

landed about three thousand Artillery and Infantry, on the beach through the Surf; and then had a fierce engagement with the enemy (?) after a gallant and obstinate resistance on their part, we overcame them, and marched on the town, which we took without a struggle, with all the beauty and booty therein contained.

We then had a grand Drum Parade, and afterwards marched down through the streets of the town, and passed in review before our Commander-in-Chief and a large and brilliant staff. This was the pleasantest part of the entire program, for we met all the wealth and beauty of N. H. there to reward us for our efforts, by their choicest
