

out, please let me know - as some one was kind enough to tell a fearful tale about me to a young-gentleman friend of mine - & if I can discover who it is I shall let them hear from me. Pap. has been worrying all week - as to whether Jack sent the oysters to Cumberland.
I told him it was all right - but he was expecting a reply.
Now is a scarce article - in town - but times are lively weather delightful & money scarce.

Dee. has arrived & will take possession of her home on Monday. Father furnished & bought it. while Mother stocked it &c. She is in a nice location - on N. Broadway near the Monument. So I think I had better get married & go to live with her. What think you?
