YACHT CLUB CALL

One Hundred Cups Is to Prompt Great Interest

A notice appeared on the Royal Cruising Club Sunday afternoon a fleet of American yachts sailing under colours of the Corinthian Yacht Club, Kensington, Pa., cruised across Mt. Island and anchored opposite food stop of the cruising yacht club. It was a race to the home of Mr. Alex E. Wilson, one of the premier amateur yachtsmen on the Bay. Dr. Harry A. Wilson, first surgeon, Lt. Commander, U. S. and Mr. Ken Wilson, of Philadelphia.

The fleet was having a run of Philadelphia longer cruise, which will be of the most pronounced on the Atlantic coast, began on Memorial Day and ended Friday, June 2, when the fleet arrived at Yacht Club, Annapolis. Lieut. Commander Lieut. Dickson is left for a cruise at the Boston yacht anchorage for Chesapeake Bay waters. The fleet passed through the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal and made its first anchorage off Town Point, below Chesapeake City. On Saturday it dashed on down the Bay to Annapolis, where it anchored for the second stop and on Sunday morning sailed the bay to Charles River and the shores of Eastern Monday morning it was underway at 9 o'clock, headed for Gibson Island. Tuesday's schedule called for a visit to Wye River and a return to Annapolis on Wednesday.

At five o'clock Sunday afternoon one hundred guest were gracious entertained on the broad verandas of the old Kinsley mansion by Mrs. Alex Wilson, assisted by Miss Ken Wilson, Mrs. Harry Wilson, Mrs. Howard Wood, and Mrs. Allen Turpin at an elegant afternoon tea. The Rear Commodore, Captain of the Fleet, Dr. Minerva Pryor, First Surgeon, Mr. Ralph Kirby, Rear Commodore, and Col. Edwin M. Chance were served on the tea. Special entertainment Final tea arrangements in the nature of Special Musical features were by Miss Dorothy Wilson, of Philadelphia, Dr. Harry Wilson, Andrew McCown, Jack Orr, Harry Doughty and Joseph Stone, all members of the fleet. The speakers fleet with its brilliant setting, surrounded by beautiful lawn, and charming in gorgeous clouds, presented a scene of delightful contrast to the gaiety that was enjoyed until a late hour.

Fifty guests nearly all of the yachts are known along the Atlantic coast, were in particular, the "Autumn," "Sweetness" and principal schooner of the Edwin Chance, deserves special mention. This beautiful schooner has repeatedly Atlantic on several occasions. On her duties European Royalty has been entertained and Sunday parties on the north coast have visited her with pleasure. But probably her most recent cruise was that to the South Sea Islands on which expedition Dr. Wilson Burke was in search of hidden life of the northern seas.

Queen River Regatta

Hundreds of Queen Anne's county yachting enthusiasts will be interested in the announcement by Neal J. Trueloc, chairman of the 1933 regatta committee, that the annual classic of the Chester River Yacht and Cruising Club will be held on Friday and Saturday, July 28 and 29.

Mr. Trueloc, in announcing regatta plans, has made public the committee which will have charge of the most big sea. The committee is as follows:

Race Committee—Stephen Coulbourn, chairman, Thomas Kelley, E. T. Harman, M. D. K. Pearce, Tilghman Meyer and James W. Jones.

Finance—Ernest Strong, chairman, and H. T. Harman.

Patrol—Claude Tessier, Michael Brooks and William Collins.

Course—R. E. Hopper and M. Stein Thompson.

Publicity and Prize—Harry S. Russell, chairman, E. B. Collins, Jr. and F. Henry Rees.

Trophy—Philip Wilson, chairman, and J. F. Coverdale.

Wharf—Elias Perkins, chairman, and Peter Emory.

Reception and Dance—James G. Beck, chairman, and Simon W. Wagner.

Plans for the Saturday regatta call for the first day's race to be held off the Corsica river. Events will include a big Sunday Queen race, an International Star Class event, a sailing handicap race in anchorage on Corsica river and a similar event for motor craft.

The second day's race, off Chestertown, will include a big Course handicap, a small sail handicap, an unlimited sail handicap, an unlimited sail board event, a race for 110 R. F. runabouts, a free-for-all motor race, a 110 R. F. stock runabout for ladies and an outboard motor speed boat.

Mrs. Emma C. Harmon, of Crumpton, well known member of the W. C. T. U. and wife of Geo. E. Harmon, former Tax Supervisor for Queen Anne's County, former judge of the Orphans Court, and former member of the Board of Election Supervisors, died at Emergency Hospital, Easton, Thursday morning, of her sixth attack into date age, and mother of a serious operation Friday of last week, made her failed to live. She was sixty years old. Mrs. Harmon was a Miss Conner before her marriage and was born in Kent Island, December 20th, 1871. Early in life she lostmany the life of Mr. Harmon, and had resided in Crumpton.

Mrs. Harmon is survived by her husband and she one son and two daughters.

DOINGS OF THE WEEK

Local and Other Items of Interest for Our Readers.

100 bushels long leaf Sim potatoes for sale at The per bushel. Jas. C. Quimby.

Dancing every Saturday night at the Community Hall, Queenstown. Admission, 35c.

Let us clean your shoes with soap or slippers. G. B. Capel, Queenstown. Phone 9.

For Sale—Tractor, plows and disc in first class condition. Apply to W. S. Delahay.

Clocks and watches repaired. Prices reasonable. Quick service. F. V. Roberts, Queenstown.

Mayfield, Stone and other varieties of tomato plants, 50c hundred. James E. Andrews, Queenstown, Md.

Barred Rock and White Leghorn chicks 10 per 100 at hatchery 10 per 100 delivered. Last hatch June 10. WEST DENTON HATCHERY, Denton, Md.

Fisher Bros. have been painting around town during the last week. We do not know the reason "All work and no play makes a dull boy." Let them extend, "All play and no work makes a bright boy."

Charles Colbert, of Double Creek, this county, who was original of Bolton before P. Wilson Carter, United States Commissioner, on charges of transportation and possession of liquor, was released in $750 bail for later trial.

Farmers will begin harvesting their pea crops Monday. Prospects at this time are for a good yield in this section. The farmers will give employment to a great many men for about ten days. With a good crop the group will realize a good sum in cash.

With peach the biggest crop seen in our town, are bringing right near Carpenters Island. Some of them will weigh a pound each. The peaches are selling Forty Cents. Charles Sullivan caught about the peaches and sold hundreds Wednesday morning in about an hour.

Queenstown and Rye Mills have had teams played a baseball game on the latter's diamond Sunday afternoon. Rye Mills won by a score of 10 to 9. The Queenstown diamond is being put in fine shape ready for the game Sunday between Queenstown and Barnesville.

Jim Quimby has found two fine goose nest(nests) while hoed a patch of land adjacent farmer lands left over from the high-water bottom, about three, one finding a resale sale for fifty. I assure that with the return of food there is being purchased by local citizens in all in the bottoms of this town.

Burglars last Friday night broke and entered into the garage and store of Stanley McIntyre, at Kaplinville, and stole a Tobacco cutter, 3 packing of cigarettes, an electric clock, Mansfield tire, and 40 bush the cash drawer. They entered the building through the garage and then cut a hole in the store door to reach the safe.

Three well known Queen Anne county gentlemen, with a wonderful and interesting and of matters written at the Eastern Shore Farmers and Field Day at the Salisbury Fair grounds yesterday. Thomas Kendall, of "My Lady's Manor," exhibited 15 robins Mrs. Helena Rawlins of "Crouch Farm" had 6 on display and Mr. Farmer had 6 on display.

Joseph Hill Richardson, Jr., the last son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Richardson, died at the home of his parents, near Fort Tuckey afternoon at one o'clock. The boy, who was about ten years old, had been ill for several months. The boy is survived by his parents and a number of uncles and aunts. His mother before her marriage was Miss Gertrude Fooing, of Centreville.

The famous Adams Floating Theater, which inspired Elmer Harper's popular novel, "Show Boat," has been granted, by Mrs. Nina B. Howell, of St. Michaels, who has changed its name back to "Show Boat," and it is announced, exports to perpetuate it as an Eastern Shore "floating theater." This unique institution recently of early Mississippi River days, has for years been a familiar amusement in the inland water sections of Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina.

The St. Rev. Edmond J. Flanagan, Bishop of the Wilmington, Diocese, administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to a class of forty-nine of Mother of Sorrows Catholic Church, Centreville, last Friday morning. He was assisted by Father Francis Mundy, of St. Gertrude's Aryton, "The Pirate," near Edgewater, and Father Eugene Kerrigan, pastor of Mother of Sorrows. Father Mundy, of St. Peter's Parish, near town. The class was made up of twenty-two boys, twenty four girls and three adults.

The thirty-third annual commencement exercises of St. Gertrude Academy, "The Pirate," near Edgewater, will be held in the auditorium of the school on June 14.

In addition to the diplomas and the graduates, prizes and awards will be presented in the pupils of the primary and grammar school grades, and to the undergraduates in the high school. Students of the Academy are being prepared for graduation by the dates of the Benedictine Order, located in Mt. Angelus in Newark, N. J. and I. Rose Cloudel, Pa., are expected to attend the exercises.

PLEASE PAY YOUR SUBSCRIPTION

HAPPENINGS IN PINEY NECK

Some Item Concerning Residents and Pete's Corner

Corn for sale—R. E. Dudley, Queenstown.

Mr. Jesse Thompson, of Baltimore, Md., was a visitor in town last week.

Mrs. Florence Brown of Washington, D. C., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Hopper.

Mr. Charles Brown of Washington, D. C., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Hopper.

Mr. Charles Hopper of Baltimore, Md., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Hopper.

Mr. Jesse