grounds, and is not ... any waving of banners or blaring of trumpets. It simply announces in a very prosaic, yet very eloquent, circular that persons addicted to these vices are not wanted in places of responsibility.

At the Republican State Convention, Thursday, in Baltimore, Stevenson A. Williams, of Harford county was nominated for Governor; George A. Whitelock, of Baltimore city was nominated for Attorney-General, and Lemuel E. P. Dennis, of Somerset county was nominated for Comptroller. It will be seen that both tickets are on similiar geographical lines. In both cases the nominees for Governor are from central counties—one from Howard, the other from Harford. Both nominees for Attorney-General are from Baltimore city, and both the nominees for Comptroller from Somerset county.

Now that the crews for both boats have been selected, it is predicted that the race will be as close and interesting as that of the Reliance and Shamrock III. At any event it is dollars to doughnuts, that both boats will be well supplied with Uncle Sam's "long-greens" to pay "floaters" to assist them over the numerous shoals which they will encounter in the race.

The nomination of Hon. Edwin Warfield, for Governor by the Democrats was a foregone conclusion. His campaign, conducted on the sure basis of securing popular approbation in advance, settled all questioning as to the head of the ticket. His nomination by acclamation places him before the voters on his merits as a candidate who is perfectly qualified in every way to administer the affairs of the State acceptably and with credit to himself and the people. He has always been more or less identified with public affairs and is one of the most progressive and prosperous business men of Maryland. His running mates, William S. Bryan, Jr., of Baltimore city for Attorney-General and Dr. Gordon T. Atkinson, of Somerset county for Comptroller of the Treasury, make up a ticket representative both of the urban and tidewater sections of the State; so that considered geographically no fault can be found with it. Mr. Bryan is an able lawyer, and the Attorney-Generalship being conceded to Baltimore city, it is thought by his party friends that few could be found better qualified for the position than he is by reason of experience and ability. The choice of Dr. Atkinson was decided upon at the last moment. The names of many Eastern Shore men were suggested to satisfy the claims of the tidewater counties and so many complications grew out of the wealth of material that it was hard to decide who was most available. Dr. Atkinson is represented as possessing the necessary qualifications both of character and of being ...

Distress After Eating Cured.

Judge W. T. Holland of Greensburg, La., who is well and favorably known, says: "Two years ago I suffered greatly from indigestion. After eating, great distress would invariably result, lasting for an hour or so and my nights were restless. I concluded to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me entirely. Now my sleep is refreshing and digestion perfect." J. S. Denny and Wye Mills drug store.
