and in the face and ears of all men, their loud, blaring Jericho trumpets and other noisy boisterous wind instruments of marvelously twisted brass, in such a woefully sham ridden epoch as this, I say, it is comforting, nay even cheering to the earnest well wisher of his race to know there has arrived in this world a genuine Physician—to light once more upon something besides mere Sangrados and Don Mercurial Jelaps, with their phlebotomies, poisons and warm water.

Your Cathartic Pills and Cherry Pectoral, carry us forward to Halcyon days—to millenial Pharmacopœias, when Science, deep living down into the principles of things, shall, with infinite, cunning, bring out the genuine Elix Vitae; for of a truth there is manifestly enough somewhat of that same Life Essence in your subtle vegetable distillations and compends.

You realize to us the visions of those painfulest, smoke-dried Alchymists—bootless seekers—dreamers among retorts and crucibles, touching the Quintessential hidden Virtue of the Universe, which should antidote distemper, and break for man the Wheel of Time.

County Commissioner's Notice.

COMPLAINT having been made to the Commissioners for Talbot county, that the Tanyard Bridge, near Easton, on the Centreville road was in a dilapidated condition, and needed rebuilding, and that the public road ought to be widened at said Bridge, the County Commissioners appointed Charles Robinson, Stephen C. Harrington and Samuel Tucker, Commissioners, to examine said bridge and report to the Board its condition; and also to condemn the land and assess the damages for widening the road.

The following is the report of the Commissioners:—

EASTON, Md., Sept. 2, 1856.

To the Hon. Commissioners of Talbot County:

Gentlemen—the undersigned, Commissioners appointed by your Honorable Body to examine the Tanyard Bridge, and to report the condition of the same, beg leave to report that, upon examination of said Bridge, they find that it is in a very dilapidated condition, so much so, that they look every day to see it give way. The mud sills, sleepers and sides are almost entirely rotten. It needs a new bridge entire, to be made of good white oak, and banistered, and the floor to be of two inch white oak plank, 18 feet long. We think the probable cost to be from $10 to $50. We also examined the side next to Mr. Graham's lot relative to opening a road for the convenience of marketers to water their horses in coming to market, which we think would be a great convenience.—We value the damages to Mr. Graham at $10, the Commissioners moving the fence and grading the road at their expense. Very respectfully,

CHARLES ROBINSON,
SAM'L. x TUCKER.
mark.

Test—Charles Robinson.

ORDERED, by the Board of Commissioners for Talbot County, that on Tuesday, the 16th of September inst., the contract for building the new Bridge recommended in the foregoing Report, be sold to the lowest responsible bidder, front of the Court house in Easton, at 3 o'clock, P. M., and notice thereof be given in the Easton papers. The bridge to be built immediately, of the kind of material recommended in the above report, and to be done in a suitable manner. The purchaser will be required to find the materials and build the said Bridge, set back the fence so as to give a good cart road between the Bridge and Mr. Graham's land, and to grade the road at the Bridge and over the stream so as to put it in good condition to be travelled. By order of the Board,
