

behind, and reaching forth unto those thing which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. I see you do not know how happy I felt and my heart overflowed with love when as we were sitting together the other night when dear Harv. said that whatever she might do or what might be said about me she would like me. I could then have shed tears of joy and now as I write the tear glistens in my eyes. I wish it were so that I could have always felt the influence of your and Harv's society and friendship I would not now have to make my start in the world. But trusting on the ever ready and powerful arm of God and knowing I have friends who will rejoice with me in prosperity and sympathize with me in adversity I shall take for my motto. upward
