American Legion Elects At Sudlersville

Mr. W. Frederick Coursey, chief of Church Hill Volunteer Fire Company, was elected commander of the Kent-Queen Anne's Memorial Post No. 192, American Legion, at the annual election held at the post home.

Mr. Coursey, a rural mail carrier, succeeds Edward L. Walmsley in the chair of the post that serves upper Queen Anne's and lower Kent counties.

Other officers named were:

Victor P. Gillespie, first vice commander; Lee C. Bramble, second vice commander; W. Kenneth Walraven, adjutant; Howard E. Jester, finance officer; Walter I. Lindsay, service officer; the Rev. L. Harold Hinrichs, chaplin; William E. Coleman, historian; W. Theodore Blackiston, sergeant-at-arms; G. Clarke Phillips and Robert Wallace, color bearers, and Ralph Clough and Calvin S. Lucas, color guards.

Plans for the annual carnival were discussed. A special feature this summer will be the carnival queen beauty contest. Any girl interested in entering the contest may contact Walmsley or Clough in Sudlersville, Walraven in Millington, Coursey in Church Hill, or Coleman in Crumpton.

The carnival will be held on the Crumpton School grounds July 25-Aug. 1. Grand prize for the carnival queen will be a fine wrist watch.

Delegates named to attend the annual state convention in Baltimore, July 8-11 were: Commander Walmsley, Lindsay, Clough Bramble and Coleman. The alternates are: Commander-elect Coursey, Walraven, Howard E. Jester, Louis H. Hollett and W. Floyd Rash. G. Clarke Phillips, department vice-commander, will represent the post as a delegate-at-large.

Centreville Youth Struck by Car

Six-year-old Clarence Newman, Jr., of Centreville is in Memorial Hospital, Easton, with a head injury of undetermined extent after he reportedly darted into the path of an auto in Centreville Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Mildred E. Holsburg, 21 of Cambridge, told Maryland State Police Trooper W.H. Massey the boy ran across the street in front of her car. She said that although she was traveling at a slow rate, she was unable to brake the car in time to avoid striking Clarence.

Officers said no charges will be placed against the driver.

A New Business Opens Today!

It's in a clean, modern, new building. And its success depends entirely upon your patronage.

Unless any business is founded upon a policy of fair, ethical dealing with the public, it cannot succeed. Yes . . . you can discount the fine new building and even the quality of its products. It demands integrity in the people who run it.

For that reason, Frank and Jack Draper's new business is confident of success. Here you will find the best quality beers, wines and liquors, priced as low as they can be bought. And here you will always find a courteous reception and a willingness to serve, backed by a sincere desire to please you!
