

as so often and the De had told us so many times but B. now he has gone where I loved so much - he looks so sweety - Can't some of you come up - we should be glad to have any of you and all, Lottie and Rosie say must some of you please come - they can accomodate as many as will come, we will let you know the arrangements as soon as we know ourselves but will wait to hear when Winnie can come as she is farthest - Father & Rosie are almost broken hearted, poor children - please let all the family know - I hardly know Aunt Annie what I have said - but do some come up love