WASHINGTON COLLEGE.—We have received the Catalogue for 1857–58 of Washington College, located at Chestertown, Maryland, and are glad to perceive that the institution is in a condition of flourishing usefulness. The number of students for the year is ninety-five, drawn from all parts of the State, and including a number from this and adjoining counties. The Rev. Francis Waters, D. D., favorably known as an instructor, is President of the Faculty, and the Board of Governors, of which Hon. E. F. Chambers, L. L. D., is President, comprises among its members Senator Pearce, Hon. J. R. Eccleston, Hon. J. W. Crisfield, Hon. J. R Franklin, Wm. H. Groome, of Easton, and other gentlemen extensively known in Maryland.

BROKE JAIL.—On Sunday night last five negroes escaped from Easton Jail by picking through the wall, and lowering themselves down with a piece of canton-flannel, which they had by some means procured. There were seven in the room at the time, and two of them either could not get through the hole, or had no disposition to leave. Two of those escaped were slaves, one belonging to Wm. Hayward, Esq., near Easton, the other to Mr. Valliant, of Bay Side. Sheriff Sparks and Constable Buckley went in pursuit of them on Monday morning, but have so far escaped the pursuit of the officers.

THE LEGISLATURE.—The bill for satisfying the claim of the Eastern Shore after once being defeated by a vote of 11 to 8, passed in the Senate, on Saturday, by a constitutional majority of 12 in its favor.—Mr. Semmes, of Allegany, who was absent when the previous vote was taken, returned to Annapolis on Saturday, and the bill being again called, his vote was cast in its favor, and it was carried. The constitutional Convention bill passed the Senate on Monday, by a vote of 15 to 6, and is now a law. Also a bill making an appropriation to repair the Armory at Easton.

The House on Wednesday, rejected the bill making an appropriation for Internal Improvements on the Eastern Shore.

THE EXHIBITION ON TUESDAY NIGHT LAST.—The exhibition which came off on Tuesday night, in the Town Hall, was largely attended. The Hall was filled to overflowing, and we understand the performance was as good as could well have been performed in a room of that size.—We have heard the play spoken of as being a rich affair, and highly amusing. The same play, "Republican Aristocracy," will be performed on next Tuesday night for the benefit of the "Union Dorcas Society" of Easton. See advertisement in another column.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Capt. John Young of Poplar Island, met with his death on Saturday evening last, under the following circumstances: He, in company with his son and son-in-law were in the act of crawling down through some bushes to shoot ducks, when some brush came in contact with the lock of the gun in the hands of the latter causing the gun to go off, the contents of which took effect in the lower extremities of the captain, killing him instantly.

HON. P. B. HOPPER.—The health of his Honor Judge Hopper, we are sorry to learn from the Advocate, is much more precarious than it has been. On Sunday and Monday he was more unwell. From what we can learn, there is no immediate prospect of his early recovery and the final issue of his disease is involved in great doubt.—The loss of this Honorable gentleman would be almost irreparable.

DEDICATION.—The large and commodious M. E. Church recently built at Centreville, will be dedicated on Sunday next. One of the Bishops of the Church, Rev. Mr. Dashiel of Baltimore, Rev. Charles Hill, and other eminent ministers will be present on the occasion.

AMONG the list of the President's appointments, and confirmed by the Senate, we see the name of Gen. T. Tilghman as Collector of Customs at Oxford.

ECLIPSE OF THE SUN.—An annular eclipse of the sun will take place on the 15th inst. In the United States this will be partial, and visible east of Wisconsin, Illinois and Mississippi. The sun will rise about 6 o'clock 12m., partially eclipsed on the southern limb. The eclipse will end here about half-past seven.

A CARD.

My attention has within three days been called to an article purporting to be an editorial in the Gazette of Feb. 13th, and I now take the earliest opportunity to say to the people of Talbot county, that it is my intention to prepare at my leisure a paper for their reading in which I shall freely define the position of those who have undertaken to define mine in reference to the subject of which said professed editorial treats.

In the mean time, I leave room for the youthful editor of the Gazette to retract or not as his own real sense of decency may suggest, any thing which, (so far as he in reality was concerned in the writing of said article,) was designed to reflect on me.

As to the knave who in all probability placed himself behind the burley form of said youthful editor, it is most likely that if his name were known he would be recognized as one who with the fear of the law before him, might not exactly steal a jug of liquor, if he had an ordinarily fair chance to do so. THOS. R. HOLLYDAY.

It would appear from reading the Card above, which appeared in the Star on Tuesday last, that we had awfully vilified or misrepresented the gentleman whose name is attached thereto. In the article referred to, which appeared in the Gazette on the 13th ult., we had no reference to Mr. Thos. R. Holliday, individually, but if he considers himself the embodiment of the anti-rail road party, and sees fit to wear the coat we there cut out, that pleasure we cheerfully accord him And though the garment may fit a little too tight, he may rest assured we will not be the one to rip a stitch or open a seam to give him ease, notwithstanding his insinuations and threats.

We feel confident that if we were to search half the first class libraries in the county, there could not be found words better suited to a portion of the above gentleman's card than the following, contained in the "reply to the reflections of Mr. Walpole," and a few extracts of which, we have taken from the "New American Speaker," which, we presume are familiar to any schoolby that has gone to any extent in his books:

"Sir, the atrocious crime of being a young man, which the honorable gentleman has, with such spirit and decency charged upon me, I shall neither attempt to palliate nor deny, but content myself with wishing—that I may be one of those whose follies cease with their youth; and not of that number who are ignorant in spite of experience.

Whether youth can be imputed to any man as a reproach, I will not, sir, assume the province of determining: but surely, age may become justly contemptible—if the opportunities which it brings have passed away without improvement, and vice appears to prevail when the passions have subsided. * *

In the first sense the charge is too trifling to be confuted, and deserves only to be mentioned that it may be despised. I am at liberty, like every other man, to use my own language: and though I may, perhaps, have some ambition, yet to please this gentleman, I shall not lay myself under any restraint, nor very solicitously copy his diction or his mien: however matured by age, or modeled by experience."

Accepting as we do, the title of "burly young editor," with which we have been dubbed by the old "knight of the jug," we should be unworthy of the position which we hold, if we did not boldly take to our self all disfavor which may attach to our editorials. We know not who the epithet "knave" is aimed at in the above card, nor is it our business to find out, and though the gentleman above, appears to have a plenty of grape on hand, we would advise him, inasmuch as he has perhaps, nothing like the ability of old Gneral Jackson for splitting Hickory, to try his hand on something he is more used to—the splitting old field Pine. As the gentleman was so generous, in giving us time to retract or explain, we hope the above is satisfactory.

A few words more and we shall leave the subject to an impartial community, the views of three-fourths of which upon the rail road question, we think, will concur in what we said in our former article. The editor of the Star, we think, acted very strangely, being such a professed advocate of the rail road, to admit an article bearing the nature of the above card, to appear immediately in his editorial column. It looks very much like trying to keep in the good graces of both sides, for the true intent of the card undoubtedly is against what the editor professed to advocate. Can this be explained?

A NEGRO STARVED TO DEATH.—A negro named Redman was found dead last week in a sub-cellar of the large tenement house in the rear of No. 19 Mulberry street, New York. The body was shockingly mutilated, a portion of the head and face having been eaten by huge rats, which were with difficulty driven away from the corpse. Redman is believed to have died literally of starvation. In his wretched abode, which, since the death of his wife a few weeks since, had occupied alone, there was found neither fuel nor food of any kind, and scarcely a piece of furniture.

THE KANSAS INVESTIGATION.—Mr. Green arrived as a messenger, bringing with him the journal of the Lecompton Convention, and the evidence taken before the Commissioner to examine into the alleged frauds in Kansas on the 21st of December, and 4th of January last. The document is voluminous. It is said, that the investigation reduces the legal vote on the former occasion to about 2,500, whereas it was heretofore stated at 6,795.

EXTRAVAGANCE REBUKED.—At a banquet recently given in Paris, by a certain illustrious member of the Imperial family, the extravagance of the dishes is said to have called down a reprimand from the Emperor. One single dish called "Salade Russe" is reported to have cost over one thousand dollars.

THE LEVIATHAN.—Capt. Harrison, who is to command the Leviathan, writes that he is in hopes to be be in Portland with his vessel in the latter part of the month of June, and that he proposes to remain there with her seven weeks.

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTIONS.

The following are the preamble and resolutions drawn up by the Committee, composing Messrs. I. C W. Powell, Howes Goldsborough, Jas. Ll. Martin, A. P. Jump, C. C. Cox, R. Tharp, W. H. Thompson and Samuel Hambleton, appointed by the Chairman of the meeting held in the Town Hall, on Saturday evening, the 27th ult., for the purpose of taking into consideration the action of the Legislature in regard to to the Eastern Shore Appropriation Bill, which were unanimously adopted by said meeting:

Whereas, the Senate of Maryland, has refused to pass the bill granting to the Eastern Shore the residue of the one million of dollars, sacredly appropriated to it for internal improvements: to which the faith of the State was solemnly pledged and her plighted honor published to the world by her legislature, long antecedent to the present constitution; and whereas amid the embarrassment and depression of an onerous public debt the Eastern Shore delayed to prefer her claim: and now that the public finances are again in sound condition and the State able to meet her obligations without difficulty or danger, this shore is asking only the balance of the principal now due her from that general appropriation for a system of internal improvements throughout the State, when from the Western Shore twenty years ago received her full quota of the eight millions—but the Eastern Shore having received but a tithe of hers, has ever since been paying, in good faith, her proportion of the taxes thereby incurred, and patiently deferring her claim, relying with confidence upon the honor of the glorious old State of which she is a component element: and

Whereas, our right to the residue of that one million of dollars was solemnly vested in this shore by the the legislature, and as a vested right was recognized by the new constitution; and the obligation of the State to pay the money so appropriated, is admitted to be just and equitable even by the most technical of those who opposed the measure; and

Whereas, those who argue that this claim is unconstitutional or not an obligation binding strictly in law, are in our judgment undermining the plighted honor and faith of the State—worshipping the shadow and ignoring the substance; and

Whereas, we hold that honor and good faith on the part of a State or a nation, as upon an individual, are as binding and as sacred as its bond for dollars and cents; and

Whereas, we hold that all government in this land is a compact for mutual protection and equal privilege—and that when the government fails to extend equal justice to all and repudiates its solemn obligations to its own citizens, it no longer accomplishes the great ends for which it was created, is not entitled to the confidence and affection of its citizens and becomes an instrument of injustice and oppression; therefore

Resolved, that, we the people of Talbot county in convention assembled, considering, as we do, the right of the Eastern Shore to the unexpended balance of the money appropriated to her by the State in a general system of internal improvements a vested right and a liability incurred recognized and sustained by all subsequent legislation and protected by the new constitution itself, we protest against the action of those senators who refuse to sustain our application, as unjust and calculated to impair the honor and faith of the State: and if they persist in this course of opposition, whatever may be their real intention, they are actually repudiating the obligations of the State.

Resolved, That the Eastern Shore is in honor and in conscience entitled not alone to the principal sum of the appropriation thus belonging to her, but also to interest thereon for all those long years through which she has struggled under the burdens of taxation—for has she not already paid upon the debt of the State more than she is claiming from its treasury and is still paying and bound to pay in the future without any adequate compensation. She has been faithful and true, and she asks but the sheerest justice and right.

Resolved, That considering, as we do, this refusal of the larger section of the State to redeem her obligations, when the finances and credit of the State are in the most flourishing condition and they are left without excuse or reason against it, an act of the most glaring injustice and manifest oppression, reading in it a disposition on the part of the Western Shore to arrogate to herself a power alike unjust and ungenerous, and to trample upon our sacred rights and to disregard our highest interests—we have calmly and solemnly determined, that unless they recede from this opposition and give us that justice to which we are entitled, our interests will be no longer safe in their hands, we shall no longer feel bound to preserve confidence in and affection for a compact that legislates but for one section of the State and distributes privilege and treasure only to one favored portion; we shall be free to determine, and take measures to enforce and sustain our own interests: and we will fully sustain our senators and delegates in resigning their present trust to an injured people and retiring from those halls, where legislation will have become but a mockery and we will endorse them in all the future in whatever constitutional measures it may be deemed necessary to pursue to restore us to our proper position as a component part of this sovereign State.

Resolved, That the communication purporting to be from "an Eastern Shoreman"—which has been anonymously placed upon the desks of the members of the general assembly, is a total perversion of justice: a misrepresentation of law and of fact, a miserable piece of sophism: unwarranted and unjust, and eminates from a source unpatriotic, unwise and without public spirit from some one who has neither the soul nor the sentiment of an Eastern Shoreman; it evidences a disposition soured by some private grievance or disappointed ambition or imbued with a malevolence and misanthropy which finds no response on this shore, and totally oppose the sentiments of a large majority of our people. It is a grudge against the Maryland and Delaware Railroad by some party unknown, who is opposed to all public improvement, and thus chafes in his secret anger.

Resolved, That this convention tender their profound acknowledgements and a sentiment of deep and abiding gratitude and honor to those senators from the Western Shore who have in this issue sustained the right and endeavored to redeem the plighted faith and honor of the State: and we cordially endorse our senators and delegates in their devotion to this measure, and we urge them to unflagging endeavors to accomplish this great work, which we consider calculated to advance the best interests of the State. On motion it was

Resolved, That James Ll. Martin, C. C. Cox, I. C. W. Powell, Richard Thomas, A. P. Jump, R. Tharp, M. Spencer, Howes Goldsborough, H. J. Strandberg, E. D. Nutz, N. E. Nichols, W. H. Thompson, J. A. W. Powell, E. O. Dawson and F. F. Tilghman be appointed a committee to repair to the seat of government and convey our sentiments, expressed by the accompanying resolutions to our representatives in both branches of the Legislature.

DEATH OF COM. PERRY.—Com. M. C. Perry, of the U. S. Navy, died on Thursday week in New York, in his sixty-fifth year. He entered the service in 1809, as a mid-shipman. He has latterly been distinguished for services in the Gulf of Mexico during the war, and as the commander of the Japan expedition. Though not so eminent as another Perry, a near relative whose name is connected so honorably with our naval history, he still has rendered important service to his country, and his loss will be regretted. The funeral took place at New York on Saturday. The National Guard, five hundred strong, paraded on the occasion. The navy and army officers in New York, a strong detachment of marines and a large number of citizens, also attended

FROM KANSAS.—The Republican has an account of an attempt made to abduct the judges of election at Delaware Crossing: to prevent them giving evidence before the investigating committee. One man was killed. The clerks at the election at Shawnee are preparing a statement, under oath, stating that they gave their testimony before the investigating committee under threats of death. A letter from Fort Scott says that that place had been taken by Gen. Lane's men, who were robbing the stores, stealing horses, etc. No lives had been lost.

FIRE IN THE AIR.—The citizens of Frostburg, Md., were astounded last week, says an exchange, by the appearance of a ball of fire rolling in the air. Its appearance is described to have been a red blazing body, passing rather swiftly, and leaving sparks and fragments of its blaze in its train. It was at the elevation of 40 or 50 feet above the house tops. At the time it came to the ground it seems to have been mostly consumed, and, by common consent, adjudged to have been a body of gas which upon escaping from the coal mines ignited.

FATAL AFFRAY.—Samuel Ritner, residing about five miles from Suffern Station was shot through the heart by his brother-in-law, Peter Benjamin, on Monday, on the Erie railroad. Both men were intoxicated. The Coroner summoned a jury this morning and is having an investigation.

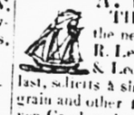
A. R. LEONARD.



THE subscriber having purchased the new and very superior schooner A R. Leonard, built by Messrs. Hoghlett & Leonard, and launched in November last, solicits a share of public patronage in the grain and other freighting business on Third Haven Creek and adjacent waters.

The A R. LEONARD is a fast sailor, and her Captain, CHARLES KEMP, is remarkable for energy and promptness; and as she draws but 2½ feet of water when light, and 5½ feet when loaded, carrying below deck 3000 bushels and 3750 bushels easily when the deck is loaded, her patrons may confidently expect that she will afford them advantages and facilities, superior to those offered by any vessels they have heretofore employed.—The shippers of grain will not be charged back freights on any articles except on coal, lumber, bricks, lime, shells and guano; and the rates will be the same as those generally charged on Third Haven Creek.

The subscriber will attend to the freighting business of the schooner on this shore, and communications will reach him at his residence and if by maill through the Post Office at Trappe.

To the Travelling Public,

AND

CITIZENS OF TALBOT COUNTY.

THE undersigned, proprietor of the long known and well established public House in Easton, known as the "Easton Hotel," begs leave respectfully to inform the public that he has refitted the Hotel from garret to cellar. That the chambers have been particularly attended by white-washing and cleansing, and the bedding thoroughly renovated. His Parlor has also been newly furnished and fitted for the accommodation of private parties. The whole establishment is thoroughly lighted by gas.

To meet the requirements of the times he has also fitted up in the basement of the hotel an Eating Saloon, where he will at all times be prepared to serve up Oysters, Terapins, Wild Ducks, Crabs, and all other luxuries of the Waters of Talbot, in season; Beef Steak, Coffee, Beef Tongue, Lunch and refreshments of all kinds, on the most moderate terms and upon the shortest notice. His Bar is removed below to this saloon, leaving the former commodious bar-room alone for the quiet and comfort of travellers and citizens, in which to converse or read, free from the interruption of the Bar.

N. B.—To meet the tightness of the times, he will from this time charge only fifty cents for Dinner and Horse-feed—thirty-seven cents for Dinner alone, and twelve cents for horse feed alone. His stables are at all times open for the accommodation of his friends and customers whether horse feed be ordered or not, free of charge.
