

not had the pleasure of seeing him we thought he would stay with us but he put up at the Mansion House. I see him frequently - tell your mother not to worry about him - he has been vaccinated and there is no danger for him. I was delighted with that nice little boy who you sent me - it was a real treat. and came just in time for me to wear it. So you won't believe me when I tell you that "I have no one to love". I vow it is so. I am looking for some congenial heart every day of my life - I can find none - no matter how hard I strive. It seems that every one I ever fancied was all engaged.
For instance - there was Nellie Galt. she got married - then there was a relative of hers in Washington and she was engaged - and then I could see no other one to fancy - so here I am a perpetual benedictine monk. But who knows? maybe I may get be lucky - and so shall trade my time - I shall begin to save up my spare change as I must prepare a gift for Mart. as
