of the Condition thereof and to him they are read: which being read and heard the said John Clements says that the said Philip Richard Fendall his action aforesaid against him to have or maintain ought not: because he saith that he the said John Clements did pay unto the said Philip Richard Fendall the sum of ninety one pounds eleven shillings current money in the Condition of the said writing obligatory mentioned with legal interest thereon according to the form and effect of the Condition of the said writing obligatory, and this he is ready to verify wherefore he prays Judgment if the said Philip Richard Fendall his action aforesaid against him to have or maintain ought and soforth. And the said Philip Richard Fendall by his attorney aforesaid saith that he by any thing by the said John Clements above in pleading alledged from having and maintaining his action aforesaid against him ought not to be precluded because he saith that the John Clements did not pay unto him the said Philip Richard Fendall the aforesaid sum of money in the Condition aforesaid mentioned with the interest thereon in manner and form as the said John Clements above by pleading hath alledged and this he prays may be enquired of by the Country and the said John Clements in like manner and Soforth. Therefore let a Jury thereupon appear before the Court here on the second Tuesday of May next, by whom, and Soforth. and who neither, and Soforth. to recognize, and Soforth. because aswell, and soforth. the same day is given to the said parties then and there, and Soforth.

And now at this day, to wit the said second Tuesday of May being the fourteenth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety three, comes again into the General Court here, as well the said Philip Richard Fendall by his attorney aforesaid, as the said John Clements by his attorney aforesaid: and the said John Clements by his attorney aforesaid, relinquishing the averment aforesaid above by him pretended, says, that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the said Philip Richard Fendall so as aforesaid against him brought, nor but that he owes to the said Philip Richard Fendall the sum of Two hundred Pounds current money and Three Thousand Pounds Crop Tobacco, in manner and form aforesaid, as the said Philip Richard Fendall above against him hath declared: Therefore it is considered by the Court here, that the said Philip Richard Fendall recover against the said John Clements as well the sum of two hundred Pounds current money, and the quantity of three Thousand Pounds Crop Tobacco, his Debt aforesaid, in form aforesaid aforesaid confessed, as also the quantity of seven hundred and eighty nine Pounds of Tobacco by the Court here unto him the said Philip Richard Fendall on his assent adjudged, for his Damages which he hath sustained as well by reason of the detention of the said debt, as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended: and the said John Clements in mercy, and Soforth.

Memorandum.
