ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Edgar L. Lane, Complainant, vs.
The unknown heirs of Robert Henry Wrigt, late of Queen Anne's County, Maryland, deceased, and Katie Wright.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR QUEEN ANN'E COUNTY
IN EQUITY,
Chancery No. 3502

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of real estate of which Robert Henry Wright did seized and possessed, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay and satisfy the claim of the Plaintiffs and other creditors of the said Robert Henry Wright who will come in and contribute to the expenses of this suit.

The Bill of Complaint states that the Plaintiff claims there is due him the sum of $175.00 for funeral expenses of the deceased, that Robert Henry Wright died in Queen Anne's County, Maryland, on February 5th, 1943, interstate, leaving no personal property and that no letters of administration on his estate have been granted; that Robert Henry Wright died seized and possessed of the following real estate, to wit: Parcel No. 1. being a tract of land of 4 acres and 2 woods, located on the east side of the Queen Anne's & Kent Railroad and the public road leading from Price to Ashland, in the Second Election District of Queen Anne's County, Maryland; and Parcel No. 2, being a tract of land of 6 acres lying on the west side of the Queen Anne's & Kent Railroad and the public road leading from Price to Ashland, in the Second Election District of Queen Anne's County, Maryland, in which said Parcel No. 2, the said Robert Henry Wright had an undivided one-fourth interest, and having in Parcel No. 1, a full, sole fee simple title; that he left surviving him a sister, one Katie Wright, who is a adult, unmarried, and who lives at Church Hill, Maryland; that he had a brother named Thomas Wright and a sister named Eleanora Wright Gibbs; that Thomas Wright is far as is known by the Plaintiff, may be living, but this is unknown, and if he is dead, it is unknown who his heirs at law are; that Eleanor Wright Gibbs is dead and so is her husband, Samuel Gibbs, and it is unknown who Eleanor Wright Gibb's heirs are; that the 6 acre tract of land descended unto the heirs at law of Serlina Wright, they being Robert Henry Wright, Thomas Wright, Katie Wright and Eleanor Wright Gibbs; that the plaintiff is advised that as there is no personal estate of Robert Henry Wright, deceased, he has a right and is entitled to apply and have his claim and that of the other creditors paid out of the real estate of Robert Henry Wright, and the Plaintiff prays that the unknown heirs of Robert Henry Wright may be proceeded against as nonresidents of the State of Maryland.

IT IS THEREUPON, this 5th day of October, 1946, Ordered by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, in Equity ,that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Queen Anne's County, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 9th day of November, 1946, give notice to the said absent and unknown defendants of the object and substance of this Bill, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 23rd day of November, 1946, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

A. SYDNEY GADD, JR.
Clerk.

Here's What They're Saying About

HERBERT R.

O'CONOR

and Why Maryland's Interests Demand His Election to the

U. S. SENATE

"A Tested Public Servant"—

Says the Baltimore Evening Sun

"Governor O'Conor's administration has conspicuous accomplishments to its credit. He reorganized the State's fiscal affairs and restored its solvency. He led the fight to reorganize the Court of Appeals, one of the most enduring reforms of the era. His appointments on the whole were good, and under his administration the State has prospered and advanced. The record of Mr. O'Conor as Governor suggests very pointedly that he understands how to discriminate in handling public issues. This capacity to discriminate is one of the first requirements in the Senate . . . If Maryland wishes to be well represented in the Senate, as in the past, it will elect Mr. O'Conor."

"A Calamity If He Isn't Elected"—

Says the Crisfield Times

"In sizing up the two candidates for the United States Senate, we find first that Governor O'Conor has a very great deal of ability in public affairs, COMBINED with a great deal of experience in public affairs. A liberal in politics, his liberalism is sound, reasonable and not radical. He believes in the rights of the States to manage their own affairs without direction from Washington. He has served as Governor of Maryland for nearly eight years, and in that time has demonstrated a fitness for executive duties and an understanding of national problems that places him high in both fields. He is a sound thinker, and as one of Maryland's representatives in the United States Senate he will apply himself with vigor and intelligence to help find solutions for the varied problems that are now disturbing our economy."

"The List of His Positive Achievements is Impressive"— Says the Baltimore Morning Sun

"There is hardly a need to labor the choice as between Mr. Markey and Mr. O'Conor. The Governor is a known quality. The list of his positive achievements is impressive . . . His record makes it obvious that Mr. O'Conor has a special talent in the affairs of government. Heaven knows the country needs that talent in Washington. It would be little short of a calamity to send to the Senate from Maryland a man as inexperienced and as bumbling as Mr. Markey when we have the opportunity to give the services of Herbert R. O'Conor."

Col. Amos W. W. Woodcock "UNFIT"

(Himself a Republican)

Terms The Governor's Opponent

"The very fact of long association with him has given me an expert knowledge of his complete lack of equipment in every respect to be a United States Senator . . . Markey has no record of accomplishment in business and has no knowledge whatsoever of law, constitutional limitations or economics. He would be completely helpless in debate in the United States Senate. Since about 1921 he has followed no recognized business or profession. He simply has been a professional veteran and as such a perpetual seeker for political office. I shall, therefore vote for Governor O'Conor."
