...TURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1906.

Of course, the intention of the Standard Oil Company, in its attempt to corner the denatured alcohol business, is to make the new fuel so cheap and popular that persons will prefer it to kerosene and gasoline.

The bank president of Chicago who wrecked his institution and fled has been captured. Here is a fine chance to make an effective example of the men who have been making this betrayal of trust a common scandal.

A Georgia girl is seriously ill from a playful bite inflicted by her lover when kissing her. It is a pity that there cannot be a law to muzzle lovers whose manifestations of affection run to this peculiar style of playfulness.

It is a great pity that bank examiners and directors do not follow the doctrine and practice of the original framers of the Constitution, who, in the words of the keen historian, "believed in original sin and left no door open they could shut." Then the blind trust in men with unlimited temptation to steal trust funds might not be repeating the same old monotonous story.

The death of Judge Martin, Wednesday, was a shock to the citizens of this county, and it creates an untimely and regrettable vacancy on the bench. His place as a citizen and a jurist will be hard to fill. Like all who knew him intimately, we feel that he was a man whom we could ill afford to lose, and his death will be long remembered by the many who knew him. One of Judge Martin's last appearances on the bench was at the memorial exercises in honor of Judge Brown, upon which occasion he delivered a eulogy of his dead colleague, which was a masterpiece of grace and feeling. The death of Judge Brown was a grievous shock to Judge Martin, who persisted in attributing it in part to the arduous work which had fallen Judge Brown by reason of the former's disability.

The Jubilee in commemoration of the rise of newer and greater Baltimore will begin tomorrow. The celebration has been planned on a scale that is in keeping with the city's progress and with its outlook for the future, and the industrial pageant, the military parade and the firemen's display will be the most imposing spectacles of their kind that the city has ever witnessed. The triumph which the city will celebrate next week was not fought on any battlefield, it is true. On the contrary, it has been valliantly fought and won right at home since that terrible ordeal by fire on that well-remembered Sunday and Monday in February two years ago. Since that time the city has not only regained—and unassisted—all that she lost in the fire, but she has taken a fresh start forward, so that today she stands not only as the newer Baltimore, but the greater Baltimore also.

Up to the time of Koch, of Berlin, within the two last decades, the disease commonly known as "Consumption of the Lungs" was generally believed to be incurable, as well as hereditary. Koch, by his discoveries and by the presentation of his system of inoculation, made great changes in the situation, raising hope in the hopeless and actually accomplishing some cures.

Since then many others have devoted themselves to the study of this highly important subject, and among these none has been more intelligently active than Bering, of Marburg. He has probably done more than any other experimenter to secure protection for cattle, and he has made most important studies of human tuberculosis. A prominent Paris paper, declared a few days ago that Bering had tested his serum for human treatment fully, and had established its value. The following is from the paper:

"Professor Bering has kept his promise. Nearly a year ago he announced that he had discovered a serum for tuberculosis, which he would not reveal until he had proved its efficiency. Three days at Marburg before a small audience, the eminent Doctor stated that he was now placing his remedy, 'Tulase,' in the hands of practitioners. Professor Bering is to be believed; the cure of consumption is close at hand."

...trust ...got so far as ...Rockefeller into ...is not likely that much ...done for him, but is very good ...a beginning.

If we rise up and call blessed a man who increases the grass crop, what shall we do if the Government succeeds in the project of making each hen lay two eggs where but one egg was laid before?

"Could any other ruler on earth do this thing?" asks a London paper, in reference to Roosevelt's sudden supposed creation of the bobtail language. Probably not. Even Roosevelt hasn't done it.

DRIFTING TOWARDS BRIGHT'S DISEASE

Many people who are neglecting symptoms of kidney trouble, hoping "it will wear away," are drifting towards Bright's Disease, which is kidney trouble in one of its worst forms.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

stops irregularities, strengthens the urinary organs and builds up the worn-out tissues of the kidneys so they will perform their functions properly. Healthy kidneys strain out the impurities from the blood as it passes through them. Diseased kidneys do not, and the poisonous waste matter is carried by the circulation to every part of the body, causing dizziness, backache, stomach trouble, sluggish liver, irregular heart action, etc.

If you have any signs of Kidney or Bladder Trouble commence taking FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE at once, as it will cure a slight disorder in a few days and prevent a fatal malady. It is pleasant to take and benefits the whole system.

How to Find Out.

You can easily determine if your kidneys are out of order by setting aside for 24 hours a bottle of the urine passed upon arising. If upon examination it is cloudy or milky or has a brick-dust sediment or small particles float about in it, your kidneys are diseased, and FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE should be taken at once.

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years.

G. B. Burhans of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes:

"About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been e... cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bo... Foley's Kidney Cure.
