Maryland Bond Sales Slump Says Mr. Morgan

National sales of series E and H Bonds for October were more than $369 million, according to information released today by Mr. Horace Morgan, Savings Bonds chairman for Queen Anne's County.

Bond sales in Maryland, were below normal in October, Mr. Morgan said. While sales for the first 10 months of 1954 were slightly higher than for the same period of 1953, Maryland will fall short of its quota unless sales for the rest of the year show a marked increase.

All Maryland banks, farm groups, women's clubs, and other organizations in the state are cooperating with the savings bonds division of the Treasury Department by making special efforts during November and December to put Maryland over the top, according to Mr. Morgan.

Savings Bonds volunteer workers in Queen Anne's county were called on by Mr. Morgan, to redouble their efforts to stimulate public interest in savings bonds, as Christmas presents, as seasonal bonus payments to employes, and as a sound personal investment.

Queen Anne's county ranks 18th in Maryland in percentage of sales quota made so far this year, having accomplished 55.4 percent of its sales objective.

At this time of the year, as our thoughts turn toward our loved ones Thanksgiving, Christmas and the New Year, as a reminder of our thoughtfulness over the years, May we suggest an ideal gift which grows in value for a baby at birth, or a growing child or other members of your family a United States E bond.

Church Hil Man ...Sentenced to Six Months

A Church Hill man has been sentenced to six months in the county jail on three charges of petty larceny and one charge of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle in the present term of the Circuit Court in Centreville.

Judge William R. Horney sentenced William H. Mitchell to jail after he found him guilty on all four charges. The sentence was six months on each charge to run concurrently.

In other criminal cases before the court, Fred Hope, Jr., and Russell H. Grimes, of Kent Island, both plead guilty to breaking into a dwelling house on Kent Island and stealing a rifle. They were put on probation for two years.

Medford Wallis, 59-year-old Temperleville resident was found not guilty on a charge of obtaining $1,000 from the Queen Anne's County Welfare Board by false pretense.

Benjamin Paul Clough, proprietor of a beer tavern at Kent Narrows, was found guilty on a charge of selling beer on Sunday and fined $25 and costs.

A $1 fine was imposed on Julian Morris for contempt of court for failing to attend court as a witness after having been summoned.

County Man Takes Life By Shooting

George Al Hollingsworth, 52, a native of Queen Anne's County, died at his home in Centreville about 9 o'clock Sunday morning of what the county medical examiner, Dr. W.H. Fisher, termed a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

Mr. Hollingsworth, who had been employed by the Maryland State Roads Commission with a truck-weighing unit, was reported to have been in ill health.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Margaret Moore Hollingsworth, Centreville and seven sisters and 2 brothers, Mrs. Philip Taylor, Easton; Mrs. Paul Hardee, Denton; Mrs. Mildred Hollingsworth and Mrs. Edward Voshell, both of Centreville; Mrs. August Behrens, Cordova; Mrs. Ben Cohee, St. Michaels; Robert, Church Hill, and Jack of Centreville.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 p.m. from Lane's Funeral Home in Church Hill with the Rev. Thomas Donaldson, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Centreville, officiating. Burial was in Chesterfield Cemetery, Centreville.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Granny Drives But Won't "Shift"

Saw Grandma Taylor parking her 1924 Franklin out front the other day. Neat as a pin, radiator and hub caps gleaming—the whole car is as shiny as the day she bought it 30 years ago.

Then I stopped and looked again—for there, hanging on the spare tire was a sign: "This car NOT for sale."

Asked Granny what was going on. "Joe," she says, "it's this craze for old cars. Everybody wants to buy my Franklin. But it has served for years and it's not for sale at any price."

From where I sit, it's strictly the new cars for me—but Grandma Taylor, and others, are certainly welcome to their "old faithfuls." It's simply a question of preference. Same with a choice of beverages. For instance, I like a temperate glass of beer with supper. You may prefer coffee. Fine! The important thing is that we respect each other's choice—and "ride along smoothly" together.
