

La Moille Ill.

Dec 28th 1875.

My dear Miss Sands

You will no doubt wonder at the liberty I take in addressing you, but necessity compels, therefore I hope you will excuse me.

I wish to ask a favor of you, it is this can you give me any information as to the whereabouts of Mid^r Frank Guertin, he is my lawful husband, having married me in La Crosse July 8th 1874
