

and have been looking at the marriage notices in the Balto Sun to see if you were, ever since.
I should think Jack would have a hand in the oyster trade now on account of the Potomac being froze tight I hope in a few years to hear of him as one of the largest oyster packers in the country. I was in Balt on the 12th of September and could find no one to tell me Jimmy's address I went to see Mary Morrow she was in bed sick what a wreck she is Gray hollow cheek and indeed I never saw so changed a person in a few years.

How are you and the rest of your family I trust well I hoped your Father would have secured some position from Gov Rhyte but it seems as if the offices now are given to those
