

I am going to try to get to Ann Arbor next month when it gets cooler and we can have a good sailing round. I would like to get May out on a good heavy sea and make a sailor of her.
I have not seen Jim for a week I shall try to hunt him up and have him write to you.
I am having quite a lazy time in Ballinore as I am no lady's man I have a quiet time, if you believe me. I have not formed a young lady's acquaintance in the whole city. Clara is to sail for "Germany" at 2 o'clock. She sent me an invitation to see her off - but I preferred remaining at home to wrap myself up as our parting would be too affecting for the eyes of all spectators. My - what a squall we are having - The
