

Union Office
Washington July 23. 1849.

Dear Sir,

Your's Dated 21st Inst is to hand; I have forwarded to you a copy of our last Weekly which contains our Prospectus,

With a conversation with Mr. Trenholm our fireman, he desires me to suggest to you, that if your other duties will admit of it, that his impression is that you could make it an object worthy of attention by applying yourself to the task throughout Maryland.

You will be paid twenty five per cent for services, say you get a Club of five Subscribers who pay you ten Dollars, and by remitting eight Dollars, you reserve two Dollars being 25 per cent Commission.

The Union is undoubtedly the Cheapest Political Paper published in this Country, and since the accession of Edward Burke is decidedly the most interesting; My Private opinion is, that you could (particularly now when so many primary assemblies are held) procure a great many subscribers throughout Maryland, and at twenty per cent, you could make it an object.
I will take pleasure in keeping you in possession of our Weekly regularly, so that you can always
