Henry Trader
against
Wm. Goddard, Special Bail of John Scroggin . . . .

Memorandum.

The Plaintiff in this Cause by William Cooke his Attorney, sued out the State of Maryland's Writ of Scire facias, which ensues as follows.

The State of Maryland, &c. To the Sheriff of Somerset County, Greeting; Whereas at a General Court held at Easton, the second Tuesday of September, Anno Domini, seventeen hundred and eighty nine, before the Honorable Robert Hanson Harrison Esquire, then Chief Justice of our said Court, and others his Associates, then Judges of the same Court, a certain Henry Trader by consideration and Judgment of the same Court, recovered against John Scroggin late of Somerset County, as well a certain Debt of four hundred pounds current money, as also the Quantity of nine hundred and ninety four pounds and two fifths of a pound of Tobacco, which unto the same Henry Trader was adjudged as well for his damages which he had sustained by occasion of the detention of that debt, as for his Costs and Charges by him about his Suit in that behalf expended; whereof the same John Scroggin was convicted as of Record is manifest; and altho' Judgment be thereof rendered as afd, Execution nevertheless remaineth to be done: and whereas also before the rendering that Judgment, to wit, the third Tuesday of June, Anno Domini seventeen hundred and eighty eight, before the Justices of Somerset County Court, a certain William Goddard of Somerset County, then and there in the said Court being in his proper person, became Pledge and Mainucaptor for the aforesaid John Scroggin, that if it should happen that the same John Scroggin in the plea aforesaid should be convicted, then the same Mainucaptor granted that as well the Debt afsd, as all such Damages,
