DISTRESSING TIMES.—As the severity of winter approaches, so certain do want and misery overtake the poor and unprovided for; especially in large cities. Although in some of the cities active measures are being taken for the relief of suffering humanity, yet there will be scores left unprovided for, and illy prepared to face the severity of such winters as we have had during the last few years. Not only will the severity of the present winter be felt in the densely populated cities, but it is feared will be experienced to an alarming extent in the country towns. Every community is more or less mixed with the old and decrepid, unable to provide a sustenance for themselves. Though all are crying out hard times, comparatively few are brought down to real want and destitution. Such being the case it is the duty of the better-to-do class to help his suffering neighbor. Such no doubt will be the case. The whole country appears to be in a perfect commotion on the money question. Some cry out perhaps too soon—before they are really in want—to keep pace with the times, and others close doors and suspend payment from actual necessity. Every community should, we think, be seeing to the necessities of the unprovided for

ALL FOR PROFIT.—We see that Mr. Brooks, Hon. H. Winter Davis' competitor for Congress, in the fourth district, intends contesting his election, on the ground of illegal voting—after Mr. Davis getting over 6,000 majority. It is not supposed that he thinks of accomplishing any such thing as that; but his object clearly shows for itself—as his per diem will go on from the beginning of the session until the affair is settled.

GOV. WISE AND HIS MUSKETS.—We observe that the conservative press throughout Virginia, and indeed in all directions, says the Baltimore Patriot, is loud in its condemnation of the recent imprudent act of liberality in Governor Wise lending the arms of Virginia to Governor Ligon. The Richmond Whig is still calling upon its contemporary, the Enquirer, Gov. Wise's organ, to show by what authority he acted; but the Enquirer is silent, which would appear as an acknowledgement of the wrong.

THE Post Master General has recently decided, that if Post Masters do not give publishers of newspapers notice when their papers remain in the post office without being taken out by the subscribers within FIVE WEEKS they are liable for the pay.—It is to be hoped this decision will make Post Masters more attentive to that part of their duty to which it has especial reference.

FIRE.—As some persons were passing Mr. James H. Grace's store on Tuesday night last, they discovered the inside to be on fire. On breaking open the door, a number of bats of cotton were found to be on fire, which is supposed to have caught from the explosion of matches. Nothing but its timely discovery saved a great loss of property. Mr. Grace's loss from damage to goods, &c., is about $100.

MR. WM. E. West died in Nashville, Tenn., on the 2d inst. Mr. West enjoyed a wide reputation. Most of his artist life was spent in Europe, where he stood at the head of his profession. He painted a portrait of Lord Byron from life, which is universally conceded to be the best one in existence, and which the artist sold for $2,000.

The New York Evening Post states that General Walker has sailed from New Orleans with 1,500 troops for Nicaragua in a fine steamer, with plenty of provisions and ammunition. Col. Duncan, of the U. S army, commands his artillery.

THE Hon. Thomas Holliday Hicks, the Governor elect, will be inaugurated at Annapolis, in pursuance of the second article of the new constitution, on the second Wednesday of January next, and will hold his office for the term of four years.

ERROR.—The election returns in our paper last week proved, on examination, to be incorrect in the vote for commissioners.—Giving the democratic candidates one hundred or more, more than they were entitled to.

THE Governor of Vermont has issued his proclamation, setting apart Thursday the third of December next, as a day for thanksgiving.

CHAS. H. F. MORING, Hanoverian Consul at the port of Boston, died on Saturday.

SALE.—Mr. Luther J. Cox's sale of stock, farming implements, &c., comes off on the 17th inst., and not the 14th as in the Star.

THANKS.—Mr. W. J. Trippe will please accept our thanks for a peck of finely flavored sweet potatoes.

New York Correspondence,

NEW YORK, Nov. 6, 1857.

Another week of high pressure is almost over! Commercial matters are brightening up a little; since the Brokers have received State money there has gone out to the West a considerable amount of that currency and produce is beginning to come forward. Who is the real debtor now?—Who is the man that stops the machinery of commerce by failing to pay up? The consumer of goods is the actual defaulter, yet, strange to say, though he has property to pay his debts with, it is not wholly his fault that they have not been paid. The Western farmer has not until lately been able to exchange his produce for every kind of currency which would bear keeping. Now the flow of gold and good bills is setting out West; the trouble cannot be charged upon the Banks any longer; and if the farmers do not pay, the bankruptcy of the country must lie at their door, providing always that navigation does not close before the bulk of shipments can be made. This revulsion, it must always be borne in mind, is not a commercial but a financial one.—We have failed, not because of over-trading, not because our consumption has exceeded our production. This is the favorite cry of ranters; facts contradict the assumption. But an entire derangement of the system of exchange throughout the country, thro' the suicidal action of Banks, has rendered it impossible for one section to pay its debts to the other. And there is no doubt, notwithstanding, that this derangement and confusion is taken advantage of by unscrupulous parties, many of whom, though actually able to pay their debts have sought to defer payment, and even to obtain extensions on notes falling due next spring.—when there is no reason to suppose that solvent houses will find any difficulty in meeting their obligations. The jobbers have got through their heaviest payments, the Banks are discounting more freely, and things look a little brighter. The importers have very generally failed to meet their engagements in the other side and in two or three weeks we shall hear reports of a grand crash among French and British manufacturers.

Unemployed abor is beginning to manifest a rather unmanageable disposition and things look rather squally for the winter, especially among the great masses of artisans for whom there is now scarcely any employment to be found. There was a large and inflammatory meeting of this class yesterday, at which the most seditious sentiments were uttered. The only tangible plan of relief we can propose, is, that the the railroads should offer to carry families West and South at half price. The remainder to be made up from the contributions of the benevolent. We certainly have an overstock of the human race at this particular juncture, in the city of New York. A sumptuary law should be passed by the Legislature forbidding marriages until such time as domestic exchanges shall have been regulated, and the country at large become tranquil.

Of course we have but very little trade in general merchandize; produce sells at fair rates; cotton can't be "moved;" dry goods are nor dead not sleeping; there is some disposition to sell on credit since the last week, though the terms given are shorter than heretofore.

There is a dearth of amusements; nothing seems to take. The election was "no go" at all—not even the regular fraternity of shoulder-hitters would condescend to show any degree of excitement or interest about it. There was no need of "fighting at the polls," as nobody cared enough about voting to go near a poll if a hair of his head might be endangered thereby and consequently there was not the slightest excuse for a scrummage.

We predict better times in the course of a few weeks. Not from mere conjecture either. Let us look at the case. The distress among the artisans; those who have been engaged in the preparation of useful and ornamental articles for the season's trade. Now there is a prospect that all stock of this description, dry goods, fancy goods, hats, etc., will become extremely scarce and valuable in a few months, owing to the checking of manufacture here but especially to the almost entire cutting off of importation. "We will never trust this country again," say the French and German agents on this side; so much the better for this country. New manufacturers must soon see that they will have a clear field for another season, no rivals and small stocks on hand; they will therefore engage in production again and very extensively as soon as money business raises, which event promises to come off in the course of a few weeks. RIVINGTON.

FOLLY.—The States, (printed in Washington,) recommends that the House of Representatives shall refuse to receive Messrs. Davis and Harris, on the plea that they have not been fairly elected—but we can hardly suppose that this foolish advice will be followed, as the large majorities given for these gentlemen would seem to preclude the idea of their having been illegally elected. Mr. Harris obtained majorities both in the city and county—and were the whole vote for himself and competitor in the city stricken out, he would still be elected. His majority in the district is 3312—that given for Mr. Davis is upwards of six thousand five hundred. We do not suppose that, in case the House of Representatives should be guilty of so gross an outrage as to reject these gentlemen, their competitors would condescend to accept seats to which they would be preferred by such means. But we have no fears that the advice of the States will be accepted. It is the suggestion of the maddened partizan, disappointed in the hopes of seeing Maryland restored to the control of the foreign party. Cooler and wiser heads than that editor's will be in the House of Representatives, and they will not venture to set a precedent which would be of the most dangerous tendency. No! Messrs. Davis and Harris will take their seats, and ably and faithfully represent the interests of the American party in Congress. They go with the full and free sanction of the people of this district.—Clipper.

LABOR MEETING IN NEWARK, N. J.—We learn from the Advertiser of Monday evening that a meeting of the unemployed in Newark, was held in the morning, and adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we, the working men of this city, have met to devise peaceable means to procure labor for the support of ourselves and suffering families. We do not wish alms, but the opportunity to earn our living by useful industry.

Resolved, That John Bowles, Alexander Burns, Pat. Connor, John Karr, John Coleman, Hugh O'Neill, be a committee to wait upon the authorities of the city, or any other body that can furnish, and respectfully ask them to do so.

Resolved, That this committee perform their duty as soon as possible, and that we adjourn to meet again when they inform us that they are ready to report,

Resolved, That we invite all citizens having work to do, to give us the opportunity of doing it.

The above resolutions were responded to with an enthusiastic shout of "Aye," and on putting the negative, one or two voices cried "No."

Several speeches—one of which advocated emigration to the West—were made, after which the above committee immediately waited on the Mayor, who received them in a very friendly manner, assured them of his heartfelt sympathy; and stated that a meeting of the Common Council would be held last evening, when he would lay the subject before them, and assured them of his co-operation if it were possible to procure labor for them

TELEGRAPH EXPEDITION.—A letter from Captain Hudson, dated Plymouth, Oct. 28, says the Niagara was still at Keyham Basin, the workmen being engaged day and night in getting out the telegraphic cable. Six hundred miles had been landed. The amount of cable to be used next year will be increased to 3,000 miles, or nearly double the distance in a straight line from Trinity bay to Valentia. A large portion of the machinery for laying the cable will be suffered to remain in the Niagara until next year—unless it should be removed by order of the Secretary of the Navy.—Her return may be expected in the latter part of this month.

The Susquehanna, engaged with her in the telegraph enterprise, has been ordered to join the Home squadron. Before doing so, however, she ran up to Spezzia, a naval station in the Mediterranean.

In the Charleston Navy Yard the back Relief is being recaulked and otherwise repaired; the Macedonian will soon be ready to receive her masts and armament; the frigate Roanake is being stripped. Two large scows, built for the use of the Light-house Department were lately launched from the first ship-house. The new workshops are rapidly drawing to completion. Preparations are being made to lay the keel of the new sloop of war ordered to be constructed at this yard.

In the Brooklyn yard, the Vincennes hauled out in the stream on Saturday, and will sail towards the end of this week.—N. Y. Post.

The Pennsylvania Bank.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—The stockholders of the Pennsylvania Bank held a meeting to-day, when Col. Patterson, the president, and the board of directors resigned their posts. Resolutions were passed appointing a committee to investigate the frauds and select new directors. Col. Patterson said that no report could be made under present circumstances, but it was possible that by careful nursing the debts of the bank could be paid, and perhaps the bank resuscitated. Many of the speakers denounced President Allibone in most severe terms. John M. Dutton defended his character, and declared that he would return, and no one then would dare repeat the slander. Great confusion followed, and a storm of hisses and groans interrupted the speaker. A resolution to accept the act legalizing the suspension was adopted, when the meeting adjourned.

TRUE PHILOSOPHY.—We commend the following brief essay to the thoughtful.—They will find a volume of truth in a very few words:—

PAY AS YOU GO.—This is an invaluable motto. John Randolph said that he had found the philosopher's stone—so much sought after—and that these words contained the vaunted secret Out of debt a man is safe. He can feel independent. Even if he does not own a dollar himself, it is a great deal to be able to say that he does not owe one. Debt is a great nightmare that straddles across a man's peace of mind and destroys his happiness. If he can keep clear of this, he is truly free.

No one ever knew what the sweets of liberty meant, who was ridden with debt all the time. It is told of one of the most estimable wealthy men of Boston that he answered an application for a loan of money which was made by him to a young man, in this style: "I will gladly let you have the money, if when you see me coming in the street again, you will promise not to dodge around the corner!" Pecuniary obligations thus rob a man of his independence, and cramp and finally crush his manliness. If it be possible, debt is to be avoided always, and when assented to, then only so far as one can sagaciously see his way out of it again,

HARDWARE ESTABLISHMENT.

Among the leading commercial interests of Baltimore the HARDWARE business has a prominence and importance inferior to none. That city, indeed has long, by direct importation sustained this department of trade, upon an equality with its position in any other commercial mart. In connection with this primary fact we take pleasure in naming the house of MR. E. M. BOSLEY, No. 4 LIGHT STREET WHARF, who has by long experience, business sagacity and zeal, established a highly successful and reliable enterprise. As an importer to a large extent he is enabled to supply the wholesale demand in all its variety, while from a well selected stock of fine and common goods, he offers to the public a choice which cannot fail to please the most fastidious.

Mr. Bosley's place of business on Light street wharf is not only within the scope of the Southern and Western trade, but exceedingly convenient to all persons, dealers, farmers and others visiting the city from the bay. While facilities of shipment by steamer or rail are at his very door. As a man of energy and enterprise, Mr. Bosley cannot fail to command success, and it is only in our appreciation of these qualities that we direct attention to this establishment. [s26 2m*

HOWARD ASSOCIATION,

PHILADELPHIA.

A Benevolent Institution, established by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

TO all persons afflicted with Sexual Diseases, such as Spermatorrhœ, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, the Vice of Onanism, or Self Abuse, &c., &c.

The Howard Association, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago, directed their consulting Surgeon, as a Charitable Act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give Medical Advice Gratis, to all who may apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.) and in cases of extreme poverty, to FURNISH MEDICINES FREE OF CHARGE. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important but much despised cause.

Just published by the Association, a Report on Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, the Vice of Onanism, Masturbation or Self-Abuse, and other Diseases of the Sexual Organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, which will be sent by mail, (in a sealed letter envelope,) FREE OF CHARGE, on receipt of TWO STAMPS for postage.
