TALBOT ELECTION.—The election passed off very quietly in Easton on Wednesday last—not a single fight occurred near the polls during the whole day.—Though there is much over which we may lament, there is much over which we can rejoice. The Independent ticket did wonders in cutting down the democratic majority in this county. Although we have saved but one, the Clerk, there is room to exult. The Independent ticket has been dreadfully abused, and a portion of it miserably misrepresented. It will be seen by the following, the result in the county:

ELECTIONS.

NEW YORK.—The result of the election in this State is very close and doubtful, and cannot be determined until returns are received from the western counties.

LOUISIANNA.—Four members of Congress, members of the State Legislature and various State officers were elected. The American ticket is successful by a considerable majority.

CAROLINE ALL RIGHT.—Caroline county has gone beyond all expectation.—She has done the clean thing—electing the whole American ticket.

Queen Anne's has not done quite so well—electing the whole democratic ticket excepting the Senator.

AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST.—We have received the November number of this very neatly printed and highly interesting Agricultural work. Besides the splendid work, one year for one dollar, you will receive three packets of valuable seeds. We have numbers of extracts from newspapers in praise of this valuable book, but have not room for them.

LOSS BY FIRE.—We understand that Mr. William Hammond, residing near Centreville, had his granary and stables destroyed by fire on Monday morning. All his wheat, corn and blades were consumed.—His loss is supposed to be about $500. We have not heard the origin of the fire, says the Centreville, State's Right Advocate.

THERE is a rumor current that the United States Ministers to France and Spain, Messrs. Mason and Dodge, have signified their intention to resign their respective posts, and return home in the Spring.

THE REVOLUTION IN SAN DOMINGO.—We have news from Port-au-Prince to the 9th inst. The revolution in San Domingo was nearly at an end. General Santanna entered Santiago amidst the loudest acclaim. General Baez was still in San Domingo in fact a prisoner. The Haytien army had returned from the frontier without firing a shot. Business at Fort-au-Prince and the other Haytien ports was daily improving.

WHERE THE GOLD GOES.—The Georgia Constitutionalist says that the cook of one of the citizens of Augusta, on opening the gizzard of a deceased Shanghai, found a piece of gold of the value of five dollars.—This is the fastest joke of the season.

10,000 GUNS FOR HICKS
IN BALTIMORE.

The day for the contest has passed—and Americanism is still predominent in Maryland. Notwithstanding the great effort made by the democratic party, from its smallest politician to the highest in power, to put down Americanism in Maryland, it still lifts its head high above its foes. The democracy said they only asked for a fair vote in Baltimore, to come out triumphant; it appears from the accounts of the election in the Baltimore papers that the best of order prevailed throughout the day—save a few personal difficulties; though of no worse a nature than attends elections in almost every city. Mayor Swann was prompt in suppressing every sort of disturbance—and acting with impartiality to all. But what is the result?—from 10,000 to 11,000 majority for Hick. Does this show that democracy has the least foot hold in Baltimore? The more quiet the lection the greater the American majority. The American says up to the hour of going to press, according to the incomplete returns received, Hicks had a majority of 9617. In the various wards there were about 2,000 split tickets, not counted, which will make Hick's majority between ten and eleven thousand.

The American representatives from the third and fourth districts, are elected by large majorities.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE is at hand, and contains its usual quantity of interesting reading matter, with splendid engravings, fashion plates, &c. This popular Lady's Magazine will be greatly improved for 1858, Mrs. ANN S. STEPHENS, Mrs. E. D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH, and all the best writers, will contribute regularly. Its Fashions are always the latest and prettiest; its steel Engravings magnificent; its Patterns for the Work-Table, its Household Receipts &c., almost countless. The price is but Two Dollars a year, or a dollar less than Magazines of its class. It is the Magazine for the times To Clubs it is cheaper still; viz: three copies for $5, or eight for $10; with a splendid premium to the person getting up the Club. Specimens sent gratis. Address Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

RICHMOND FAIR.—According to the announcement of the awards at the Richmond Fair in the Dispatch of that city, it seems that Capt. Strandberg, of Maryland, carried off the first premium for his bull "Purser" and his cow "Dairy Maid."

ILL.—We understand Hon. Judge Hopper lies extremely ill, at his residence, in Queen Anne's county.

For the Gazette.

WYANDOTTE CORN.

MR. EDITOR; Having seen some time since an account published in the Gazette of the wonderful yield of the Wyandotte Corn, I was disposed to pass it by as a humbug, but facts have compelled me to change my mind. I obtained last spring, through a friend, a small quantity of this corn, introduced in this State by Geo. S. Bandel., Esq., of Baltimore. To prevent its mixing with my other corn I had to plant it in a lot of inferior land, which this year, would not have grown more than two barrels to the thousand of my yellow corn. I planted it on the 9th of May, 4 by 5 feet; it came up tolerably well, but was much injured by the webb-worm. When from 8 to 12 inches high it began to put out branches, 3 to 8, to a hill, (many of which was cut off by the grubb-worm,) which grew, presenting the appearace of being from seperate grains, forming brace-roots to each stalk or branch which silked and tassled the same as the main stalk.

In the above described land I have from 3 to 5 stalks, with three to eight ears to a hill, 7 to 12 inches long, 8 to 14 rows of grains, large and well filled, all from one grain. I would recommend this corn for I am convinced it the same number of stalks of other corn known to me had been left in a hill there would have been nothing but nubbins; when if planted in rich land the yield would be double and tribble and the quantity of fodder immense It has been urged as an object that it will blow down but mine stands up as well as my other corn. I have let it cure with the blades on it to make it perfect for seed, as many have spoken for that purpose and I shall make arrangements to supply all who may wish it, as far as it will go, the supply being limited. Respectfully, &c.,

J. G. LEONARD.

Bay Hundred, Oct., 1857.

WE clip the following from the Baltimore American, which speaks volumes for Mayor Swann.

THE ELECTION YESTERDAY.—The election in this city yesterday was neither so orderly, quiet or impartial as we had hoped it would have proved: yet it exhibited so large a degree of these qualities, in view of the antecedent excitement and the fears of general riot and bloodshed which were entertained, that we think it a matter of congratulation that so much, in the face of circumstances so adverse was accomplished. At some of the polls disorder prevailed, and from many complaints were made that naturalised citizens were not permitted to vote. There was, however, no extensive or general rioting, the disorder being confined to individual fights and to occasional skirmishes between rival factions.—It is greatly to be regretted that even these should have occurred, or that any portion of legal voters, anxious to excersise their rights, should have been excluded from the polls.

The Mayor was prompt, determined, and impartial in giving to his arrangements for the preservation of the peace all possible efficiency. Every complaint to him was responded to by the adoption of such means as seemed best suited to the emergency.—Parties of police were sent as required to different wards, and their influence used in restoring order and protecting voters. Still there was much disorder which no police vigilance or exertions could check.

SCALPING A WOMAN ON THE PLAINS.—Some weeks ago news from Carson Valley was published which told of the almost total destruction of an emigrant train by the Indians. A woman, who was on one of the trains, was scalped and left for dead. It turned out, however, that she was not dead, and she has since recovered to tell the extraordinary story of her sufferings and her resolute endurance, which deceived the savages. The Red Bluff's Beacon of the 16th of september thus tells the story:

An instance of the most remarkable fortitude and heart-rending cruelty we ever heard of is related to us by a black man by the name of Scott, who has recently arrived here from Missouri by the way of the Plains. He informs us that a short time before he arrived at Stony Point, on the Humboldt River, the Indians attacked a train of six men, one woman and a child.—The men were all killed but one, who made his escape. The child was also killed, and its mother shot in several places with arrows, scalped and left for dead,

All the while they were scalping her and stripping the clothes from her body she was perfectly conscious of what they were doing, but feigned death, and let them tear the skin from her head without even giving signs of life, knowing that if she did, they would either dispatch her at once or take her into hopeless captivity. At one time, when they had left her for a moment, she ventured to change her position, in order, if possible, to relieve herself from the uncomfortable posture in which she was lying; but on returning they soon discovered that she had moved; and, for fear that life might not be extinct, they took hold of the arrows that were sticking in her body, and worked them about in her wounds, and pushed them deeper into her flesh, and stamped upon her with their heels.

All this she endured without uttering a groan or drawing a breath that could be perceived by the savages; and in that condition she was left as food for the wolves Fortunately, however, a train came along before she had lain long in that condition, and dressed her wounds and brought her along with them; and not the least remarkable fact attending the whole matter is that she is fast recovering from her wounds. Her head, we are told, is nearly well, and the arrow wounds doing better than any one expected

HARD TIMES IN THE WEST.—Threatened Famine.—We have already mentioned that much suffering prevails in Stearns county, Minnesota, in consequence of the destruction of the crops by grasshoppers.—The Chicago Journal says:

A committee from Stearns county, headed by Mr. Teenvoord, late member of the constitutional convention, were in St. Paul on the 20th inst., to solicit contributions for the relief of persons in that county who are on the verge of starvation. For the past two years the crops in Stearns have been totally destroyed by the grasshoppers.—There is not a bushel of wheat or oats in the county, raised within its borders. Farmers but two years since comparatively wealthy are now suffering from a want of necessaries of life. Over two thousand people, it is estimated, will require aid.

There is suffering and a prospective famine among the lumbermen of the Wisconsin lumber region. We have advices from there up to the 19th ult., and hundreds of poor men had beed discharged without a moment's warning, and some with neither a cent in the pocket nor scarcely any food in the house.

The mills from Green Bay to Menomonee were all shut down without one moment's warning; some of the men were paid off with notes at sixty and ninety days. others with due bills. There is not a barrel of pork, flour or anything for the inner man, and not twenty dollars in money in the whole region. Men who are not able to walk are going to Green Bay, leaving their wives and children here with not 3 days' provisions before them. Jobbers are leaving the woods for want of pork and flour for their help.

Of the pressure at Chicago the Tribune says:

A number of landlords, in view of the falling off in business of their tenants, and the financial bearing upon the trading and producing classes, have voluntarily reduced their rents, some of them one third.—Vacant rooms and stores can now be had from 25 to 50 per cent. cheaper than was asked six months ago. One instance came under observation this week, of a store room in a fine block located on South Water street. being rented for $1,000, for which the owner demanded $4,500 last spring.

WESTERN HOG TRADE.—The Indianapolis (Ind,) Journal of Saturday, says:

Dealers in pork are offering $4 50 for hogs deliverable in season on time, or $4,00 cash. Unless the money market improves the cash transactions in hogs will be very limited here and in many other places.

The dealers in Madison have made arrangements for about 25,000 head of hogs at an average of $6 30 per 100 lbs., on which the buyers have already advanced the large sum of $330,000, and of this amount not more than $25,000 has been borrowed from the banks—the rest of it has been derived from the "cash capital of the solid men of the place." Whatever may be the condition of the market the Madison Courier thinks the dealers will be able to stand it without asking favors from abroad.

The Evansville Journal says:

We have seen letters from New Orleans and from New York, expressing the opinion that no purchases of hogs should be at rates above 3¼a4 cents. Some dealers think it unsafe to go above 3 cents.

The Delphi Journal states that a beef packing establishment in that place has commenced slaughtering, and will probably pack about 3,000 head this season.

A STEAMBOAT NEWSPAPER.—Among other innovations which the mammoth steamer Great Eastern is about to inaugurate, will be the publication of a daily paper on board for the benefit of the travelling public—the regular "public" of travellers—whom she may be bearing across the ocean. But this starthing feature is anticipated on the western waters of the New World, for the New Orleans and St. Louis packet steamer James E. Woodruff now sails equipped with the force and material for the publication of a regular daily paper on board during her trips up and down the river, with a job office attached for the printing of bills of fare and other work.

SAD RESULT OF CRUEL PUNISHMENT.—The following is taken from the Louisville Journal:

"Some three or four years ago, the son of the warden of a prisoner in a neighboring State—a bright, intelligent, handsome boy, of seventeen—was detected by his father in the commission of an offence.—The father arraigned his child. stripped him of his ordinary clothing, shaved his hair from his head and dressed him in the striped garb of a convict, confined him within the walls of the penitentiary—there to remain until the unnatural parent should see fit to release him. For weeks the boy, unable to help himself, underwent the rigid discipline of the prison and performed the duties assigned to the convicts, the most humiliating and degrading of which was to appear in the public thoroughfares of his native town and assist with a team engaged in hauling. Citizens shook their heads and public execration towards the warden became so strong and decided that he was compelled at once to restore his son to liberty, and he came very near being turned out of his office.

As soon as released, the dishonored boy, boken in pride and spirit, fled from his home, and nothing was heard from him until at length he turned up in the California courts, accused of burglary. He was acquitted, and about a year since returned to the Atlantic States—going from one to another of the large cities, and plunging into every species of dissipation and vice. A few months since he was arrested in one of our principal cities for arson and robbery, had his trial, and received for his sentence ten years solitary confinement in the penitentiary—and but last week was brought back to the home of his childhood, one of a gang of thirty chained felons, in charge of the sheriff He met at the prison's threshhold his own father, still the warden. And so near father, mother, brothers and sisters—who are all respectable members of society—he must serve out his long and dreary term of punishment."

ARRIVAL OF THE STAR OF THE WEST.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The Steamer Star of the West arrived here at noon to-day from Aspinwall, with the California mail and treasure, which left San Francisco on the 11th ult. She brings $1,464,000 in specie.

The news by this arrival is six days later than that contained in the papers brought by the Quaker City.

The rainy season had commenced in California.

Col. Freemont has purchased the Merced and Mariposa Canal.

Other murders had been committed by the Nasho Indians, and citizens were arming for defence.

The dates from Panama are to the 19th ult. An earthquake was felt there on the 13th. Also at Loja in Ecada and in Quito. At the former place numerous houses and churches were destroyed.

Political affairs in Peru are unchanged. Don Rafael Ecalaute has been elected Governor of Costa Rica.

HORRIBLE MURDER.—The Wheeling Times says:—We learn that two men recently discharged from the chain gang, in this city—Bill Swain and Wm. T. Morrison committed a most atrocious murder in the town of Sunfish, Ohio, the particulars of which transpired on Friday. It appears they were engaged in plastering a house in that place, and within the last few days became acquainted with a poor girl, whom they decoyed to an obscure section of that town, and in order to prevent detection, deliberately murdered her with large stones with which they mashed in her skull and horribly mutilated her face and other portions of her body. The unfortunate girl was missed several days before she was discovered, and when she was at last found on Friday last, she was weltering in blood, with her clothes over her head, and the instruments of her death laying all around.—In the meantime, the villains had made good their escape but it is still hoped that they may be brought to punishment.

P. S.—We learn that Swain and Morrison were discharged from jail on the 8th of October.

BURIED TREASURE COMING TO LIGHT.—The Peninsular (Del.) News says:—"The people of the lower part of Sussex continue to pick up silver coins along the coast. A friend informs us that, according to the best information he can collect, there have been from eight to nine thousand dollars collected altogether. The coin dates as far down as 1718, and is in circulation all over Baltimore Hundred. The prevailing opinion is that it is the money which was buried by Gibbs and Walmsley the two notorious pirates, who after conviction, confessed that they buried money in the sand in that neighborhood."

HARDWARE ESTABLISHMENT.

Among the leading commercial interests of Baltimore the HARDWARE business has a prominence and importance inferior to none. That city, indeed has long, by direct importation sustained this department of trade, upon an equality with its position in any other commercial mart. In connection with this primary fact we take pleasure in naming the house of MR. E. M. BOSLEY, No. 4 LIGHT STREET WHARF, who has by long experience, business sagacity and zeal, established a highly successful and reliable enterprise. As an importer to a large extent he is enabled to supply the wholesale demand in all its variety, while from a well selected stock of fine and common goods, he offers to the public a choice which cannot fail to please the most fastidious.

Mr. Bosley's place of business on Light street wharf is not only within the scope of the Southern and Western trade, but exceedingly convenient to all persons, dealers, farmers and others visiting the city from the bay. While facilities of shipment by steamer or rail are at his very door. As a man of energy and enterprise, Mr. Bosley cannot fail to command success, and it is only in our appreciation of these qualities that we direct attention to this establishment. [s262m*

TO all persons afflicted with Sexual Diseases, such as Spermatorrhœ, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, the Vice of Onanism, or Self Abuse, &c., &c.

The Howard Association, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago, directed their consulting Surgeon, as a Charitable Act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give Medical Advice Gratis, to all who may apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.) and in cases of extreme poverty, to FURNISH MEDICINES FREE OF CHARGE. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important but much despised cause.
