AMERICAN NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
THOMAS HOLLIDAY HICKS,
OF DORCHESTER.

FOR COMPTROLLER,
WILLIAM H. PURNELL,
OF WORCESTER.

FOR COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES,
DANIEL H. McPHAIL,
OF BALTIMORE.

FOR COMMISSIONER OF LAND OFFICE,
WILLIAM L. W. SEABROOK,
OF FREDERICK.

FOR CONGRESS, 1st DISTRICT,
TEAGLE TOWNSEND.
OF WORCESTER.

THE Star, as usual, just before election, is getting wonderfully interested about the welfare of the people and institutions of Maryland. The same cry of know-nothingism, the Baltimore Clipper and abolitionism, all mixed together, was gotten up last fall to lessen the vote of Mr. Fillmore that is being tried to be got up against Mr. Hicks this fall, but a large majority of the people thought it better to follow the dictates of their own conscience than of others, which will be done again—as will be shown by the counting of votes after the closing of the polls on the 4th of November. Intelligence from every quarter of the State is of the most flattering character to the standard barrer of the American party. He has been hailed with greetings wherever he has been during the campaign, and so it will continue, there is no doubt, until he takes charge of the helm of State. Mr. Hick's opponent, Mr. Groome, declared in his speech in Easton, that if Mr. Hicks was elected it would be by "fraud, riot and bloodshed, and that he would not have sufficient moral courage to refuse the pardon of such as may be convicted for the violation of the law, should they make their appeals to him." This bold assertion will not deter the people from voting for Mr. Hicks, for he is too well known to be turned down by such assertions, though his opponent may be blessed with a greater abundance of the good things of the land and lives in a more aristocratic style. Mr. Hicks is well known throughout the State to be a plain, practical, (and as we heard a democrat say the other day) an "every-day" man—a man calculated to do justice to all. Mr. Groome appears very anxious to be Governor, and his very actions showed that it would be a great pleasure to him to have control of the affairs of State for the next four years, but he had as well keep cool, in fact he ought to be more calm and not get excited on the Governor question, when there is not the least chance of his election.

It may dance before him day and night that he will be the next Governor, but he is losing his rest for nought, and never can get nearer the Governor's seat than he now is, unless he pays Mr. Hicks a visit after election.

Another great wonder of the Star is that people in this section should encourge such a paper as the Baltimore Clipper. Those who take the Clipper, it is supposed, know what it contains and can judge for themselves. People of all classes take it, slave holders and those who do not own slaves, and all, it is supposed, capable of judging which is right and which is wrong. The Star abhors the Clipper on account of its alleged abolition principles, and for the same reason abhors and loathes the principles of the American party, and invariably resorts to this means of electioneering when run out of all other, knowing at the same time, the American party is as pure as any other. If what a paper contains is sufficient to judge of the principles of its proprietors, and which it should be, what could the people in Talbot and elsewhere have thought a few months ago, when they read in the Easton Star, the account of John D. Long's book, entitled the "Pictures of Slavery in Church and State," &c. It will be recollected that this very particular and cautious editor, after denouncing Mr. Long's course, says: "For the sake of his interesting family we wish Mr. Long success in his speculation," &c. How does this sound in Talbot? This book of Mr. Long's is entirely destitute of truth and honesty, and proving the author to be one of the greatest hypocrite of the age and perfectly crazed upon the negro question, to be wished success by one who is continually boasting of his soundnes, looks very fishy. Satan reproving sin will never have any effect. This should act as a stopcock to the Star in constantly crying out "the Baltimore Clipper, Know Nothingism and Republicanism in Maryland." The editor should pick the beam out of his own eye and then help his brother.

TO CANDIDATES.—As the time is fast approaching for the printing of Election Tickets, we would say to the Independent candidates who desire to be placed upon the ticket, they will please hand in their names. As the printing of tickets is attended with considerable expense and trouble, and to save time in collecting, we are compelled to adopt the same system most of the papers throughout the State have adopted: PRE-PAYMENT. Your name accompanyed by the money will be promptly attended to. County candidates, including announcement cards and printing tickets, $5,00. District candidates, including same $2,50. Send them in as soon as possible.

TO PROVE which is in error, the note at the bottom of Messrs. Ray and Stichberry's cards in Saturday's Gazette, or the Star of Tuesday last, we would ask the editor of that paper, and expect an answer, if his newspaper form has been made up and his paper ready to go to press by 5 o'clock, twice, in the past two months? Or whether on the evening alluded to his paper was at press at 8, or even 9 o'clock. This matter concerns us but little, but we like to see persons, when charging others of falsehoods, clear of the same offence.

Monument Square, says the Baltimore Patriot, presented a grand and imposing appearance on Monday evening last on the occasion of the American mass meeting.—The speeches were in good taste and most enthusiastically received; the immense crowd were orderly and decorous in an eminent degree; the cheers which went up as club after club arrived on the ground with their transparencies, &c., were of the most enthusiastic description, and on the whole everything that occurred bote the impress of victory in the coming contest.

THE AMERICAN FARMER.—The American Farmer for October is on our table.—As usual, its contents are of a highly interesting nature, and cannot fail to prove beneficial to the agricultural portion of the community. Every farmer in the land should be enrolled as a subscriber to the Farmer, and our word for it they would be a hundred fold the gainers thereby.

AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST.—The October number of this periodical is on our table. It contains its usual quantity of highly interesting and edifying agricultural matter. Price $1.00 per annum in advance.—Address Orange Judd, No. 191 Water street, New York city.

WITHDRAWAL.—We are authorized, says the States' Rights Advocate, to withdraw the card of John B. Thomas, Esq., "To the Voters of Queen Ann's County," and to announce that he is no longer a candidate for the office of Clerk to the Circuit Court for that County.

STEAM MILL.—Mr. John H. Tunis' steam mill is now in full operation, and to which his entire attention will be given. Mr. Tunis requires but one eighth as toll, and not one sixth as some have supposed. See advertisement.

SALE OF PROPERTY.—The Foundry lot on West street, was sold at public sale on Tuesday last, for the sum of $645—purchased by the Gas Company. We understand the Company expect to commence putting up their apparatus in a few days.

The democracy of Cumberland, Maryland, called a meeting a few nights since at a hotel in that place for the purpose of organizing the German wing of the party, but when the time for meeting arrived not a man was present.

THE American Convention of Anne Arundel county have nominated Nicholas Brewer, Esq., for the Clerk-ship of the Circuit Court, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the declension of William H. McPatlin, Esq.

THANKSGIVING.—The Governor and Council of New Hampshire have appointed Thursday, Nov. 26th, for Thanksgiving Day in that State. This is the first of the season.

THE old Spanish coin which had been repudiated by the merchants of Middletown, Md., is taken again at full value. So also at Hanover, Pa.

The Hon. Lewis Cass, Jr., has, says the Detroit Daily Advertiser, positively resigned his position as United States Minister at Rome, to take effect at an early day.

DEATH OF A RACE-HORSE.—Balie Peyton, a celebrated race-horse, who was sold four years ago for $9,000 died on the farm of W. C. Scott, his owner, in Powhatan county, Va., last week.

On Wednesday morning, of last week, there was a light fall of snow near Cranberry Summit, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

Counterfeit halves and quarters are in circulation at Elkton. The Democrat says they are well calculated to deceive.

[COMMUNICATED.]

TO THE TAX-PAYERS OF TALBOT COUNTY.

I am well aware that the Editor of the Star does not desire to prolong the controversy with me in reference to the "so called" for taxation which the Commissioners have recently inflicted upon you. He feels and justly too, that the shoe pinches, the force of the matter, and endeavors to divert your attention from its consideration, not only by ridicule, but by characterizing it as a small matter and devoid of all importance. But I am satisfied that you as thinking men deem it a matter of some moment, and a matter which should not be passed over in silence and without mature reflection.

The editor of the Star, when presumed to speak the sentiments of the Commissioners, boldly states that "it has been conceded on all hands that the salary which Mr. Jump received was too small." Who concedes that the salary was too small? Can the parties on all hands be pointed out? if so let me hear their names, and you shall know who they are. But this declaration, alike many others known to the Editor of the Star, was made rashly and without reflecting upon the consequences of the erroneous statement. If Mr. Jump was satisfied to collect the taxes at a salary of $800 and thereby make a handsome support and more, who has the right to complain or say ought to the contrary? Have you said that Mr. Jump could not collect the taxes for that salary? No, the records speak for themselves. The fact is apparent and should weigh heavily in your minds in the formation of your verdict upon the proceeding.

But again, who first adopted and fixed the salary of the collector at $800? Was it not done in 1852 by a democratic Board of Commissioners? Aye, yes; and the fact now stares them broadly in the face. And if the Editor of the Star now condemns the salary of $800 as too small, he also must condemn the Board, who in 1852 set and adopted the precedent. And likewise the present Board has condemned that policy in their reappointing Mr. Harrison at a salary of $1000.

A good deal is said and a great flourish is made over what the Star is pleased to term the "grinding system" of Mr. Jump. He has been held up as the most tyrannical and despotic of men, and all for the simple performance of his duty. Of this no one will murmur, save one, who manages his own concerns so loosely and cares so little about the protection of the public interest as the Editor of the Star. But Mr. Jump's course while in office is familiar to you all, and nothing which I could say, would elevate him higher in the estimation of his fellow citizens. The "grinding system," of which the Editor of the Star so emphatically speaks, and the titles to the lands which have been lost, have been caused by the order of the Commissioners, who were then in power, and if the present Board endorses the sentiments of their organ, they condemn their own act and order which authorized Mr. Jump to sell the property.—But the sale of the property of individuals was the last resort of Mr. Jump. He managed in nearly all cases to collect the taxes without resorting to such stringent measures. I can say, and that very justly, that the promptness and fidelity of Mr. Jump was a benefit to all parties, whether rich or poor, for then he was always able to say their orders and levies upon the county.—The money thus received of him circulated freely in the county, and was a great benefit and advantage to all of you. Seldom could one of you go to him without receiving the cash for your order or levy, as the case might be. How is it now? I leave you, gentlemen, to judge.

I can construe the remarks of the Editor of the Star, and you must take them as the views of his party, to mean nothing else than an advocacy of a looseness in the collection of the taxes and a squandering or waste of the public money to the public detriment. He said nothing in reference to his own salary and does not even deign to explain why it was increased. I think you, as tax-payers of the county, have the right to know. I shall hold up the proceeding to you, regardless of his taunts and sneers, (and though I fight behind the scene, yet I am a responsible man,) as as an outrage upon the county, and one which should merit the censure of every tax-payer in the county. I want you as guardians and conservators of the interests of the county, in placing the right men in power, to examine well the issue presented and decide whether you will adopt the policy of the present Board of Commissioners and thereby endorse a looseness in the collection of the taxes, the non-payment of the orders and levies upon the county, when the money might be freely circulated amongst us—or whether you will endorse the opposite of this policy? You have the power to settle the question. Ye poor men of the county, will you not have a reform, such as will give you the money for your orders whenever called for? Elect the democratic Board of Commissioners and you endorse what you are now fighting against, and besides, have no guarantee they will not raise the Collector's salary $2000. Pause and reflect upon it. You must see the danger.—Then declare yourselves free and Independent men, and oppose this species of taxation.

A BROTHER TAX-PAYER.

EASTON, Oct. 6.

OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT.—As Mr. Finley Johnson, in company with several gentlemen, were returning from the President street depot, on Sunday evening about 6 o'clock, they were attacked upon the bridge at Canton avenue, without any provocation whatever, except that one of the party recognized Mr. Johnson as the Secretary of the Swann Club, and immediately they cried out, "d—n him, let's kill him," and before that gentleman could ward off the blow, he was knocked down and severely bruised with a billet of wood. The party attacking them are known.—Clipper of Tuesday.

A MOB IN HENDERSON, KY.—The quiet of Henderson was disturbed on last Friday night by a mob of young men, assembled to duck a young man by the name of Hays, who had maltreated his wife. Mrs. Hays, a milliner, living in Henderson, had left for Cincinnatti to purchase goods. Her husband, a worthless fellow, endeavored to dispose of her property in her absence. The gallant young men of Henderson gave him a ducking for his meanness, and exacted a promise from him to leave the place, never to return.

As the following card, of Mr. Isaac W. Jump, had a typographical error in it as published last week we think it due to Mr. Jump to put it in proper form and republish it.—The blunder was caused by accidentally transposing three or four lines when correcting our form:

MR. EDITOR:—The last Star has an article in reply to "A Brother Tax Payer," which I deem necessary to notice; though very equivocal, it is intended to deny that I applied for the Office of Collector at a salary of eight hundred dollars.

I will briefly give the facts in the case and leave the people to judge whether or not I applied. I was informed, on the day of appointment by one of the Board of Commissioners, that there was no applicant for the office of Collector, and I observed that "I should have to apply."

I went to their room on the same day, and applied in person to the board at $800—and, on the same day, and before the appointment was made, I had a conversation with one of the Commissioners, and stated at each time, that I would collect the taxes for $800.

It is true that I did not make a written application, but I am quite sure that no language which I could put upon paper, would have made my application better understood.

I do not deem it necessary to detail all the conversation, but I certainly told the Board of Commissioners that "I might always be considered an applicant for the Collector of the Taxes at $800, so long as my health would permit me to attend to the business," and I have said the same thing publicly upon the street upon many occasions to a number of persons of both parties.

ISAAC W. JUMP.

BALTIMORE Oct. 5, 1857.

Politics—Cattle Show—Business, &c.

The campaign in this city is now fully opened, and the success of the entire American ticket is conceded by everybody by very large majorities. The locofocos are pretending to whistle to keep their courage up, but its no use. They will make no serious opposition to the American ticket, and the fact is they do not intend to place a ticket in the field at all. They are trying to induce a few renegade Americans to run as independent candidates, but their opposition will amount to nothing. The whole American ticket will be triumphantly elected, and Gov. Hicks' majority will be thousands. Our city is now, as it generally is, very quiet from any thing like disorder or riot, and good order and good government is observable from one end of the city to the other. Our worthy Mayor and Chief Marshal of Police are always on the alert to check any breach of the peace, and their efficiency is acknowledged on all hands. The locofocos have now nothing left to growl at in the American party, so they have commenced a Kilkenny-cat war and general war among themselves, and by the election day there will be nothing left of them, not even their tails.

Great and extensive preparations have been made by the managers for the holding of the coming cattle show, and it promises to be the best that has ever been held in this State. The display of stock, machinery &c., promises to be very extensive and varied, and the attendance of people will no doubt exceed that of previous years. Your county, no doubt, will be well represented.

Our merchants and business men have large stocks of goods &c. on hand to supply the wants of the people, and they will no doubt drive a good business.

Yours, &c. J.

ROBBERY IN THE HARBOR.—About one o'clock on Saturday morning a row boat, containing two men, was seen approaching the schooner Hornet, Capt. Clark, and from their motions and actions it was evident that they intended no good. Upon making fast to the vessel they proceeded on deck and took therefrom four bushels of wheat, which was all they could find upon deck without venturing below. They next proceeded to board the schooner G. P. Upshur, Capt. Howarth, lying near by, and helped themselves to some eighteen bushels of wheat. The vessels were lying at the time at the lower end of Smith's dock. They were first discovered by the miller of Mr. Warden's mill, situated upon the same dock and had his attention directed to them by the peculiarity of their movements before entering the row boats. After getting under way he proceeded to watch them, and when fully satisfied of their intentions he gave the alarm, and in connection with the captains of the two schooners and officers Henry and Sullivan, they were pursued, but could not be captured although the officers fired several shots at them. The party landed at the wharf of the Maltby oyster house, and made good their escape. The officers took possession of the row boat, and found there twenty-two bushels of wheat. The officers were upon their track on Saturday afternoon, with a good prospect of capturing the rogues.—Baltimore Clipper, of 5th inst.

OUTRAGEOUS ATTEMPT TO KILL.—On Sunday evening last, between 7 and 8 o'clock as several young men were conversing socially on the corner of Pine street and Pin alley, the notorious Archibald McAleese, and several others of the New Market locofoco party, among whom were Isaac Jones and Henry Ball, came up to them, when McAleese with a swagger and flourish of his pistol said "I want to find a d—d Know Nothing." He then placed his pistol in the face of a young man named Geo. S. Stewart, when the latter raised his arm and knocked it upwards, when it was discharged and one of the balls struck the side of his head near the temple and glanced upwards, fortunately doing no other damage than laying bare the scalp. A young man named George Ereke, standing by his side, received two balls through the brim of his hat. Warrants were yesterday issued for their arrest, and last evening Isaac Jones was brought in by officer Bailey, and held to bail in $500 for a further hearing by Justice Bixler. McAleese and Ball are still at large.—Ib.

Arrest of a Bank Cashier.

HERKIMER, Oct. 2.—Harvey Doolittle, late Cashier of the Agricultural Bank of Herkimer, was to-day arrested by deputy sheriff Willson on three several warrants issued by Judge Earl. He was held to bail as follows: for embezzlement $10,000; for perjury, $10,000; for misdemeanor, $1,000.

Arrival of Three Vessels Rescued from the Wreck of the Central America.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The Bark Bremen arrived here this morning with J. Tice, Second Engineer, Alexander Grant, Fireman, and G. W. Dawson, a passenger of the Central America having been rescued by the British Brig Mary from Gardenas for Queenstown and transferred to the Bremen.

[SECOND DESPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Mr. Tice states that after the Central America went down he drifted on a plank for 72 hours. On the fourth morning he drifted by a boat and succeeded in getting into her, and on the fifth day he picked up Mr. Grant who had then been five days on a portion of the hurricane deck of the steamer.

Mr. Grant having swam to the boat the two then pulled for the hurricane deck and took from it Mr. Dawson, the passenger.—There had been twelve men on it, all of whom one by one died and fell into the sea.

Mr. Tice, Mr. Grant and Mr. Dawson were eight days without water or provisions the sea most of the time making a complete breach over them. The second day after the steamer went down they saw a number of passengers on pieces of the wreck, but could not assist them. The rescued are in a sad condition; being badly bruised and covered with boils.

Loss of a Whaling Bark.

BOSTON, Oct, 1.—Whaling advices from the Ochotsk Sea report the loss of the bark Newton, of New Bedford, which was stove in by the ice. There are no particulars.—She was owned by Jonathan Bourne, of New Bedford, and insured for $29,000.

HARDWARE ESTABLISHMENT.

Among the leading commercial interests of Baltimore the Hardware business has a prominence and importance inferior to none. That city, indeed has long, by direct importation sustained this department of trade, upon an equality with its position in any other commercial mart. In connection with this primary fact we take pleasure in naming the house of MR. E. M. BOSLEY, No. 4 LIGHT STREET WHARF, who has by long experience, business sagacity and zeal, established a highly successful and reliable enterprise. As an importer to a large extent he is enabled to supply the wholesale demand in all its variety, while from a well selected stock of fine and common goods, he offers to the public a choice which cannot fail to please the most fastidious.

Mr. Bosley's place of business on Light street wharf is not only within the scope of the Southern and Western trade, but exceedingly convenient to all persons, dealers, farmers and others visiting the city from the bay. While facilities of shipment by steamer or rail are at his very door. As a man of energy and enterprise, Mr. Bosley cannot fail to command success, and it is only in our appreciation of these quanties that we direct attention to this establishment.
