

Dear Sue: ^{Well} ^{O'Keefe} Sunday. 10. A.M.

What a pleasant little surprise did I experience this morning. John rang the bell and gave me your letter - it was really kind in you to be so prompt - and I know no other way of expressing my feelings than by writing at once. Lack of gay times - goodness! I have been in heaven for the last two weeks - but on Thursday she went away - and I be hanged if I know why - but I have had the blues' ever since. How I do wish you had come to Ball's. During Mrs. Chanfrau's engagement I saw her six times - and such a clinging one cannot enjoy every day in the year - she was really magnificent in all respects. I took Fannie last night. Grace is all curiosity to know what Nan
